Big Ideas

6

Citing Textual Evidence

Cite textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.

7

Determine A Theme

Determine a theme of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.

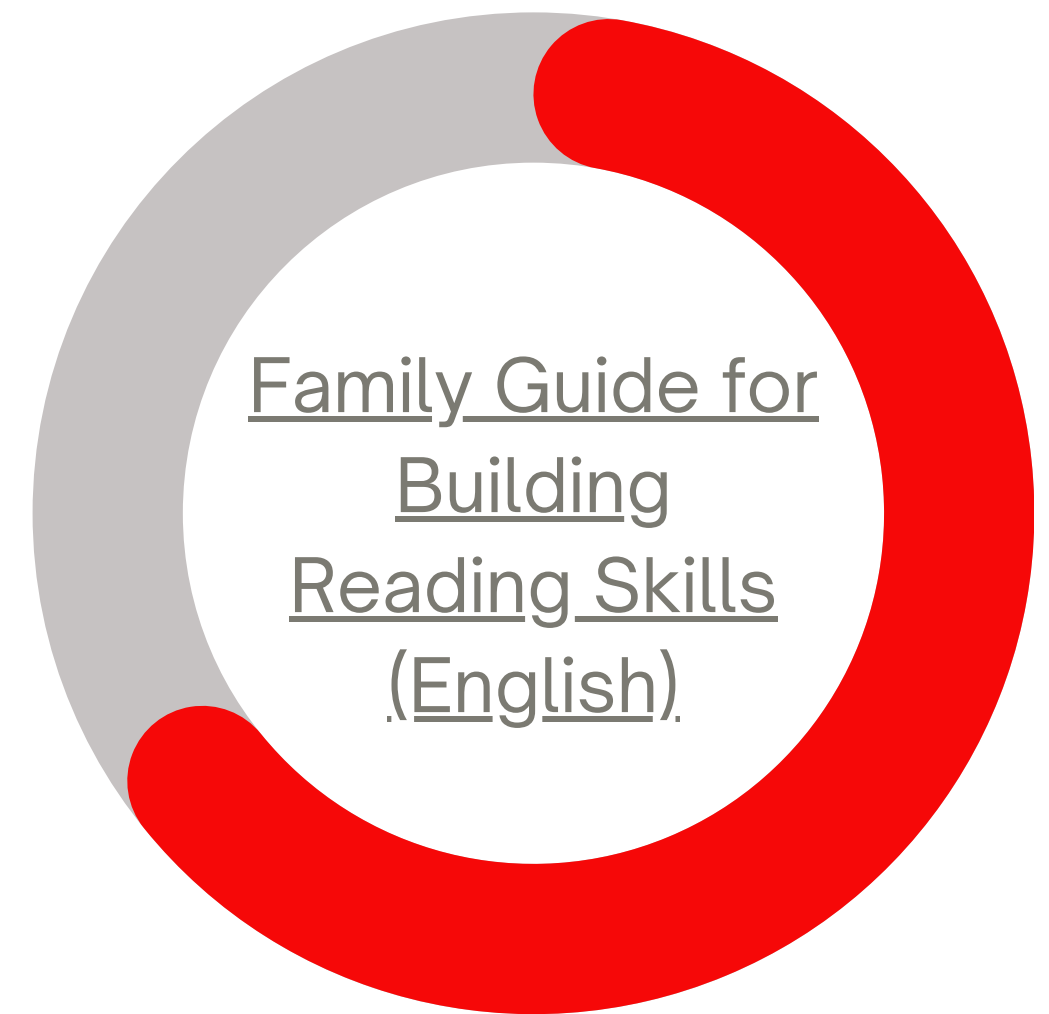

8

Text Analysis

Analyze how particular lines of dialogue or incidents in a story propel the action, reveal aspects of a character, or provoke a decision.

How Can Parents Help with Reading

- Share new words you came across in your reading and what they mean.
- Encourage your child to read for 15 minutes before going to sleep each night.
- Take reading materials with you on outings.
- Encourage your child to read while riding in the car, waiting at the doctor's office, passing time between activities.

Did You Know?

Using work protected by copyright is against the law?

Purposely copying another's work can result in serious consequences that could include fines up to $250,000 for each instance AND up to 5 years in jail!

Authors and creators can also file civil suits that could result in higher financial penalties.

How Can Parents Help with Math

- Have your child help with dinner!
 - Measuring out ingredients or halving or doubling a recipe is great math practice.
- Have your student help with home improvement projects!
 - Determining how much or how many materials are needed to complete the project shows real-world math applications.

Lexia Moves to Social Studies

To encourage literacy across the curriculum, MZMS uses Lexia in all our Social Studies classes to work on Word Study, Grammar, and Comprehension.

We have seen significant improvement for our students over the past several years of using Lexia.
