National Religious Broadcasters Sues IRS Over Johnson Amendment

A group of evangelical broadcasters is suing the Internal Revenue Service over the Johnson Amendment, a tax law that bars nonprofits from supporting political candidates.

The New 'Ministries of Truth': The Fast Spreading Global Censorship Movement

A censorship movement is rising in the world's democracies – whether it's British citizens charged over social media posts, France's arrest of the owner of the social media platform Telegram, Brazil's shutting down Elon Musk's X for not complying with censorship restrictions, or Mark Zuckerberg's admission that the Biden White House pressured Facebook and Instagram to censor stories it didn't like.

People want leaders who stand up for religious freedom

A new poll from the Pew Research Center finds that all around the globe, citizens put a premium on government officials who support the right of everyone to pursue whatever faith system they wish. Here in the U.S., about two-thirds of adults say it's important for the president to stand up for all people's religious freedom.

Another major company abandons the LGBT agenda

Lowe's, the giant home improvement chain, says it will no longer support the Human Rights Campaign — the leading LGBT pressure group in the country.

An atheist organization is going after the 10 Commandments

The Freedom From Religion Foundation wants officials in Jefferson County, Illinois to pull down a large display of the Decalogue at the county courthouse.

The Foundation claims that the monument is a violation of the so-called separation of church and state.

50 Largest Christian Colleges & Universities in the U.S.

Grove City makes biggest jump; Moody Bible Institute sees biggest drop. This list is compiled from the most recent data available from the Internal Revenue Service, which in all cases means we used 2023 data.

Highlights from Letters to Power

I discovered Power 88 earlier this year and thank you for the wonderful uplifting music. I have NEVER in my 68 years heard such beautiful music!! Thank you for all the work you put into choosing your programs & beautiful music.

Thank you for helping me with my growth in getting to know Christ. I work graveyard shift and your station has touched my heart and my family's heart over the past 2 years. We are now able to have money to donate though the principles learned on your station.
