CATECHISM Q & A: DEEPENING OUR FAITH

What Is Advent? Submitted by Rhonda Storey, DRE

For many Catholics unfamiliar with the liturgical year, there may be some confusion surrounding the meaning of the Advent season. Some people may know that the Advent season focuses on expectation and think that it serves as an anticipation of Christ's birth in the season leading up to Christmas. This is part of the story, but there's more to Advent. The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's Second Coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's Birth on Christmas. The final days of Advent, from December 17 to December 24, focus particularly on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord (Christmas). Advent devotions, including the Advent wreath, remind us of the meaning of the season. An Advent calendar can help you fully enter in to the season with daily activities and prayer suggestions to prepare you spiritually for the birth of Jesus Christ.

The History of Advent: The word "Advent" is derived from the Latin word adventus, meaning "coming," which is a translation of the Greek word parousia. Scholars believe that during the 4th and 5th centuries in Spain and Gaul, Advent was a season of preparation for the baptism of new Christians at the January feast of Epiphany, the celebration of God's incarnation represented by the visit of the Magi to the Baby Jesus (Matthew 2:1), His baptism in the Jordan River by John the Baptist (John 1:29), and His first miracle at Cana (John 2:1). During this season of preparation, Christians would spend 40 days in penance, prayer, and fasting to prepare for this celebration; originally, there was little connection between Advent and Christmas. By the 6th century, however, Roman Christians had tied Advent to the coming of Christ. But the "coming" they had in mind was not Christ's first coming in the manger in Bethlehem, but His Second Coming in the clouds as the judge of the world. It was not until the Middle Ages that the Advent season was explicitly linked to Christ's first coming at Christmas.

Advent Today: Today, the Advent season lasts for four Sundays leading up to Christmas. At that time, the new Christian year begins with the twelve-day celebration of Christmastide, which lasts from Christmas Eve until Epiphany (this year, on January 8). Advent symbolizes the present situation of the Church in these "last days" (Acts 2:17; Hebrews 1:2), as God's people wait for the return of Christ in glory to consummate His eternal kingdom. The church is in a similar situation to Israel at the end of the Old Testament: in exile, waiting and hoping in prayerful expectation for the coming of the Messiah. Israel looked back to God's past gracious actions on their behalf in leading them out of Egypt in the Exodus; and, on this basis, they called for God once again to act for them. In the same way, the Church, during Advent, looks back upon Christ's coming in celebration while at the same time looking forward in eager anticipation to the coming of Christ's kingdom when He returns for His people. In this light, the Advent hymn, "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" perfectly represents the Church's cry during the Advent season:

O come, O come, Emmanuel, And ransom captive Israel,
 That mourns in lonely exile here, Until the Son of God appears.
 Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

While Israel would have sung the song in expectation of Christ's first coming, the Church now sings the song in commemoration of that first coming and in expectation of the second coming in the future.

Waiting ...
 Anticipating ... and Preparing

FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary is on Thursday, December 8, and is a holy day of obligation to attend Mass. Mass times will be in the morning at 6:00, 8:00, and 10:00 and in the evening at 7:30.

The dogma of the Immaculate Conception, which commemorates Mary's conception in the womb of her mother, confesses, as Pope Pius IX proclaimed in 1854: "The most Blessed Virgin Mary was, from the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege of Almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, Savior of the human race, preserved immune from all stain of original sin." The Catechism of the Church says, "The Father chose Mary 'in Christ before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless before Him in love.'"

"I am the Immaculate Conception."
