

STUDENT FEES, FINES AND CHARGES

Students are responsible for all textbooks and school property entrusted to them and must ensure they receive proper care in accordance with the Student Handbook. Damage, destruction or disappearance of school property is the responsibility of the student, and reimbursement up to replacement cost may be required by the District.

Students may be assessed fees for use of instructional materials when the product is to be kept by the student, under procedures established by the Principal and approved by the Superintendent. No student shall be denied full participation in any class because of an inability to afford fees or materials.
