

COMMERCIAL TRUCK DRIVING

Program Purpose

The purpose of the Commercial Truck Driving program is to provide accessible, quality educational opportunities that will provide individuals with the knowledge, technical skills, and attitudes necessary to obtain entry-level employment in the commercial truck driving profession. This program is intended to produce graduates who are prepared for entry-level employment, upon licensure, as Class "A" commercial truck drivers. Program graduates are to be competent in the technical areas of hours-of-service regulations, vehicle inspection procedures, basic backing skills, defensive driving techniques, basic driving techniques, and recognition of driving environment hazards.

Reid State Technical College will accomplish program objectives by providing students with a comprehensive technical training in the core area of Commercial Truck Driving. The occupational skill preparation is designed to meet the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency standards and the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administration recognized skill standards. The College will ensure program quality through internal certification of graduate competencies and external licensure of graduates by the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency Department of Public Safety.

Occupational data

Graduates of the Commercial Truck Driving program work in the transportation industry where they use their skills which are grouped under the classification of commercial truck driver personnel. According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics Occupational Employment and Wage Statistics, the national median wage for commercial truck driver personnel was $25.52/hr. in 2022.

Admission Requirements

Applicants to this program must complete the Commercial Truck Driving admission application, the TABE assessment through RSTC's Adult Education Program, and be 18 years of age. Additionally, applicants must provide a motor vehicle driving record (MVR) for the last three years. Students will also submit a D.O.T. physical, drug screen, and Commercial Learners License in order to register. While enrolled, students are subject to random drug and alcohol tests in accordance with the Department of Transportation Omnibus Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1991.

Alabama Department of Public Safety regulation, effective January 1, 2006, requires a student to possess one of the following commercial licenses:

1. Commercial Learner Permit (CLP) – A CLP is required for someone to legally drive on the highway if they do not currently possess a CDL. A state learner permit, valid for up to one year, shall be considered a valid commercial driver's license for purposes of behind-the-wheel training on public roads or highways.
