

MRS.DAVIS' NEWS October 10-13, 2023

WRITING

This week we'll continue to work on writing personal narratives. I am so proud of all of my students for working so hard to complete their favorite bday and a time they lost a tooth. We will continue to write narratives over the next few weeks. We will quiz this nine weeks.

ENGLISH

We'll introduce collective nouns. A collective noun is a word that describes a group of people, things, or animals. For example: a dozen of eggs, a class of students, a bunch of bananas, a troop of monkeys, a pride of lions, a deck of cards, a choir of singers, etc....Review: nouns, verbs, complete sentences.

READING

Students will identify common text features including captions, bold print, and subheadings. Students will also use text features to locate information in a text. Review: key details, main topic.
