

Bradford-Tioga
Head Start, Inc

2024-2025
Head Start

School Readiness Outcomes

BRADFORD-TIOGA HEAD START
2024-2025 Three-To-Five-Year Old School Readiness Outcomes
CHILDREN WHO MEET AND/OR EXCEED EXPECTATIONS

Physical Health is measured by the mastering of various physical skills such as running, jumping, using a pencil, going to the bathroom unaided, etc. These skills are essential to ensure success when a child enters kindergarten. There was a 4% gain this year in the area of Physical Health and Development.

Cognition & Knowledge is measured by the mastering of various cognition skills such as using and mimicing several positional words (i.e. put your hand beside the table, put your leg over the seat, etc), describing the location of things (address, telephone number, etc.), using strategies to solve mathematical problems, etc. There was a 28% gain in the area of Cognition and Knowledge.

Approaches to Learning is measured by the mastering of various skills such as seeking out new thoughts and ideas, experimenting with various tools and instruments, etc. There was a 14% gain in the area of Approaches to Learning.

Language and Literacy is measured by the mastering of various literacy related skills such as understanding print and how it can be used, following two or three step direction (i.e. put on your coat, line-up and go outside), or is able to convey needs and/or wants. There was a 20% gain in the area of Language and Literacy.

Social & Emotional Health is measured by the mastering of various skills such as showing empathy, compassion to others, following rules and routines, etc. There was a 14% gain in the area of Social & Emotional.