

AM/NS Calvert

AM/NS Calvert Industrial Maintenance Apprenticeship Program. AM/NS Calvert has partnered with Coastal Alabama Community College to host a US Department of Labor Registered Apprenticeship in Industrial Maintenance. Selected Apprentices enroll with Coastal Alabama to pursue an accredited Associates Degree while simultaneously participating in on the job training at AM/NS Calvert.

AM/NS CALVERT'S Industrial Maintenance Apprenticeship Program

AM/NS Calvert has partnered with Coastal Alabama Community College to host a U.S. Department of Labor Registered Apprenticeship in Industrial Maintenance. Selected Apprentices enroll with Coastal Alabama to pursue an accredited Associates Degree while simultaneously participating in on-the-job training (OJT) at AM/NS Calvert.

This registered apprenticeship program seeks to give apprentices the opportunity to forge a career at AM/NS Calvert.

APPRENTICESHIP

SCHOOL STUDIES PROFESSION SKILLS PERFORMANCE CAREER MOTIVATION GOALS

Where your career is forged in steel.

AM/NS CALVERT
A joint venture between ArcelorMittal and Nippon Steel Corporation

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Year 1

- Two consecutive semesters at Coastal
- First part-time paid OJT session at AM/NS Calvert to run concurrently with coursework

Year 2

- Three consecutive paid OJT sessions at AM/NS Calvert to run concurrently with coursework

Post Program

- Associate in Applied Science in Industrial Maintenance Technology
- Complete required OJT hours to secure DOL-approved Apprenticeship certification
- Opportunity to promote into Craft position as AM/NS Calvert Team Member

PROGRAM GOALS

Goal 1

- Provide Apprentices with structure, training and team support for learning and growth, while meeting our need to develop high-performance and technical contributors

Goal 2

- Instill in-depth manufacturing and business knowledge as well as organizational identity through rotations within different departments

Goal 3

- Promote knowledgeable and versatile Craft Team Members into positions with increased responsibility

AM/NS CALVERT