LOCAL STUDENT MICHAEL T. MILLER RECEIVES NATIONAL HONOR

The National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS) announced that student Michael T. Miller of Kingstree High School has been selected to become a member of the esteemed organization. Michael is being honored for the hard work, passion, and commitment that he has demonstrated to achieve this exceptional level of academic excellence. Michael is now a member of a unique community of scholars – a community that represents our very best hope for the future.

NSHSS members automatically become lifetime members at the time of their initial membership. Each step along the way – from high school to college to career – NSHSS connects outstanding young scholars with the resources they need to develop their strengths and pursue their passions.

Formed in 2002 by James W. Lewis and Claes Nobel, members of the family that established the Nobel Prizes, the National Society of High School Scholars recognizes academic excellence at the high school level and helps to advance the goals and aspirations of high-achieving students through unique learning experiences, scholarships, internships, international study, and peer networks. Currently, there are more than 1,700,000 members in over 170 countries.
