Information items.

Superintendent – Mindy Horn

- Veterans Day Ceremony this Friday.
- We had school-wide PD on the 28th in Gaylord with 800 teachers and paraprofessionals. We met at COP yesterday for CTE coursework. It will be a year-long planning process. Our goal is to have courses going next fall.
- The daycare license has been renewed for three years.

Elementary -Robin Benson- Attached

- We are 80% complete with NWEA testing. We can see within 25 hours where our kid's needs are so we can close the gap. Down to a few to finish up in elementary. We will do testing in the fall, winter, and spring.
- Book vending machine unveiling. It will be used as part of our behavior program with 26 kids already in the 5-feather club. The Cardinal at the end of the hall is getting full of feathers.
- Veterans program 9 am this Friday. We will parade through the school with hats, posters, and banners.
- Breakfast with Santa, put on by the PTO, will be held on December 3rd.

The Christmas program is on December 20th at 6 pm.

- k-1 is working on letters training, taking us back to the fundamentals of reading. Teachers are participating in zoom meetings and online tutorials on their own time for additional training, which is being paid for by the state.

Secondary/Athletic Report – Marty Mix-None

Student Representative Report-

- The student body is transitioning from fall to winter sports. JH girls started last week, and our JH boys are playing at home tonight. Next week high school will begin. PTO is throwing a fundraiser, football verse volleyball, next Thursday, the 17th. Donations or toys at the door for admission. Another current fundraiser is our penny wars fundraiser, and we have had a huge response. Student council meeting this week, going over agenda and winter can-drive. FAFSA night last night for seniors in the ACC room with a financial advisor from ACC. It was a successful event for all nine that attended.
