Former Indiana Teacher Wins \$650,000 in Religious Discrimination Case

A former Indiana teacher has won a large religious discrimination settlement against the school district that forced him out after he refused to violate his Christian beliefs. Brownsburg Community School Corporation has agreed to pay $650,000 to settle the lawsuit brought by former high school music teacher John Kluge, who declined to use personal pronouns that did not match students' biological sex.

Christian College Scores a Big Win After Chicago Public Schools Blocked Its Student-Teachers

The Moody Bible Institute has reached a favorable settlement with the Chicago Board of Education, which had blocked the private Christian college from participating in its student-teaching program.

Chicago Public Schools (CPS) had denied access to the Christian students, arguing that Moody needed to give up its right to hire only people who share its Christian beliefs and gospel mission.

A Bible expert issues a warning -

Bobby Grunewald is founder of YouVersion, the most popular Bible app in the world, and he says Artificial Intelligence isn't ready for prime time. He tells the Christian Post that YouVersion is using AI behind the scenes but does not make it available to users because his staff has found that “The best model with the best performance misquotes Scripture at least 15% of the time. Others as much as 60% of the time.”

Trump Announces Prayer Event

This may be the most explicitly religious event a sitting US president has ever organized. A national rededication to God on the National Mall. No president has done this. On February 5, 2026, President Trump announced at the 74th National Prayer Breakfast that a mass prayer gathering called "Rededicate 250" will be held on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. on May 17. The event is part of America's 250th anniversary celebrations and is officially titled the National Jubilee of Prayer, Praise, and Thanksgiving. Trump invited Americans from across the country to attend and said the nation would be rededicated "as one nation under God. "The date has historical significance. On May 17, 1776, before the Declaration of Independence was signed, the Continental Congress proclaimed a national day of fasting and prayer. At the same event, Trump also announced new Department of Education guidance to protect the right of students and teachers to pray in public schools. The announcement has reignited the ongoing debate over the separation of church and state in America.

'We Saw Over 500 Make Decisions for Christ': Revival Hits Texas Universities

As CBN News has been reporting, widespread revival is sweeping U.S. college campuses, with thousands of students attending events, engaging in worship, and getting baptized. That has included campuses across Texas, but now several more universities in the Lone Star State are also seeing powerful moves of God.

Highlights from Letters to Power 88

- I just wanted to take a second and let you know how much you and your station minister to me on a daily basis. I moved to Daphne and started going back to church. I found Power 88 through members of my church and my radio hasn't changed channels since. It is a big help to me to maintain my focus on my walk with God to have inspiring music to listen to on a regular basis

Radio Remains a Dominant Force

Approximately 88% of Americans, or roughly 293 million people, listen to terrestrial (AM/FM) radio on a weekly basis, making it a higher-reach medium than television or social media. Despite the rise of streaming services, radio remains a dominant force, particularly in cars where 70% of drivers tune in.
