#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Honestly if parkwood got a new principal and assistant principal, ones that actually care about the mindset and future of our children it would improve my child's education. When a child is accepted by his peers he's more likely to succeed. Someone needs to care about the succession of all the children not just certain children or groups of children. The minority should matter as well. The bullies should be dealt with both discipline and counseling or mental help. Bottom line is this school as it is run currently is not a learning environment for all children	2/20/2025 2:58 PM

3	Thank you all for all do for my children.	2/13/2025 7:58 AM
4	Parkwood Elem. would benefit greatly from having events that are more frequent and that promotes curiosity for learning; the events are scattered and sometimes are disorganized. You don't get the feeling that they foster an environment for success or learning. It would be nice to see more of the administrative team, hear from them, and see the good works that are going on in the class. The social media aspect is also lacking. Some of the things posted are dated or given little notice to parents or caretakers.	2/12/2025 1:21 PM

9	If My Child is not on Her level and is behind make sure I know and I have the opportunity to try to make sure She's ready to go to the next level.	2/10/2025 9:28 AM
10	To help Parkwood improve you need to learn how to make the students feel welcome at all times, listen to them and stop shutting them out and believing with the teacher say all the time, love and like them for who they are because you never know what they may be going through, instead reach out instead and see how you can help them, and most importantly hirer teachers and administrators who love their job and want the best for the students.	2/3/2025 4:44 PM
11	Send home more resources to help families help their kids with homework, or helping them prepare for tests.	2/3/2025 8:30 AM

15	N/A	1/28/2025 6:50 PM
16	Love all the great things going on at Parkwood. This has been a challenging year for my 4th grader. I think conferences should be required when a student shows a pattern of behavior that is negatively impacting grades and performance. Also having a curriculum to follow or just some general idea of what my student is working on from week to week would be so helpful so that we can work on things at home. My student usually finishes the homework at school so I never see it.	1/28/2025 6:04 PM
17	I genuinely feel like the school and the students would really benefit if our kids were learning something with more substance, it seems like there's nothing really that the students do in the classroom or even out of the classroom. My child has been at the school for two years now	1/28/2025 4:24 PM and she's never gotten homework. she's in fourth grade now I find that really confusing and alarming because we've come from schools where they both always gave her homework every day and we did it together and she was her grades were really good. She was being challenged academically every day and now at these new schools it's like where is that? Where is that challenge that she used to have at academically? It's like she's learning nothing but seeing kids fight and teachers complaining to the classroom about misbehaving students. I was really disappointed in this year's academics. that I'm really considering moving my child to a different district and going into a private school where maybe she will get the academic challenges that we want.
