Dear Parents'/Guardians',

I would first like to welcome you to this exciting time of your child's life. For those whom I have not met, my name is Daniel Giorgianni and I am your son/daughter's Guidance Counselor. I will be guiding you and your child through the process of selecting a high school that is right for them. As you know, the year is well underway and the time to make this decision will soon be upon you.

Although Paulsboro High School is our sending district, parents and students often ask about other high schools and their programs. Here are some websites that you can explore for yourself.
