

The WAO Public School Education Foundation Board of Directors met on August 17th at the WAO HS Multipurpose Room. Members present included Carol Bowman, Carol Sedgeman, Dewey Swanson, Jordan Johnson and Sally Roller (school board liaisons), Carol Anderson, Russ Miller, Ed Rosendahl and Darren Carlson. Members absent were Melanie Nelson and Jessica Syverson. Elementary Principal Kelsey Johnson was in attendance for part of the meeting.

Some highlights were:

The 17th annual golf scramble was reviewed and very successful. People enjoyed themselves and the day. This event wouldn't be possible without many wonderful volunteers.

Reports were presented on the 2 raffles that were held this summer.

Letters of welcome and information about a $50.00 gift certificate to the WAO Warehouse and $200 for items for their classroom/area of teaching have been sent to 5 new fulltime licensed staff.

Carol Bowman will do a short presentation at the WAO Inservice on August 30th.

Carol Sedgeman will represent the Foundation at the WAO Elementary Back to School Night on August 31st.

Fall needs requests will be distributed to the staff in mid September. These requests will be reviewed at the October meeting.

It was noted that more pencils are needed next year for the Marshall County Fair Parade.

The CJ Anderson Endowment will continue the support for monthly Scholastic books for preK-6th grade students.

Donations and memorials were approved.

The September meeting will be on September 21st at the WAOHS Multi-purpose room at 5:30.
