Todd Seeley, Listener Support

Dear Supporter,

I have an aunt who, even at 73, could still fit into her high school cheerleading uniform. I am not one of those people who can wear the same clothes I wore in high school. Why? They don't fit. I'm not the same size I was in high school, as are most of us. If we put on those clothes, I'm sure it would cause discomfort.

I was struck by Paul's words in Colossians 3, where he's telling new followers of Christ what they are to "put on": "tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering... love". (NKJV) Hopefully, just like we're not the same person we were in high school, we're not the same person we were before we met Christ. For the believer, these, "clothes" are always in style; and they always fit! Sometimes however, they are very uncomfortable and seem not to fit, don't they? These "clothes" were only designed to fit the spiritual man and when our carnality tries to take over they don't fit. Paul continues to tell us how to act in these "clothes": "bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another, even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do".

Remember, Christ is our example. "And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus..." Col. 3:17. We thank God and we thank you, because this ministry benefits from you putting on those "clothes". Blessings on you.

In His Service & yours,
Todd Seeley, PR/Listener Support
