- C. Student Services Report. Written.
- D. Superintendent Report. Written. C. Hurowitz addressed a question by K. Engel from the last meeting concerning what the middle school would look like and how will it be funded? C. Hurowitz responded that the district is able to make a middle school with the current staffing that we have. She explained the difference between a junior high school and a middle school. A middle school just needs the core classes, whereas the junior high would have electives. K. Engel explained that she had been asked this question regarding the bond and whether we could afford to staff the building, and she wanted to be able to assure people that that is the
