

FHS SUMMER READING FOR 2026

Students are to choose ONE book from the listed options for their grade level. Tests based on the content of these books will be administered immediately upon the return to school in August.

Options are available based on differentiation of Lexile level, interest, and length for each grade level.

English 1 students or Ninth grade classes: Summer Reading

- The Help by Kathryn Stockett (730L)
- Night by Elie Wiesel (590L)

English 2 students or Tenth grade classes: Summer Reading

- They Went Left by Monica Hess (730L)
- Ashfall by Mike Mullin (750L)

English 3 students or Eleventh grade classes: Summer Reading

- As I Lay Dying by William Faulkner (870L)
- The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck (680L)

English 4 Students or Technical Writing or Twelfth grade classes: Summer Reading

- Tuesdays with Morrie by Mitch Albom (830L)
- The Other Wes Moore: One Name, Two Fates by Wes Moore (990L)

English Comp 1 and 2 students do not have a summer reading selection