KINGSTREE HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL PLAYER NAMED MORNING NEWS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

As of March 24, 2025, Naydia Shaw of Kingstree High School has been named the Morning News Player of the Year. Shaw, a 6'0" power forward from the class of 2027, has been a standout player for Kingstree High School. She also plays club basketball for ABC Lightning Performance. Her exceptional performance during the 2024-2025 basketball season has earned her the title of Player of the Year on MaxPreps.

Throughout the season, Shaw consistently delivered outstanding performances, including a double-double with 15 points and 14 rebounds in a 40-34 victory over the Burke Bulldogs on February 20, 2025. Additionally, she recorded 24 points and 15 rebounds against Manning High School, further showcasing her talent and contribution to the team's success.

Shaw's achievements have been recognized by various platforms, highlighting her as a standout player in high school basketball.
