Connector-Literature Circles

Name:	Book:
Date:	Assignment:
the outside world. Th happens at school or or to other people o section of the book, ea	is to find connections between the book you are is means connecting what you read with your own in the community, to similar events at other time or problems. Once you have shared your connect member of your group will also relate their own they may refer to a different passage.	n life, to what es and places, ection to this
Describe the part in the	he book, and then explain your connection.	