

John Lawrence Elementary School teachers and students in grades K-1 dressed as Letterland characters and paraded through the hallways on Friday, March 31. See photos and video.

Letterland is an explicit, systematic phonics instruction program. RCSS uses Letterland in K-3 classrooms, as well as for interventions for phonics deficits. Students associate how letters and sounds work through characters as they visit "Letterland" each day through stories and interactive lessons.