The Hysham FFA had eighteen members attend the program's state convention in Billings at the Metra April 2-6. These members competed in a series of contests, attended sessions, danced Friday night away, and earned degrees.

The contests that Hysham students competed included the following: mechanics, horse, livestock, meats, poultry, vet, and sales. The mechanics teams placed 50th, horse placed 40th (Reagan Fink placed 17th individually), and livestock placed 27th (Liz Moke placed 30th individually). Meats placed 11th (Jo Hopf placed 22nd individually), poultry placed 15th, vet placed 57th, and sales placed 44th.

Three individual were honored for earning their state degrees, the highest degree given in the state: Jo Hopf, Sam Roberts, and Tamra Taber all were recognized at a dinner honoring this achievement.

Another round of FFA excitement has begun as students seek officer positions. The next event will be Thursday, April 25, when the chapter hosts its annual banquet, installs new officers to their positions, and celebrates the year's successes.

The Rebel Report

At the Lockwood SCAD high school meet on Tuesday, April 2, two Rebels placed in the javelin. A Sara Clark placed second, and Ethan Weinmeister placed fifth with a PR of 140'10". On Friday, the team went to Laurel on Friday where Clark again placed second in javelin. Many tracksters were competing at FFA, so the team was short a few members in this meet.

Today, the team is at Skyview under some blue skies.

It's always a great day to be a Rebel!
