120 Student Athletes Commit to Christ During Georgia Church Event

A Georgia church group for young athletes is reporting a powerful move of God after more than 100 students gave their lives to Jesus Christ at a recent gathering. First Baptist Church of Hazlehurst (FBC) partnered with Strength of a Champion Ministries and held the "Night of Champions" event where 120 students chose to follow Christ.

Trump DOJ expands religious liberty protections after major Supreme Court rulings

The Trump administration on Thursday directed federal agencies to give greater consideration to religious liberty when writing regulations, enforcing federal law and accommodating employees' religious beliefs, marking the first major update to Department of Justice (DOJ) guidance on the issue since 2017.

Alabama megachurch prepares to welcome its first new pastor in 40 years

Hunter Street Baptist Church and its longtime Senior Pastor Buddy Gray were nearly synonymous for 40 years.

Now the 4,500-member Hoover megachurch is preparing to start a new chapter.

Finally, some good news from Iran

Despite some of the worst persecution in the world, the underground church in that country is growing by leaps and bounds. A new report from International Christian Concern reveals that there are more believers in Iran now than there were before the 1979 Islamic Revolution, which brought with it an unprecedented wave of persecution. ICC says "Some estimates point to a million or more Iranian converts to Christianity. These converts come from all sectors of society."

Staff birthday July 28th Annie Smith, public service director, over 25 years' service with Goforth Media.

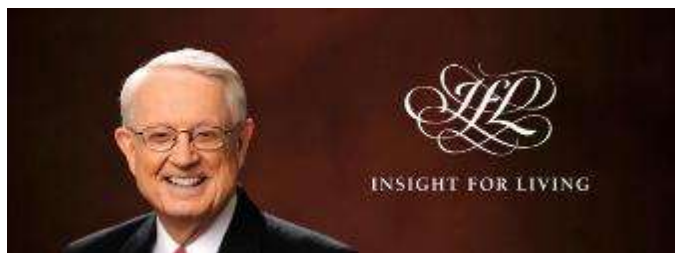

I started working at Goforth Media, Inc as a volunteer before I became a member of the staff. I enjoyed coming to help mail the newsletter and got more involved in the ministry of the station. There was a need for someone to answer the telephone in the afternoons, since I was going to be retiring from BellSouth the Holy Spirit impressed me to do this.

Since coming on staff, I enjoy helping with other chores that need to be done around the station. I have helped with concerts by getting the volunteers to help. Whatever the Lord has for me to do each day, I enjoy seeing what is being done to minister to the community through this ministry.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

- We visited Orange Beach for a few days over the Labor Day weekend. I want to let you know that your station is by far the best Christian station ever! It was such a joy to be able to listen to your station. Keep up the great work!
- I love this radio station. I have only been in AL for a short time and this is the only station I listen to. I have a radio here by my computer that is tuned to your station. I listen to my radio when I'm cleaning house and in the car every time I go somewhere. The music is great, powerful and up lifting. Nothing like it used to be around when I was growing up!

This August, Pastor Chuck Swindoll walks through the story of Job, a man who lost everything and still held onto his faith. From the devastating opening rounds of Job's suffering, to the painful "counsel" of friends who made things worse, to the hard-won wisdom on responding to criticism, grief, and false accusation with grace instead of bitterness, this month's teaching speaks directly to anyone walking through a season they didn't see coming. Whether you're the one suffering or the one trying to comfort a friend who is, Pastor Chuck offers practical, Scripture-rooted guidance for holding onto hope when everything falls apart.
