

BENJAMIN PAINE BSO MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship is given as a loving testament to the passion and love of life embodied by Ben Paine who died July 10, 2006 while doing what he loved best, playing basketball. In a college paper, Ben wrote:

" I believe that you should never have to say I wish I did this or I could have done that...Nobody remembers the mishaps, but people definitely remember what they could have accomplished (had they tried)."

Scholarship awards of between $150 - $1500 will be awarded:
Approximately $15,000 in total awards is to be given.

Qualifications to apply:

- a) Must be a graduating senior
- b) G.P.A. of 2.5 or greater
- c) Must have participated in athletics at the high school senior level

Along with your completed application you will need the following:

Must write an essay up to 400 words on the topic "What is my Passion and how will it help me to grow and succeed?"

Topic on Which to Write Essay:

Please write up to a maximum of 400 words on the topic:

“What is my Passion and how will it help me to grow and succeed?”

Please include some event or story that illustrates your enthusiasm for your topic, which does not need to involve sports. Please type clearly in black ink. Please take time to organize your thoughts. Please emphasize your passion and not a list of what you have done. Please reread your work for grammatical and sentence structure errors. Read it slowly and out loud to someone else to check your wording. No need to include a separate list of your extracurricular activities. They have no bearing on the awards.
