

Randolph County School System

“STAR<sup>3</sup> Students” for November 2021

Coleridge Elementary School - Dylan Brown - 1st Grade

Dylan Brown is kind to all students. He always begins his day with a big smile and hugs to go around. Dylan is always willing to help a friend in the classroom and will make sure everyone has someone to work with. Dylan shows our values at Coleridge every day. He is responsible, organized, careful, and kind. Coleridge Elementary School is proud to recognize Dylan Brown as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Eastern Randolph High School - Clayton Cassidy - 12th Grade

Clayton Cassidy is one of the most hard-working students at school. He is enrolled in five courses this semester, and has overcome obstacles to achieve success in each of his courses. Clayton also worked diligently this past summer and earned several credits. He stays after school many days to ensure he is on top of his course work, and he always has a smile on his face and is a pleasure to be around. With the positive mindset Clayton has this year, he can achieve anything he puts his mind to. We are proud of you, Clayton, and know you will continue to do great things. We are proud to have Clayton Cassidy represent Eastern Randolph High School as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Farmer Elementary School - Aaron Rosales - 5th Grade

Aaron Rosales consistently displays an outstanding work ethic in the classroom. His perseverance and drive to succeed are evident by the academic success he achieves in all of his classes. Aaron is humble, always kind to other students, and always eager and willing to help in any way that he can. He is respectful to both his teachers and his peers. Teachers describe Aaron as "a privilege to have in class" and "a role model to his peers." Congratulations Aaron Rosales. Farmer Elementary School is proud to have you represent us as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Seagrove Elementary School - Arianna Callicutt - 5th Grade

Arianna Callicutt is a wonderful student, always does her best, and is a help to her teacher. She always helps students get caught up on work or reminds them to do the right thing. She reaches out to other students and offers them a seat beside her during group work. Arianna is the first one to volunteer when the less desirable jobs need to be done. She is a wonderful addition to her class and grade level. Arianna Callicutt is 100% deserving of this award and we are proud to call her Seagrove Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Elizabeth York - 7th Grade

Elizabeth York has the drive and determination to succeed in whatever she tries. She is an exceptional leader both in and out of the classroom. Elizabeth is always willing to help other students with whatever they need, brightens the room, and brings a lot to the table. She is a role model to other students each and every day. No matter the circumstances, Elizabeth has a positive attitude that will make anyone smile, even on their worst day. She has compassion for everyone. Elizabeth keeps her work up, even when absent, and she excels in her schoolwork. She always makes sure her assignments are top of the line. Southeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to have Elizabeth York as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Southmont Elementary School - Liza Creech - 3rd Grade

Liza Creech, currently a member of Mrs. Andrews' class, is a student leader. She leads by example, works hard every day, is responsible, and takes initiative without being asked. Liza loves a challenge and her presence in her classroom motivates others. She is a positive influence on her peers and has developed mature friendships for her age. Liza embodies the attributes of a Southmont Mustang: Ready, Responsible, and Respectful! These are all reasons why we are proud to honor Liza Creech as Southmont Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Josiah Shaw - 11th Grade

Josiah Shaw is a hard worker and is a positive presence to those around him. He volunteers to be “Cas the Cougar” at different sporting events and interacts with children of all ages. Josiah does well in the classroom and lifts up his community with his school spirit. He is very respectful, responsible, and conscientious. His teachers note that he is friendly, has a positive attitude, and sets a good example for his peers. Josiah participates in class discussions and contributes to group work. His personality and kindness allow him to make friends with everyone and anyone. Josiah Shaw is a great representative for Southwestern Randolph High School in and out of the classroom, and we are pleased to have him as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Trevor Hussey - 8th Grade

Trevor Hussey is described by his teachers as respectful, determined, a team player, and an all-around great student. Trevor is a quiet student by nature, but his artwork speaks volumes for him. His creativity and art skills have flourished the past two years. Outside of his art, Trevor is a hard worker and is diligent in his schoolwork across all instructional settings. His teachers are continually impressed by his politeness and his work ethic. Southwestern Randolph Middle School is proud to call Trevor Hussey our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Alejandro Jimenez Arias - 5th Grade

Alejandro Jimenez Arias is a responsible, kind, and courteous young man. He is on our school safety patrol team and is an office messenger, and he does a wonderful job in both roles. Alejandro is a leader in the classroom and around the school building. He is responsible, kind, and courteous, and is always willing to help whenever he is needed. Alejandro is very knowledgeable with the computer. He is able to jump in and help his classmates, which is very helpful to his teacher. Many students look up to Alejandro. He is friendly and polite to everyone. Having Alejandro Jimenez Arias at Tabernacle Elementary School is definitely a plus, and we are proud to select him as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Tuan Ksor - 9th Grade

Diligent, disciplined, and respectful are some of the words that describe Tuan Ksor. Tuan is the type of student who every teacher dreams about having in their class. She is considerate, compassionate, and hardworking. Tuan comes to class prepared and ready to learn every day, where she gives 100% on every task. Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve is proud to have Tuan Ksor represent our school as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.

The Virtual Academy at Randolph - Morgan Reeder - 8th Grade

Morgan Reeder always comes to her virtual classes prepared and with a smile on her face. She engages in class from the time she logs on to the time we log off. Morgan is the ideal student, and is well-spoken, intelligent, and kind. She encourages her peers and is a natural leader in the virtual classroom. Morgan demonstrates every day that it is possible for students to learn, grow, and thrive in the virtual learning environment. Congratulations to Morgan Reeder, The Virtual Academy at Randolph’s STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for November.