Speech Language Pathologist advertising underway

Match language in the office staff contracts for health insurance opt out language to the newly adopted language in the Negotiated Agreement:

Employees who opt out of the Cooperative health insurance plan will receive a contribution to supplement their Section 125 Plan, 403B Plan, and/or Health Savings Account (HSA) of half the amount that would have been contributed to their insurance benefit.

I would like to amend the contract for Roger and Denise Heimbigner with this language effective immediately. The other office contracts can be updated with the new language when they are offered for the 2026-27 year.
