PARENT-STUDENT-SCHOOL COMPACT 2022-2023

We, the Crazy Horse School community, establish this compact to foster the success of our students. We believe this is accomplished through the planned partnership of parents, families, students, teachers, and administrators. Goals that ensure academic achievement of the state standards; help every student develop a sense of responsibility and respect of self and others; and provide guidelines for meaningful two-way communication between home and school are guaranteed through the following responsibilities in this agreement.

Crazy Horse School Teachers will provide high-quality instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that ensures our students to be successful. Crazy Horse School academic goals for school year 2022-2023 are to increase assessment scores in reading, language arts and writing in all grades. In addition, I will:

Reading/Literacy

- Keep parents informed of the reading and math skills their children are learning.
- Provide opportunities for parents to reinforce these skills at home.

Study habits/Self-directed learning

- Teach students how to study and encourage active communication skills.
- Provide work assignments relevant to state content standards mastery.

Respect/Responsibility

- Model and display responsible decision making and citizenship.
- Maintain appropriate student behavior in the school so that all students can learn and be a good relative.

Community

- Respond and communicate promptly to families' concerns, message, and requests for information.
- Hold parent-teacher conferences, and this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.

Crazy Horse School Students benefit when adults in their school community are bonded by strong relationships. They recognize that they, too, are partners with their parents and teachers in their success. I will:

Reading/Literacy

- Encourage reading regularly for pleasure as well as to learn.
- Ask my family to read with me or read to me.

Study habits/Self-directed learning

- Listen to my family, teachers, and others who help me learn, and ask questions.
- Complete my assignments and take responsibility for my learning.

Respect/Responsibility

- Come to school on time and be ready to learn.
- Be a Good Relative

Community

- Strengthen communication between school and home.
- Encourage my family to participate in events and activities sponsored by my school.

Crazy Horse School Parents/Families understand that involvement in their child's education is the number one determining factor in a child's academic success. To make education a top priority in our home, I will:

Reading/Literacy

- Encourage reading in the home.
- Help my child with their homework and model asking for help if needed.

Study habits/Self-directed learning

- Encourage my child to do their homework and talk about its importance.
- Establish positive routines.

Respect/Responsibility

- Stress the importance of school and classroom behavior expectations in family conversations.
- Encourage my child to demonstrate respect for school personnel, classmate, and school property.

Community

- Respond and communicate with the school regarding requests, information, questions, or concerns.
- Be active in my child's school activities.

We strive to strengthen the family-school partnership to enhance student learning through communication about students' progress toward their educational goals. We encourage new opportunities for our community to learn.

Please read and sign this Compact, then return it to your child's principal. We will refer to this compact at parent-teacher conferences and meetings that confirm our family-school partnership to enhance our students' learning.

Crazy Horse School Principal supports and encourages the efforts of all family-school partnerships in this school community.
