

CES Student Spotlight #2

January, 2026

JJ Wilson

JJ works hard in class and sets a good example. He participates in classroom activities and does his best. Even when he makes a mistake, he listens to discussions and comments from others and is able to revise his answers. His attitude helps set the tone for the class. He is a natural leader!

JJ is a fun student to have in PE class. Along with staying on task and remaining responsible, he always has fun with the tasks at hand - whether challenging himself to get better or a classmate, he continues to enjoy the activity for what it is. He also is an inclusive individual, never turning away a classmate for a team or skill practice.

JJ shows remarkable perseverance! He approaches each challenge with determination and a willingness to grow. JJ has demonstrated meaningful progress by making thoughtful choices, consistently showing effort and responsibility, and being a positive, fun presence in music class.
