Suggested Winter Writing Activity

Materials:

Paper/Journal

Crayons, pencils, color pencils, or markers

Directions:

We have read several books about winter, snow, and snow days. Draw a picture of what you and your family would do on a snow day. (Examples: build a snow man, have a snowball fight, watch movies and drink hot chocolate, take a nap) The children may use their imagination and draw whatever they want.

Have them practice writing the letter "S" for "snow".

You can also have them write a word to go along with what they are doing in the picture.

Gross Motor Activity: Use sidewalk chalk to draw swirling lines or paw prints and follow the pattern.
