Christians Gather at Idaho Capitol After Media Outlet Threatens 'Keep Your Religion Out of Gov't'

An Idaho newspaper called Christians who gathered at a worship event led by Sean Feucht "dangerous activists" who are "full of hate" and threatened them saying "keep your religion out of our government".

Florida Man Accused of Stealing \$35 Million in Ponzi Scheme Targeting 'Elderly, Retired, and Connected' Church Members.

Brent Seaman, founder and CEO of Accanito Capital Group, is accused of a Ponzi scheme that raised nearly $35 million. According to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), "Many of these investors were elderly, retired, and connected" to a Naples, Florida, church "where Seaman was an active member."

Angel Studios 'Sound of Freedom' Continues as Box Office Hit, Nears \$150M Mark.

According to Box Office Mojo, the film garnered $12,409,300 in its fourth weekend of release. As of Sunday, the film's box office receipts total $148,972,065.

Michigan Democrats seek to enforce the LGBT agenda

Under a bill being considered by state lawmakers, any action that "threatens by word or act" gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender person would be punishable by up to five years in jail and a 10,000 dollar fine. But critics wonder what kind of WORDS would trigger that punishment? They say quoting from the Bible or refusing to use a transgender person's preferred pronouns might cross the line under this new legislation.

Baptist University in West Virginia on the Brink of Closure

Alderson Broaddus University (ABU), a Baptist school in West Virginia, finds itself in the middle of a significant financial crisis and is on the brink of shutting down. This week, during an emergency meeting of West Virginia's Higher Education Policy Commission and other state officials, the decision was made to pull its authorization while also preparing an order that calls for the school to wind down operations.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

I am a fan of WBHY since I was 16 years old. Power 88 hit the air at a crucial time in my life and was a great help for me as I struggled walking in the world and feeling a desire for something more. I used it as a tool as a youth pastor after completing college. It was a comfort to me while dealing with the unexpected and premature passing of many family members, including my father when. A couple of years after launching the nonprofit that I still work with to this day, we became underwriters of Power 88 to support it, pay WBHY back for the impact they'd had on my life, and to advertise. I loved how Power 88 always stayed ABOVE the fray and kept its mission of bringing souls to Christ as the primary work. Reaching all for Christ is a difficult task as the target audience oftentimes has false beliefs that are a part of their spiritual condition. Staying true and speaking truth about important issues while loving the lost is a beautiful concert.

Supporting Christian Radio

If Christian radio has made a difference in your life and you do not have a means of helping support the station financially, there are 2 other important things you can do:

1. Keep us in your prayers that God may use this radio ministry for His glory.
2. Support a business that underwrites. Thank them for their donation to help support local Christian radio and use their services when possible.
