THE PLATEAU: THE YEAR, THE STUDENT

Through paned windows, we view fragments and reflections of our 1980-81 school year. Like a reservoir, the Plateau retains these memories by the numerous photographs contained within its pages. These photographs are pieces to an intricate puzzle which explains and describes various stages of our lives at Cumberland County High School.

Many of our waking hours are spent in the restricted classroom digesting an assortment of subject matter and experiences. Knowledge gained here forms the basis for reasonable and sound adult decisions. In an everchanging society, values learned and principles developed contribute to responsible citizenship.

Aside from pop quizzes, homework, projects, and tests, as a part of formal learning we spend many hours preparing for and participating in club activities, class projects, and special occasions. These events add colorful excitement to school life and offer students many varied opportunities to explore and express their interests. Clubs and special organizations cultivate lifetime interests, skills, and friendships.

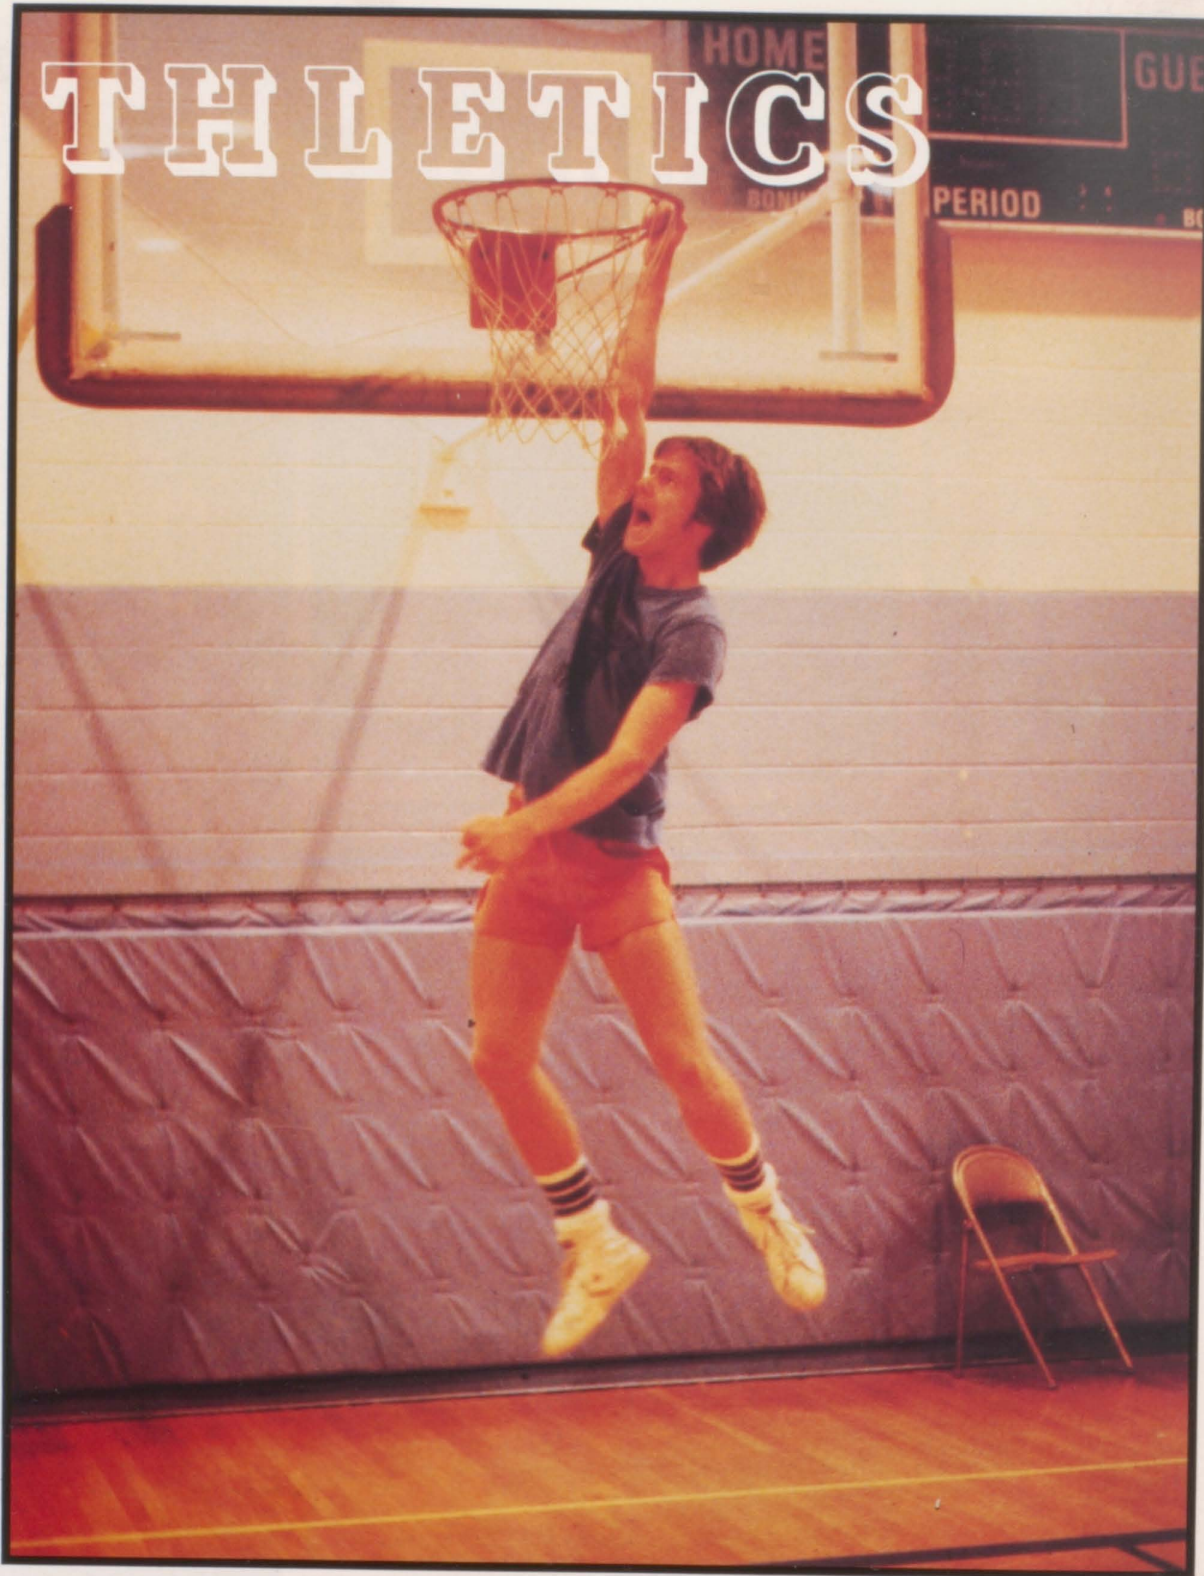

Those students who participate in team or individual sports share memories that this involvement alone can give them. Hours of practice, expectations of coaches, and each individual's personal demands contribute to unforgettable moments which cannot be shared by the spectators.

Each portion of a paned window is only a segment of the entire picture. Only by viewing each individual segment of school life are we able to appreciate this entire image as a whole.

TRAINING, TRIALS, AND TRIUMPHS

Athletics provide a learning experience different from that offered in a classroom. Participating in an athletic event helps an individual learn pride, self-satisfaction, and the enjoyment of involvement in a group activity. Participation also allows the individual to reach goals he has set for himself and to increase both his physical and mental potential.

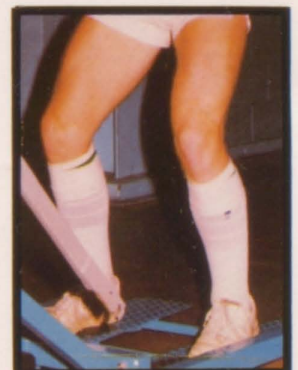

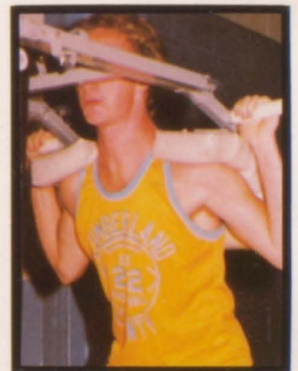

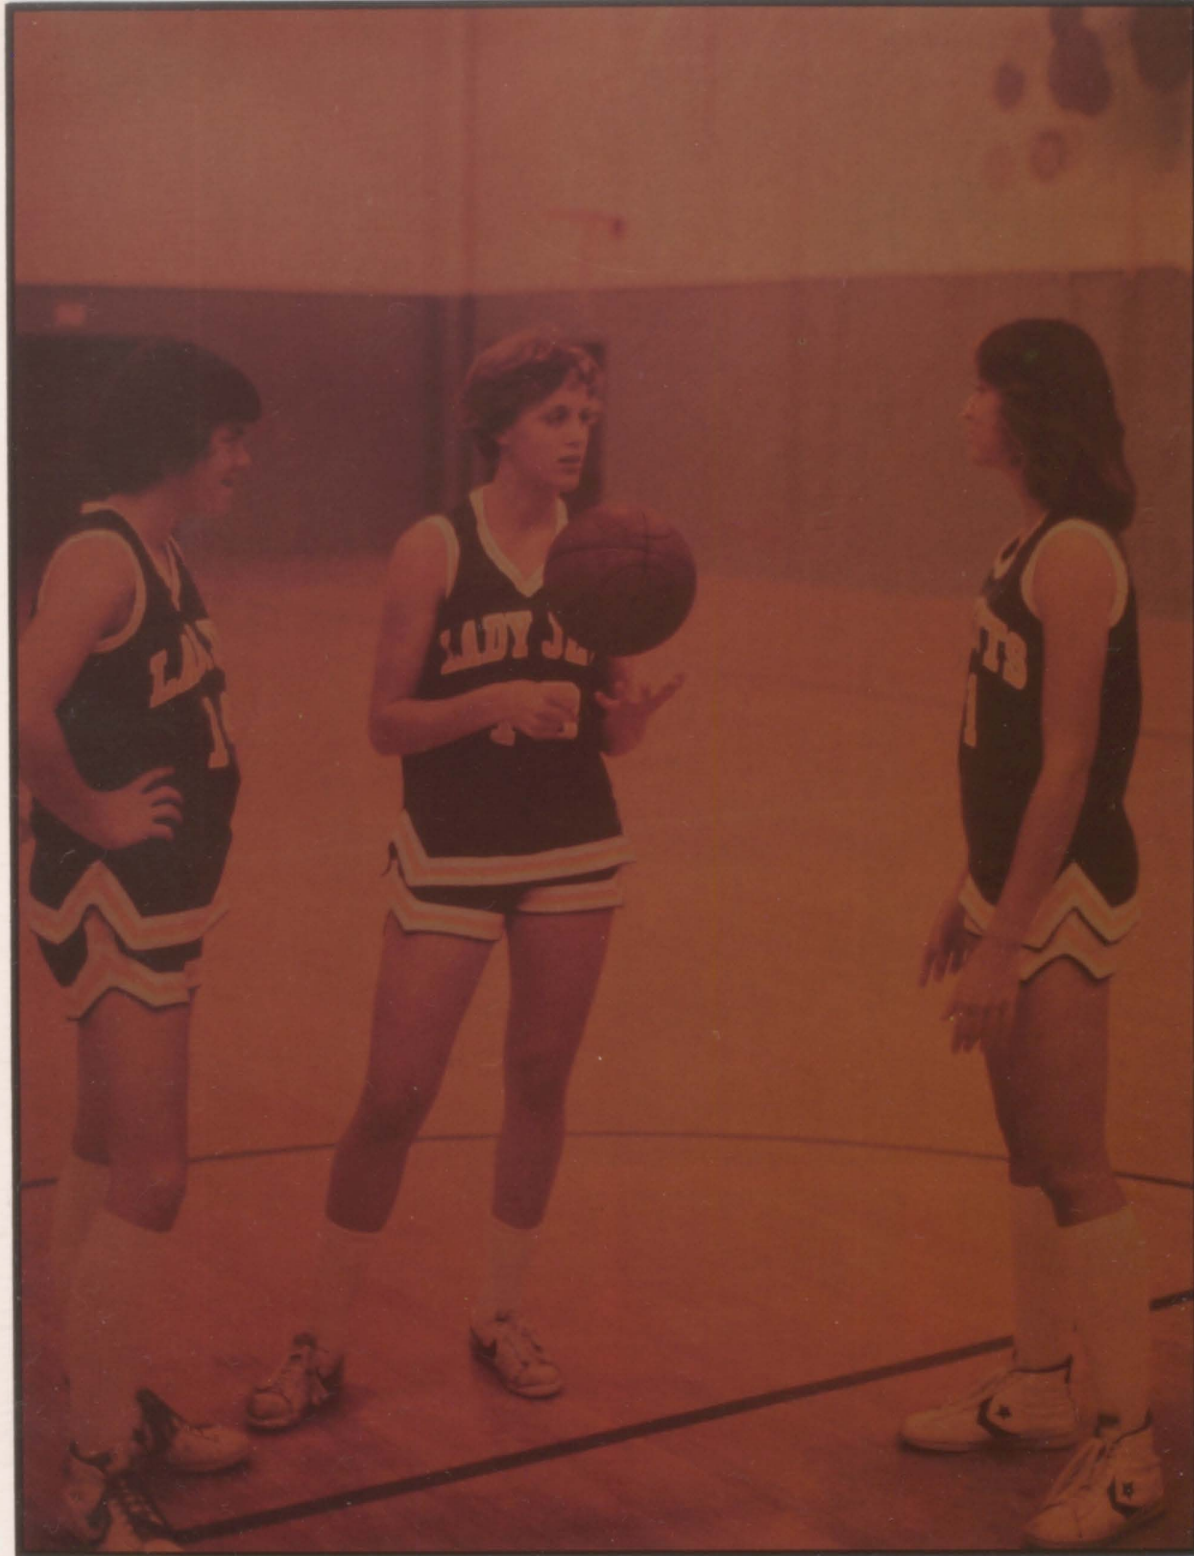

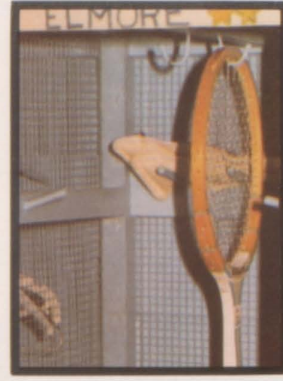

Cumberland County High School provides a wide variety of athletics to the interested individual. This variety includes football, basketball, track, tennis, volleyball, golf, wrestling, and softball. Each of these activities requires additional time and effort spent outside the classroom.

No one can possibly understand the feeling of involvement unless he has been involved in an athletic endeavor. The sweat, hard work, cheers of victory, and tears of defeat are special feelings that go along with any sport and leave many lifelong memories with the individual.

Many people either cannot or do not wish to participate in athletics. However, these same people can be a vital part of the spirit of sporting events by managing, keeping statistics, or offering spectator enthusiasm.

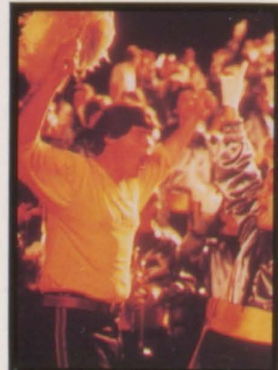

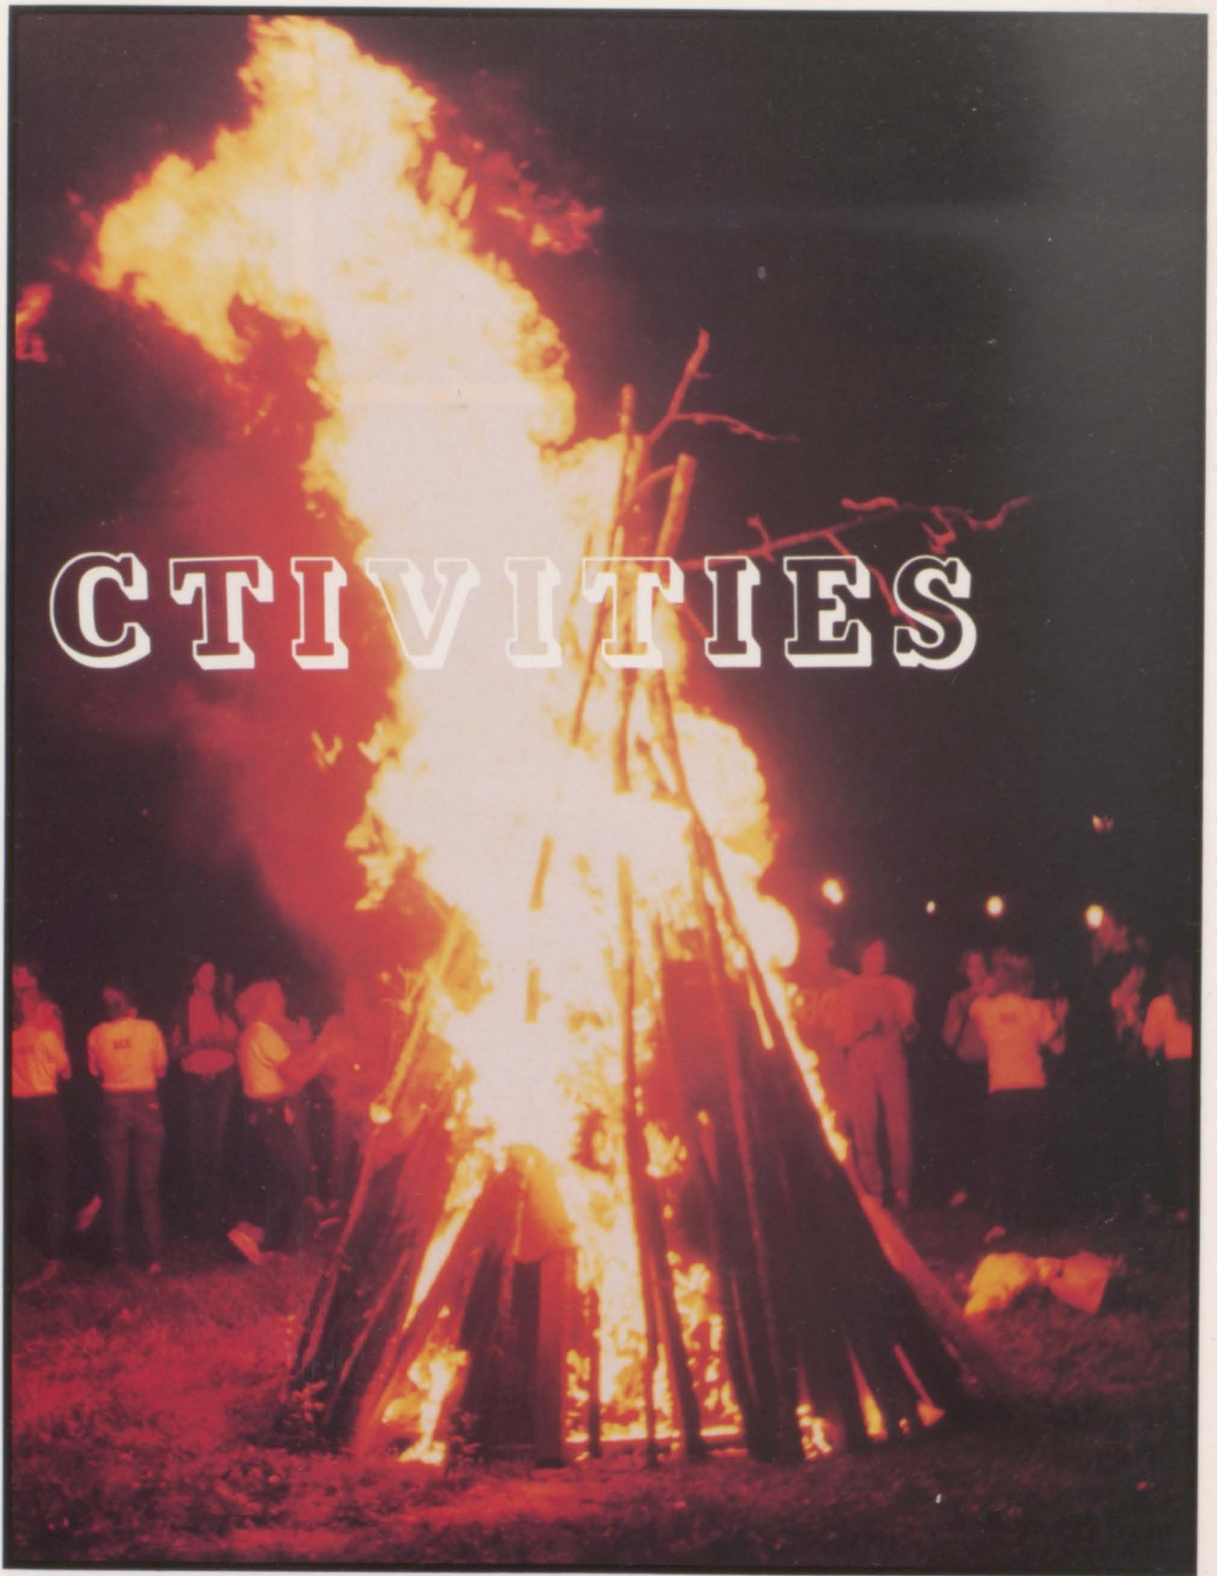

The spirit of competition in the hearts, minds, and bodies of the players, spectators, and managers is the most important factor in any athletic event.

CTIVITIES

PRACTICE, ENTHUSIASM, AND PARTICIPATION

All learning does not take place in the classroom. Much wisdom and knowledge can be gained from involvement in extracurricular activities. These activities provide an outlet for the student to cultivate and explore his interests and to set and attain personal goals.

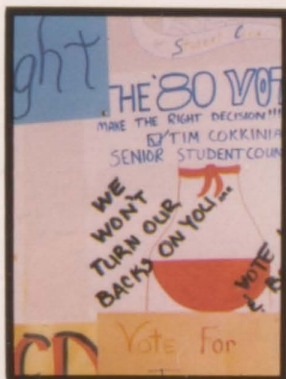

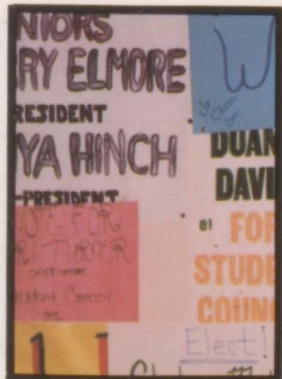

At Cumberland County High School, various club memberships are open to the student body. Club membership means work to make the club the best, work to earn money to attend conventions, to make trips, and to fund worthwhile projects.

Special organizations such as the band, student council, and the cheerleading squads are beneficial to their members as well as to the school. Through their leadership and enthusiasm much school spirit is generated. Each gives its participants a feeling of involvement and importance. Individual responsibility, life-long friendships, and the sense of cooperation are lasting rewards which one gains by being a member of these organizations.

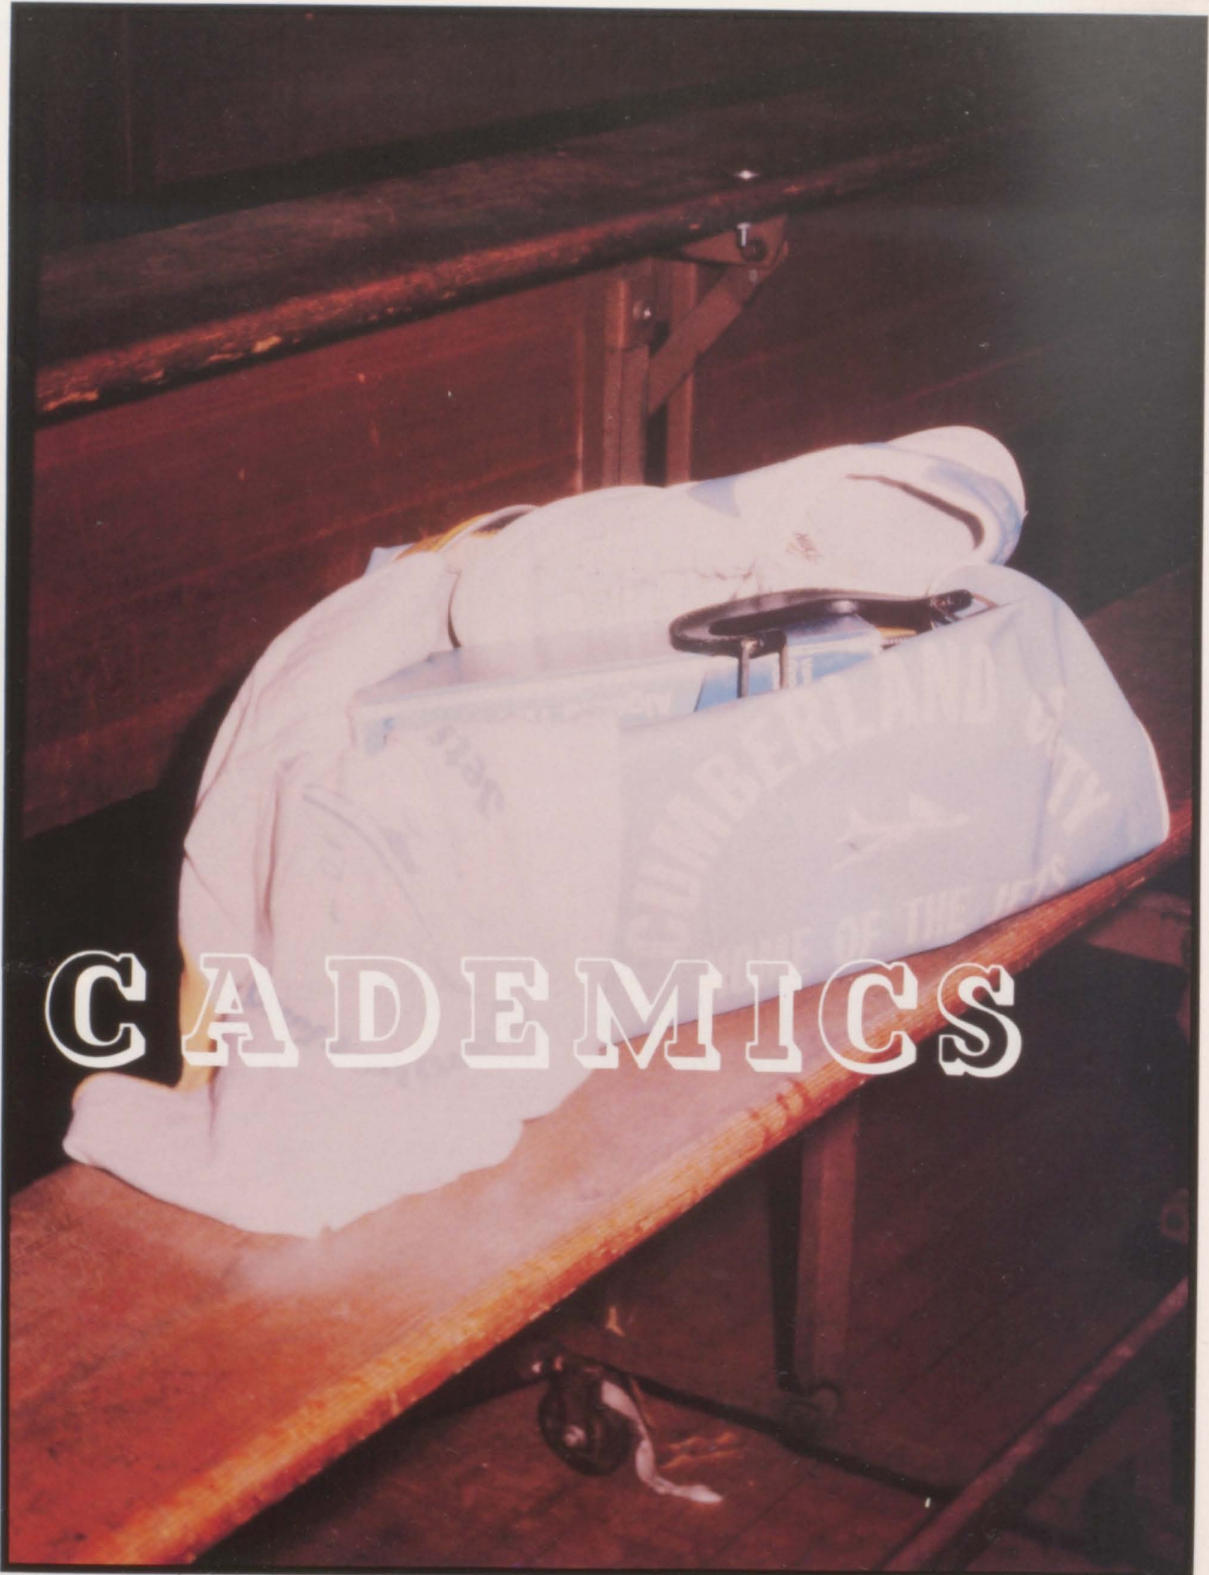

Special events and days during the year create an atmosphere of student unity. Never to be forgotten is the friendly competition among classes created by Homecoming Week and Sadie Hawkins Week. Musical Moods gives many the opportunity to display their musical talents to the student body and to the community. Planning and decorating for the prom forms a closeness among juniors that will long be remembered. Finally, there is the culmination of a high school career. Graduation for many seniors is a day anticipated, for many seniors a day dreaded, for all seniors a day that finally comes.

ACADEMICS

EXCELLENCE AMID DIVERSITY

Students attend school 185 days a year. The main purpose of this attendance is to achieve academically. The administration, faculty, and students have individual roles to play in the learning process.

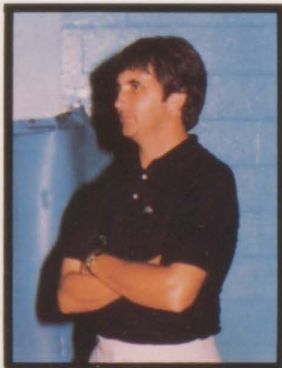

It is the task of the administration and faculty to provide information and tools necessary for education. Students have the responsibility of taking the material that is presented to them, learning it, and then using it to build their educational futures.

When a teacher cares enough to spend the time necessary to present the material, and the student cares enough to accept this material and put it to its best use, the educational process will be a success.

In a student's school years he learns, and he encounters many experiences which remain with him throughout his life and aid him in daily routines. He must realize the importance of a good education and gain all the knowledge possible in order to make the decisions of adulthood. Within the caring relationship between teachers and pupils, Cumberland County High School strives to strengthen the student's self assurance, reliance, and integrity.

Each day of the school year brought us reminders that soon we would be leaving these doors for the final time to enter other doors where we would meet new friends and have new experiences.

As the days rushed by, we struggled to hang on to the memories that slipped away so quickly. Our main desire was to delay the future . . . to have time stand still.

With the realization that our senior year was soon to end, we participated in every possible activity of Cumberland County High School. We wanted to enjoy all of the small details, but time allowed us only a moment to see, and to remember, and then they became memories to leave only slight traces in our minds.

We realize that we will go in separate ways from our friends, but we will never forget them, for we have shared our lives, and together have encountered joys and tears. We long to have these days again, but we know that our futures hold more memories that will be as dear to our hearts as these.

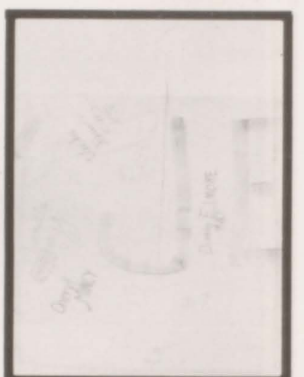

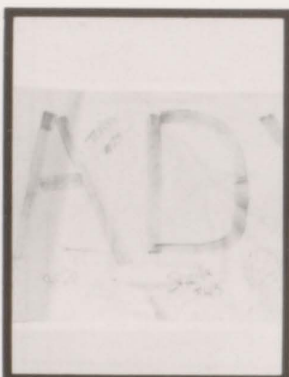

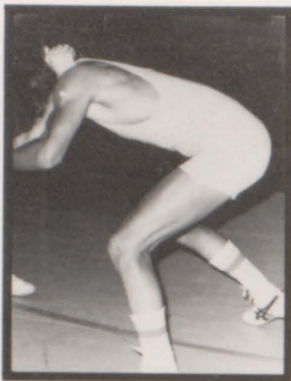

Madge Reed

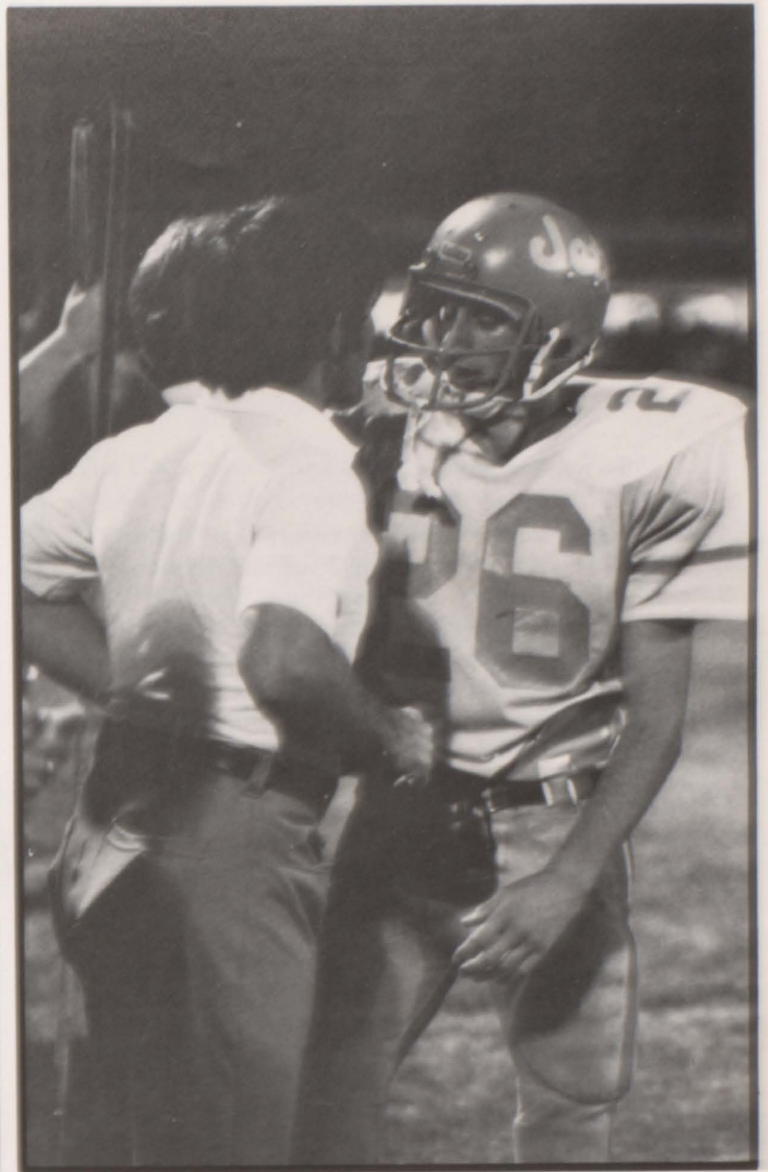

All of Cumberland County, and especially the teachers and students of Cumberland County Schools, was saddened by the tragic accidental death of Bea Winningham on September 6, 1980. Mrs. Winningham, wife of Artis Winningham of the C.C.H.S. faculty, was a Supervisor of Instruction for the school system and had been a principal and teacher prior to joining the administrative staff.

The Publications Staff and the students and faculty of C.C.H.S. dedicate this 1981 PLATEAU to the memory of Bea Winningham, our teacher, principal, colleague, and friend.

ATHLETICS

The Jets were a relatively inexperienced team in the 1980 season. Relying heavily on underclassmen and with the seniors providing the leadership, the Jets played courageously throughout a difficult schedule. The Jets 5-AAA district is one of the toughest in the state and is producing more and more state-ranked teams each year. In pre-season, the Jets repeated as camp champs at Columbia Military Academy for the third consecutive year. Injuries plagued the Jets throughout the season, but the team showed true dedication and heart against highly favored opponents.

Kingston 24 . . . CCHS 12

The Jets opened their season with a tough loss to the powerful Kingston Yellow Jackets, a team destined for high state rankings. The Jets had outstanding performances by linebacker Brian Swearngen and running back Tommy Melton, who rushed for over 100 yards. The Jets played an excellent defensive game, but penalties hampered their offensive effort.

FOOTBALL

Chattanooga Central 0 . . . CCHS 34

Tim Davis opened the Central game with an exciting 86 yard kickoff return and the excitement never ceased. The Jets overwhelmed the weak Pounder team and the Jet offensive unit put on a spectacular show. Jet touchdowns were scored by Davis, Greg McCoy, Chuck Usher, Brian Swearngen, and Tommy Melton, who once again rushed for over 100 yards. Butch Hale kicked a field goal to complete the Jets' best scoring night of the season. Quarterback Greg McCoy sustained an injury which was to shelve him for the next five games.

Soddy-Daisy 0 . . . CCHS 12

The Jets defensive unit and Brian Swearngen, with two interceptions and 21 tackles, led the Jets to a victory over the rugged Soddy-Daisy Trojans. The Jets put together two time-consuming drives which resulted in touchdowns by David Crace and Tommy Melton, who ran his way to another 100-plus yard game. Tim Cokkinias and Dale Wilson had superior defensive games, and Tommy Gregory, offensive tackle, was cited for his outstanding blocking.

McMinn County 26 . . . CCHS 36

The Jets' second home game was a real crowd-pleaser. The McMinn County Cherokees scored a touchdown on the opening kickoff, but the Jets regrouped and roared back for three touchdowns before the Cherokees again crossed the goal line. Steve Robinson played an outstanding game with two pass receptions for touchdowns.

East Ridge 27 . . . CCHS 14

East Ridge hosted the Jets on the Pioneers' Homecoming, and sent the Jets spiraling to a defeat. Tommy Gregory and Johnny Warner led the Jet defense while Tommy Melton and Tim Davis scored the Jets' touchdowns and Johnny Warner caught a pass for a two-point conversion. With two minutes remaining in the game, defensive stand-out Brian Swearngen suffered a severe knee injury and was lost to the Jets for the remainder of the season.

Rhea County 34 . . . CCHS 0

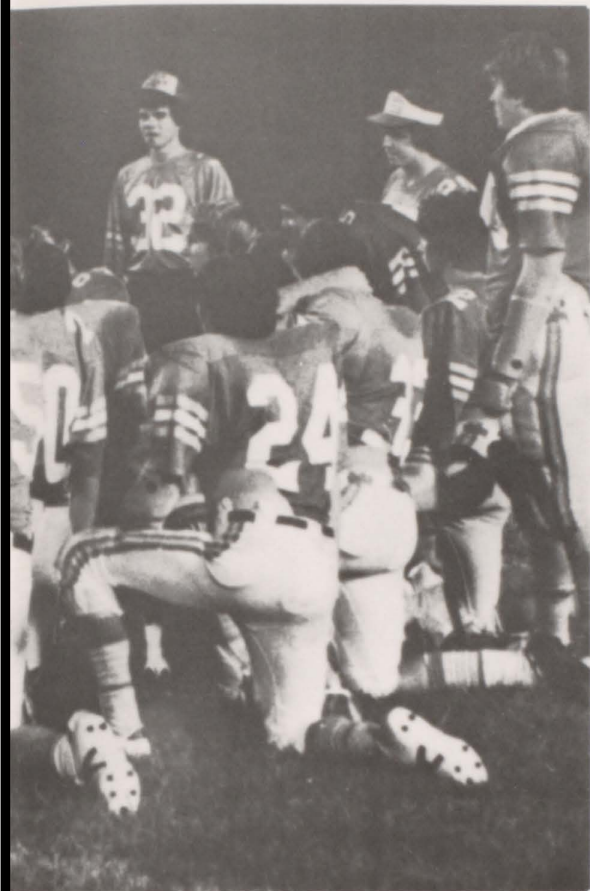

Homecoming 1980 ended on a dismal note with a 34-0 loss to the powerful Rhea County Eagles. The largest crowd of the season was quietened by the tough line play of the Rhea Countians and the superior execution of the Eagle offense.

Sparta 35 . . . CCHS 21

The rugged Sparta Warriors handed the Jets their third straight loss of the season. The Jets staged an exciting fourth quarter offensive surge, but it was too little too late. Elbert Farley and Tracy Keylon directed the Jet offense, while Tim Cokkinias and Cliff Van Dorn anchored the Jet defense.

Cleveland 13 . . . CCHS 7

The Jets played one of their best games of the season against the Cleveland Blue Raiders, although they once again fell to defeat. A missed Cleveland field goal at the game's end sent the contest into overtime, but the Jets failed to score in their four attempts from the 10-yard line, while Cleveland scored the winning touchdown on a six-yard run. Todd Beaty and David Crace led the Jets in a fine performance.

Bradley Central 35 . . . CCHS 21

The Jets played their best game of the season against the district champion Bradley Bears. The Jets entered the game with perhaps no chance of beating the state's 4th ranked team. CCHS trailed 19-0 at the end of the first quarter, but fought back brilliantly and scored three times, making the score 21-28 Bradley. First team all-state quarterback Chris White led the Bears to another touchdown, making the final score 35-14, in Bradley's favor but the mighty Bears had felt the pressure against our Jets.

Chattanooga Red Bank 13 . . . CCHS 9

The Jets traveled to Red Bank to face the Lions in their season finale. The powerful Lions scored first, but the Jets answered with a Butch Hale field goal. The Lions scored again, but then Tommy Melton broke loose and scored the Jets only touchdown, making the score 13-9. Red Bank took the ball again and tried to run out the clock, but the Jet defense caused a fumble and got the ball back in Red Bank territory. The Jets couldn't punch it over. The game and the season ended on a note of frustration.

Melton set a new school rushing record for one season. He rushed for 1,279 yards and received honorable mention on several all state teams.

Wilson anchored the offensive and defensive lines throughout the Jet season. He was recruited by several colleges and chose to become a member of the Tennessee Tech Golden Eagles.

A TRIBUTE . . . .

Both Cumberland County and Cumberland County High School lost a true friend when Elmer Holder was killed in a tragic accident in September.

Elmer attended Sweetwater High School in Sweetwater, Tennessee, and joined the Navy at the age of 17, serving part of his tour duty on Okinawa. After being discharged in April of 1946, he attended Hiwassee Junior College and graduated from Tennessee Tech University in 1952. At both schools he was a member of the baseball teams. He was an agronomy major and worked for the United States Department of Agriculture for thirty years.

Elmer began officiating basketball with TSSAA in 1949. Over the past 31 years he officiated in numerous district and regional tournaments and in eight state basketball tournaments. This is the largest number of state basketball tournaments to be officiated by anyone in TSSAA history. His first state tournament was the 1936 boys' tournament, and his last state tournament, the 1976 girls' state tournament. The following quotations by Mr. David James of the Polk County News in Benton, Tennessee, describe Elmer Holder better than anyone else could: "Elmer Holder was a unique man. He was willing to be helpful to both your officials as they broke into the profession and to young men and women as they sought to compete."

"He was respected by coaches, players, educators and by his fellow basketball referees."

"Elmer was selected, year after year, to work as an official in various basketball tournaments. Such was a tribute to his ability and standing. He was fair, knowledgeable, and he hustled, the latter being a high mark in the world of the sports official."

"Elmer Holder made an impact on many players, many coaches, many officials and many fans . . . most of it positive in nature. He will be missed by his family and his many friends . . ."

On October 10, 1980 the football field at Cumberland County High School in Crossville, Tennessee, was dedicated and named Holder Field. Elmer's contributions to this high school are too numerous to mention. The naming of the field after him speaks for itself.

Elmer was married to Maxine Summitt in 1947. They had three sons, James Michael, Thomas Brian, and the late David Lee Holder. Elmer was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Crossville, Tennessee where he served on the Administrative Board and the Pastor Parish Committee.

Maxine Holder and sons Jimmy and Tommy accept a plaque commemorating Elmer Holder's contributions to athletics. Dr. Jack Clark, acting president of the Quarterback Club, presents the award on Homecoming night when the field in Jet Stadium was named Holder Field.

A Year To Remember

Dubbed the Cinderella team during tournament time, the 1981 Lady Jets surprised all but themselves by winning the District 5AAA championship. At the beginning of the season, opposing coaches pushed Crossville aside as a young and inexperienced team with a starting line of one senior and four juniors. As the season progressed and the victories piled up, people began to take notice of the team on the Plateau.

With a remarkable regular season record of 21-5, the Lady Jets went into the District 5AAA tournament at McMinn County High School tied for second place with state-ranked Bradley County behind 6th place state-ranked Cleveland. Seeded in the tournament to play Rhea County in the first round, the Lady Jets prepared to battle their nerves and the Lady Eagles. The Lady Jets quickly put the fans' worry to rest by jumping to a 22-2 first quarter lead and ousting the Lady Eagles from tournament action with hot handed shooting and a swarming defense.

The team had little time to rest and celebrate before they faced arch-rival Bradley County Bearettes in the District semi-finals. Poise and accurate foul shooting led to the semi-final victory.

The 50-49 victory against Bradley put the Lady Jets in the finals against number one seeded Cleveland Raiderettes. During the regular season, the Raiderettes had defeated CCHS by two points at Crossville and by one point at Cleveland. The game remained close until the second half when the Lady Jet defense held Cleveland scoreless for six and a half minutes. In honor of the championship win, a victory celebration was held at the CCHS gym later that night with local government officials and fans congratulating the teams. Members chosen for the District Tournament Team were Tonya Hinch, Rita Baldwin, Michelle Holloway, and Teresa Sherrill.

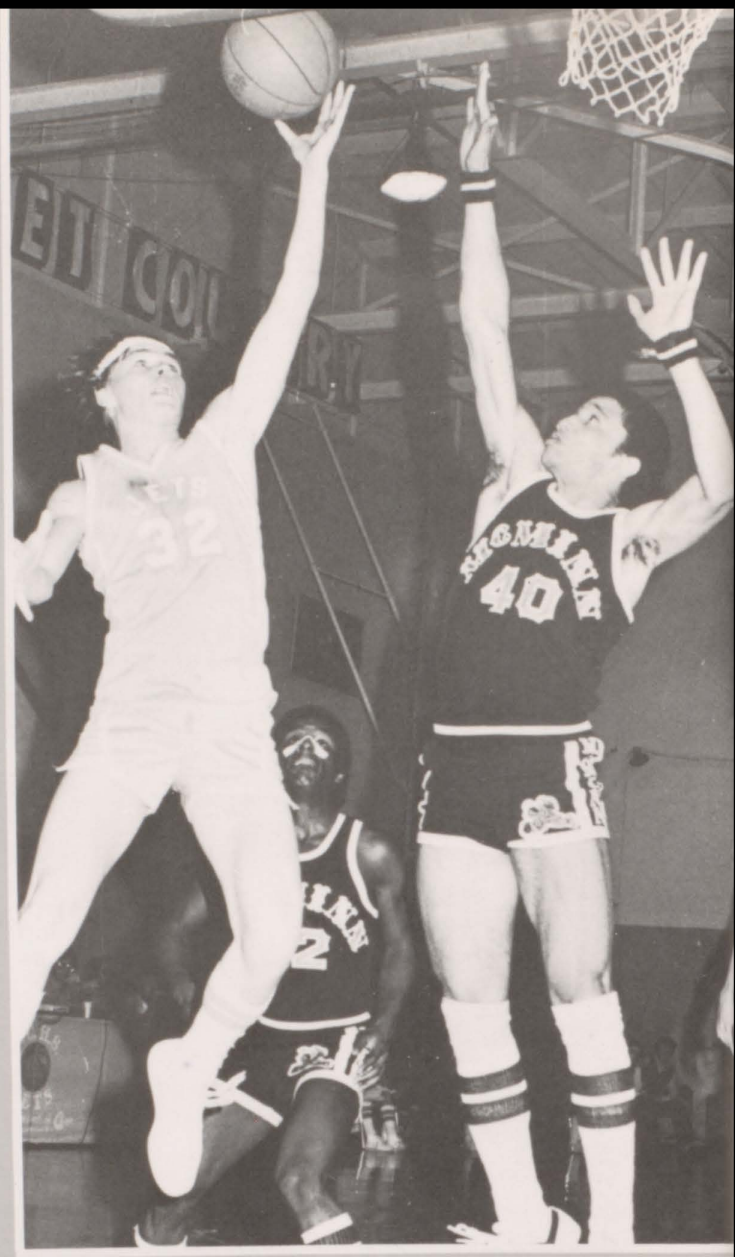

Winning the District Tournament qualified the Lady Jets for the Region Tournament at Bradley County High School Gymnasium. Scheduled to play Chattanooga Howard from District 6AAA, the CCHS team had little trouble in the first half, leading by 16 points going into the locker room. Superb foul shooting on the part of the Lady Jets proved to be the deciding factor as the team advanced to the Region 3AAA semi-finals against Bradley County.

Spirit raced throughout the school as a pep rally built excitement and anticipation. For the semi-final round a large number of fans from Crossville, many of whom had painted faces blue, greeted the girls as they ran onto the court to warm up. The game tipped off with the headed rivalry that was always present when the Bearettes and Lady Jets met. Unable to keep up with Bradley's seventy plus shooting percentage, the Lady Jets fell behind by sixteen at half-time. The team came back valiantly in the second half, but with too little, too late. The final score was 58-50, Bradley, with the Lady Jets finishing their season 25-6. Members selected on the Region Tournament Team were Tonya Hinch and Teresa Sherrill.

The Lady Jets' season was one to remember. The last CCHS girls' team to be district champions was the 1963 Jetettes and the 25-6 record is unmatched by few girls' teams throughout the school's history.

Jets . . . .

Coach Mark Bray and the Cumberland County High School Jets began preparation for the 1981 season in the spring of last year. Although considered by the coaches and fans to be a young and inexperienced team and the 1981 season to be one of rebuilding, through much dedication, determination, and hard work, the Jets succeeded in having a winning season.

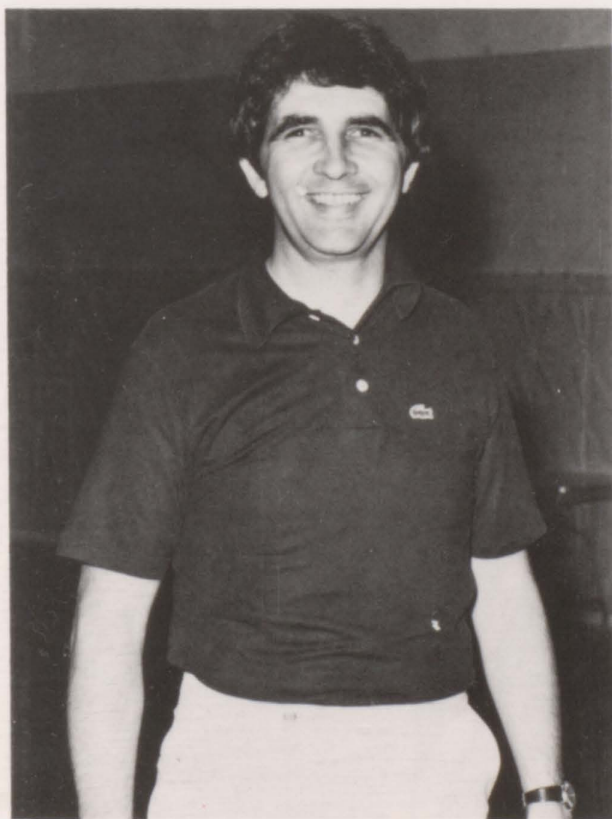

Although the season began slowly with four losses, two were to state-ranked teams, Knoxville Farragut and Sparta. The team members held a meeting and vowed to turn the team around. In the next game against the state-ranked Bradley Central Bears, the Jets won an overtime victory over the highly-touted Bears. Other important wins included victories over favored district teams McMinn County and Chattanooga Central. The Jets ended their regular season in District 5-AAA with third place behind two state-ranked teams Bradley Central and McMinn County.

Coach John Saylor

Lady Jets . . .

The Lady Jets and Coach John Saylor began the 1981 season with determination. An unbeaten record at summer camp at Tennessee Tech gave the players high hopes. Winning twenty games and the district tournament were two goals the Lady Jets set before the season began.

Coach Saylor began his second year of coaching with a young starting team, one senior and four juniors. Using an offense that took advantage of their height and outside shooting and a tough man-to-man defense, the Lady Jets opened on the road against powerful Knoxville Farragut. The young team routed the Lady Admirals by 30 points.

This initial victory began a tremendous season. Victory number twenty came against York on Feb. 17. Of their five losses, three were by one point and one by three. The three one-point losses were all to state-ranked teams.

The Lady Jets concluded their regular season tied with the Bradley Central Bearettes for second place in District 5-AAA. Both teams were behind the state-ranked Cleveland Raiderettes.

The Supporting Cast . . .

A very special person is needed to be a manager or statistician. Lots of work and little credit are two characteristics of the job. A typical manager's day includes running countless errands, sweeping the gym floor, going all the way to the cafeteria for ice, and cleaning the dressing rooms. A statistician must keep very complicated records of the fast-paced games.

Serving as managers for the Jets were Tracey Lack and Ricky Wyatt. Tracey, a senior, was a manager for three years. If information was needed on any facts of the CCHS boy's basketball program, Tracey was sure to know. Serving as manager for his first year, junior Ricky Wyatt proved invaluable to the 1981 team.

Leslie Bowman, Janet Doyle, Vicki Loveday, and Barbie Melton served as managers for the Lady Jets. Leslie, Vicki, and Janet returned to the team as managers after playing the previous season. All plan to return next year. Barbie served half the season as manager before becoming a member of the Lady Jets.

Statistics were kept by Paula Shanks, Debbie Magoun, and Tracey Lack. Debbie was the official bookkeeper for the Lady Jets as was Tracey for the Jets. Paula kept game statistics for both teams.

Jet Junior Varsity . . . .

New boys' assistant coach L.A. Fox, Jr. led the Jet B-Team to a very successful winning season. They won many close games and were narrowly defeated in several others. Some of the players saw limited action on the varsity squad. These players look to play an important role in the varsity Jet basketball program in the years to come.

The B-team consisted mainly of sophomores and several juniors. These players exhibited potential ability which was developed by Coach Fox. Not much recognition was involved with being on the junior varsity, but hard work and dedication by these youngsters could lead to a promising career on the Jet Varsity squad.

Assistant Coach L.A. Fox, Jr.

Third In The District But First In Our Hearts

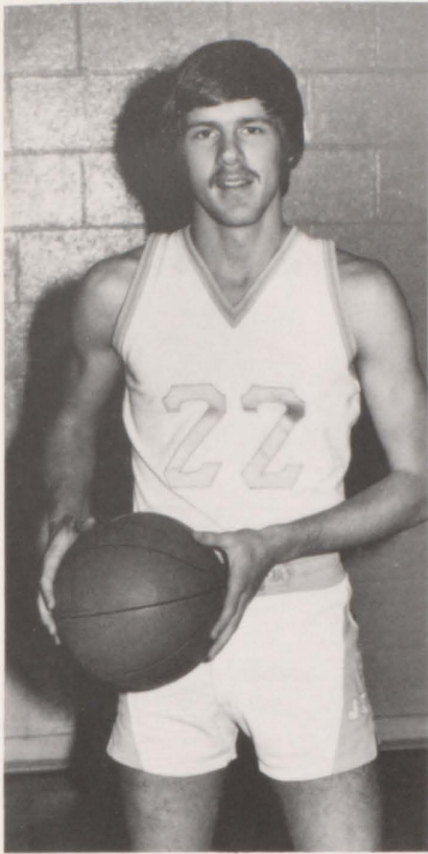

The 1981 District 5-AAA tournament began with a bang for the CCHS Jets. Facing the vastly improved Rhea County Eagles in the opening round, the Jets trailed throughout the entire game, by as much as 11 points at one stage, and it looked as though defeat was inevitable. The Jets would not be denied a trip to the Regionals and fought back with the heart that has become associated with this young team and defeated the Eagles by 1 point. The miraculous rally put them in the semi-final round against the awesome McMinn County Cherokees. The Cherokees, led by All-State Steve Smith, soundly defeated the Jets, but CCHS bounced back to defeat the Cleveland Raiders in the consolation game and took a well-deserved third place in the district tournament. Paul Mills was named to the All-District team.

In the opening round of the Region 3-AAA tournament, the Jets faced the Chattanooga City High Dynamos. The Jets led throughout the game, but the Dynamos found the shooting range late in the third quarter and rallied to win the high scoring contest, 82-78. This disappointing loss eliminated the Jets from play. Jimmy Griswold was named to the All-Region team.

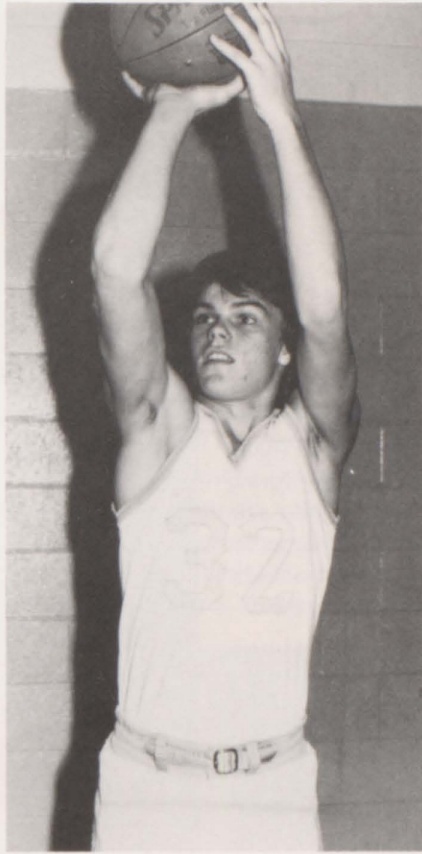

The Jets concluded their season with a 17-14 record. Members of the young Jet squad have received many post-season honors. Paul Mills, a junior guard, was named to the 2nd team of the All Tri-State squad, with senior Joel Lay, and juniors Tom LaMasters and Jimmy Griswold receiving honorable mentions. LaMasters also received an honorable mention to the All East Tennessee team.

1981 JET SENIORS

Senior leadership is an important and necessary part of any athletic team. Both the Jets and Lady Jets were young and had only four seniors on both squads. Still, these members provided the invaluable leadership needed to help improve the younger and inexperienced players. Eager to make their last year the best, these seniors encouraged their teammates to strive for and attain higher goals.

The Lady Jets had one senior on the 1980-81 squad. Tonya Hinch played elementary basketball at Cumberland Elementary. She started on the varsity squad her junior and senior year and was the captain of this year's outstanding girls' team.

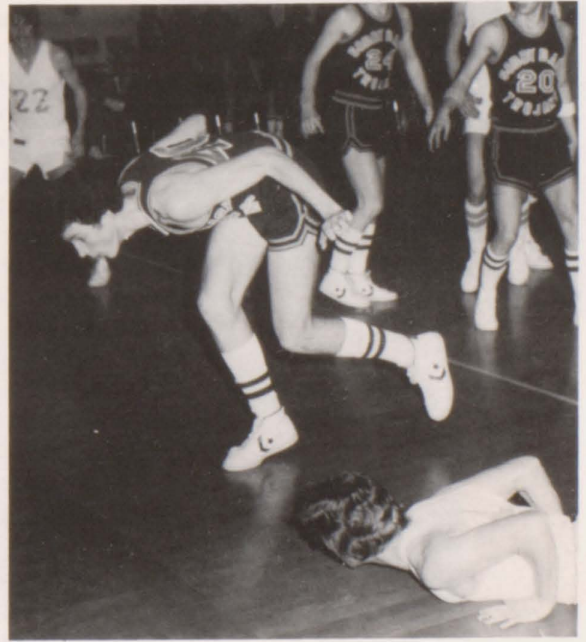

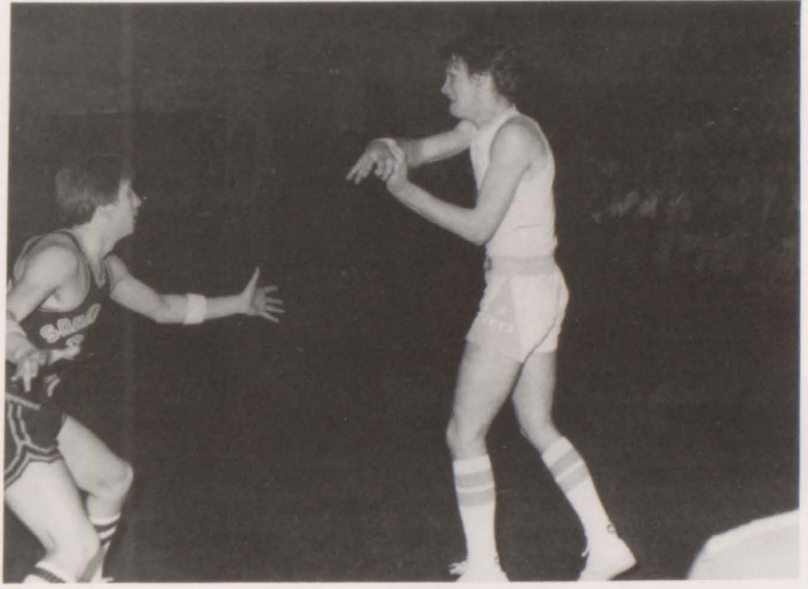

The Jets had three seniors on their squad this season, Joel Lay, Randy Keck, and Tommy Gregory. Joel played his elementary basketball at Homestead. He started part-time as a sophomore, and became a permanent starter for his junior and senior years. He also was selected as co-captain for this year's team. Randy played elementary ball at Cumberland Elementary. His role as the invaluable sixth-man on the team was very important in several close games. He was the other co-captain of the team. Randy and Joel's winning attitude was one of the reasons for the Jet's late-season surge. Tommy played his first season as a member of the Jet squad. Because of his value to the Jet football team, he missed last year's spring basketball training program, but was made a member of the squad because of his outstanding play at the Jet's summer camp at Maryville.

It Isn't Always Fun And Games . . . .

A high school basketball player's career is comprised of many ups and downs. Practice is almost year-round, including spring practice, summer camp, pre-season conditioning, regular season practice, and games, and post-season tournaments. Bruises, jammed joints, floor burns, blisters, twisted ankles, and pulled muscles are common injuries for the players.

We'll always remember ... the long, long, long bus trips ... watching Farragut's seven foot center ... what do ya mean we're gonna run, Saylor's? ... hey, Elwood, watch the rims tonight ... Coach, I think the ref heard you ... we had 42 turnovers? ... how many eggs did hit the bus at York? ... is MacDonald's the only restaurant in this state? ... it's n.b. time ... are you eating again, Otis? ... where's the candy, Tracey? ... Doug, don't you ever run out of dirty jokes? ... what time are we leaving, Gregory? ... what do ya mean you forgot your uniform, Tree? ... Coach Bray's two technicals at York ... I've never played in a crackerbox before ... the end of pre-season conditioning ... Mr. Charcoal ... "It's the Cactus Kid" ... did you bring your shoes, Tom? ... the scenery at Burger Queen after the Bradley game ... if you dribble, I'll break your arms ... my daddy is a horse at last ...

JET CHEERLEADERS

Senior Spirit

Tracey Allred

Gina Bennett

DeDe Dyer

An experienced ballplayers were important to the team, so were senior cheerleaders to the squad. Their leadership and concern for the tradition of team support affected both the athletes and the student body. Whether having served as the cheerleading squad for one year or four years, each Senior displayed the pride of the Jet teams through victory or defeat.

Tracey Allred served as Jet cheerleader for three years. Gina Bennett was co-captain of the 1981 basketball cheerleaders and served for two years. DeDe Dyer completed her fourth year of cheerleading as co-captain of the football squad. Kim Gunter, co-captain of the football squad, was a Jet cheerleader for three years. Teresa McNeal supported the football team as cheerleader for two years, and Yvonne Scoggins had a successful one-year term as a football cheerleader.

S.C. Maynard is an obvious over-achiever. Apparently the task of being assistant principal with all the duties and responsibilities involved was not enough for Mr. Maynard. To fill some of his spare time, he consented to being sponsor of both cheerleading squads. Important in this roll was the duty of chauffeur.

His interest and guidance contributed much to the squad's effectiveness.

The football cheerleading squad was made up of eleven girls who donated their time and effort for both the football players and fans. Their enthusiasm and dedication, particularly at pep rallies, encouraged team and school spirit.

The season was both exciting and disappointing. However, the girls never failed to give encouraging smiles and good luck wishes as the boys faced some of the most powerful teams in the state. Through both victory and defeat, the teams were sure of its cheerleaders' spirit and dedication.

Twelve basketball cheerleaders supported the teams through twenty-seven games and the tournaments. The squad consisted of one senior, two juniors, and nine sophomore girls. The squad's enthusiastic chants and daring stunts came only after months of grueling practice which began in early fall.

In spite of rain, snow, exams, or the flu, these girls carried the spirit and support for the team and fans throughout the season.

Assuredly the girls were an essential factor in promoting team inspiration and encouraging crowd enthusiasm.

Volleyball: Bump, Set, Spike

The Lady Jet Spikers began the 1980 Volleyball season with six returning seniors and high hopes. Summer practice, after school practice, and a variety of moving offenses and defenses led Coach Wanda Whittenburg and the players to believe this was THE year. Playing well both defensively and offensively, the Lady Jet Spikers posted an impressive 7-1 record against Clinton, Harriman, Lake City, and Sparta.

One of the victories against Sparta was especially sweet as it was played on their home court in front of the entire student body. Displaying the same prowess proved more difficult against District teams Norris, Oak Ridge, and Lenior City. In all but one match against these teams, the Lady Jet Spikers took their opponents to the third game before conceding defeat.

Seeded fourth in the District Tournament, the Lady Spikers hoped to avenge the regular season losses. As expected, they defeated Lake City and moved into semi-final play. Unable to maintain the playing form that had beaten Lake City, the Lady Spikers were defeated by Norris.

Although the team did not live up to expectations, the season was enjoyed by all participants. The practice, the games, and the long bus trips were instrumental in developing life-time friendships and hilarious experiences.

Coach Whittenburg coached the volleyball team for the second year and is looking forward to next year's season. This year's senior players included Captain Robin Barnwell, Captain Tonya Hinch, Kathlene Morgan, Karen Nail, Lynda Taylor, Lisa Turner, and Pam Wyatt. Dianne Elmore was the only junior on the team and was named to the District All Tournament team.

Wrestling: Building For The Future

Although the Jet Wrestlers began their second season with nowhere to go but up, they still faced many obstacles. Only five lettermen returned this year. Moreover, one of the team's district contenders, Bill Veler, was unable to return this season due to an automobile accident.

Returning to the team were Mike Baehr, Robert Edmonds, Benny Gibson, the only senior, Darrell Veler, and Gary Warner. Newcomers were Bill DeBruyn, Wesley Earhart, and Chuck Usher. Darrell Veler served as captain with three years of experience behind him.

Coach Hollis Bolin described the 1980-81 team as being "very young and very inexperienced." He is hoping that experience will add depth to next year's team so that the Jets may become district contenders.

The training for a wrestler consists of dieting, weight training, and conditioning. The team practices every day from two to two-and-a-half hours, ending with a strenuous conditioning session. Dieting is especially important to a wrestler, because it enables him to drop to a lower weight class, while retaining his strength through his training.

The addition of a wrestling team at Martin Junior High would be a great aid to the high school team. Two freshmen from Martin, Steve Bland and Gary Golob, were team members this year, but they were only allowed to wrestle in exhibition matches. They will return to the team next year as legal members with much needed experience.

TENNIS

After a successful season for the 1980 tennis teams, girls' coach Diane Brown and boys' coach Hollis Bolin were right to expect a winning season for 1981.

Senior players for the Jets were veterans Larry Elmore and Tim Sevier with newcomer Richard Fox. Underclass members included Cleve Couch, Stephen Bilbrey, Bobby Mayfield, Ricky Sells, Rocky Beaty and Wade Kendrick.

The 1981 schedule included such teams as Kingston, Harriman, Cookeville, Loudon, Oak Ridge and Rockwood.

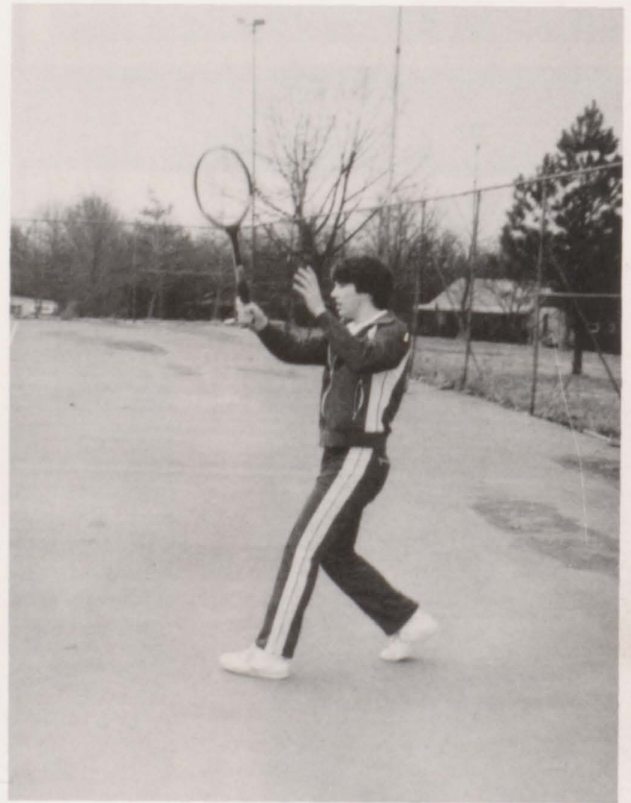

The 1980 season was a memorable one with Tonya Hinch, Beth Mitchell and Carol Brown helping the Lady Jets earn a 13-0 record for district championship. The team also won the first place trophy in the district tournament held at CCHS. Carol and Beth teamed up to place second in the district tournament and later won the regional in Clinton, Tennessee. The win at the region qualified Brown and Mitchell for the state tournament held in Nashville where they placed fifth in competition.

These three strong players returned this year to lead new members Allison Bingham, Cheryl Mincy, Teresa Wheeler and Kim Holt in season play. Matches in the 1981 season were played with Cookeville, Kingston, Harriman, Loudon, Oak Ridge and Rockwood. The District Tournament was held at Harriman High School May 4-9 and the regional on May 12 in Oak Ridge.

Outstanding Performances Highlight The Years . . .

The Jet Chessmen and Chesswoman have had outstanding performances over the years. Each year they attend the State Championship, the Southern Regional Championship, and the National Championship. Much traveling goes along with these performances. The State Championship is held in Murfreesboro, the Southern Regional in Atlanta, Georgia, and the National Championship in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

In 1978-79 they were the state novice champions. They retained the championship again in 1979-80. Each year in these championships, the team always places in the trophy divisions. In 1979 they were honored by State Senator Anna Belle Clement O'Brien for their accomplishments. They remained undefeated among high school competition. Cato White was the team's coach.

1980-81 was another year of achievements for both open and novice teams. In February, open members became 1981 Tennessee State Champions with the novice group placing second in the state competition. In March, six members of the open team captured the Georgia Championship, winning 26 of their 30 matches at the Georgia State Championships in Atlanta.

The 1980-81 golf team was one of rebuilding and promise. Several new members came out for the team and all matches were played at Lake Tansi Golf Course.

The softball team began its second year of competition under Coach Nancy Hyder. The 1980-81 ball club consisted of 15 inexperienced players who were new to the sport.

The 1981 Jet baseball team was not organized in time to be photographed.

Team members were as follows: Mark Albright, Mike Baehr, Mitch Beaty, Larry Bradley, David Cooper, Duane Davis, Butch Hale, Frank Heilmeier, David Long, Ken Lowe, Herb Modesitt, Scott Myers, Steve Robinson, Paul Sanders, Chip Simpson, Kenny Stevens, Chuck Usher, Jeff Weaver, Keith Woods, and Paul Woods.

This year CCHS attempted a first and succeeded! A cross-country track team was organized with the help of Janet Bass, who devoted a lot of her free time to run with the track members as they trained for competition.

Practice began in September and individuals, both boys and girls with little or no experience in running, steadily improved their skills as the season progressed.

Members on the track team who played other sports found that running track reinforced other training. Running offered a challenge to the individuals who participated.

HOMECOMING 1980

Homecoming week opened with over-all, hat, sock, and sucker day, a day loved by all. Tuesday, CCHS turned back the clock to the 1950's when skirts were full, hair was greased, and days were happy. Three inch heels of cowboy boots, wide brimmed hats, and war paint were the order of the day on Wednesday when students revived the days of the Old West with Cowboy and Indians day. Thursday, students were comfortable in either coordinated warm up suits and expensive foreign track shoes, or old t-shirts, well worn sweat pants, and battered Converse tennis shoes. Friday brought on a sea of blue and gold clothing as students sported the colors of their mighty Jet team.

THE NIGHTS . . .

The nights of Homecoming displayed the intensity of Jet Spirit. Those who participated in the evening activities were ablaze with energy. Their main project of the week was the construction of the class floats. On Tuesday night a sock-hop provided entertainment for those who wanted to recapture the spirit of the 50's. On Thursday, a bon fire warmed an already combustible student body. The snake dance led us to an electrifying pep-rally. The spirit was alive and moving in the hearts of all.

The perfect example of spirit is seen in the face of Brian Swearengen (pictured below) who sustained a serious injury during the game prior to Homecoming. Although this outstanding football player knew he would be unable to play against the powerful Rhea County, his heart and spirit were a special support for the team as they ran onto the field.

Concentrating on what lies ahead of them, captains Tim Davis and Johnny Warner await the toss of the coin and the beginning of the biggest game of the season.

THE ANTICIPATION . . . promising

Friday, the day, the hours before

Homecoming day began with the longest parade in Jet history. Floats, bands, clowns, candy, the excited look in the children's eyes, the happy attitude of all involved, and the anticipation of more to come were all a part of the successful 1980 Homecoming parade. Following the parade, a roof-raising pep-rally ended with the seniors' winning the spirit stick.

Friday, the night, the moments before Pregame 1980

The pregame festivities were filled with honor, recognition, and surprise. The juniors won in a close competition for best float. After spirit chains were stretched, the seniors were named the winners. All of the senior football players, managers, and cheerleaders were recognized, had their colors pinned on, and received a kiss for good luck from their escorts. The senior band members were also recognized for their hard work and dedication.

These activities were only the first half of the night, for we were still looking forward to the ballgame that awaited us.

THE QUEENS . . .

Homecoming Queen for 1980 was DeDe Dyer, the daughter of Mrs. Margie McCoy. Chosen as the senior representative by the Jet team, DeDe cheered as a CCHS cheerleader for four years. The Homecoming captains crowning DeDe were Tim Davis and Johnny Warner.

Band Sweetheart for 1980 was Kim Loomis, selected by the band for her outstanding dedication.

THE GAME . . .

THE SENIORS CELEBRATE VICTORY

Sadie Hawkins' Week is a week promoting the female liberation movement. Each class is represented by a powderpuff football team which compete with each other throughout the week with aggression befitting to the Jet football squad. In the first game of the week, the Juniors and Sophomores battled it out until a Junior triumph. The second game, the Sophomores tried unsuccessfully against the Seniors for a last shot for the championship. In the final game, Juniors and Seniors, both undefeated, battled a long fought game with two overtimes. Quarterback Tonya Hinch and Runningback DeDe Dyer made two big touchdowns to bring the Seniors to a well fought victory.

The highlight of the week was the Sadie Hawkins' Dance on a Friday night. If the dance is not extraordinary, the couples are because for one night during the school year, the female can respectfully pick her date and not have to say "yes" to the first guy to ask her for fear no one else will.

1980 SADIE HAWKINS KING & QUEEN

During Sadie Hawkins Week, King and Queen candidates compete by raising money. The candidates who raised the most money earned the coveted position of reigning Sadie Hawkins King and Queen. This was the first time there has been competition for a Sadie Hawkins king and the first king at CCHS was Scott Fisher and the new queen was Sue Turner.

SPIRIT DAY '81

WE LUV YA BLU

Spirit Day 1981 hit CCHS like blue wild-fire. The feeling of competition was intense. Everyone was anxious, especially since Spirit Day had been postponed a week because of snow. The classes competed in banner, spirit chain, pep rally and game attendance competition. The teams faced powerful Soddy-Daisy opponents.

The Talent Show kicked off the day's activities presenting some of CCHS's finest performers and commercials featuring Publication staff's zany members and products. The entertainment was the perfect prelude for the pep rally to follow.

Excitement surged through the crowd as the pep rally began. The band played "Dixie," and the feeling intensified. Banners and signs adorned the walls and Luv Ya Blu signs waved through the mob. Many of the seniors painted their faces blue, and some went as far as to color their entire bodies. The student body was hungry for a victory and the teams had their support. Carol Brown served as the chairman for Spirit Day 1981 which was sponsored by the Jet Contrail.

Among the signs of boundless spirit:

Luv Ya Blu!

Jets, Jets proud and true, we're the class of '82!

Senior Spirit!

Ride Like the Wind!

Seniors are the Best!

Nobody Does It Better

We're the greatest, we have fun, we're the class of 81-1-1-1-1

Jacquie Hicks' talented singing earned her top honors.

TALENT SHOW

THE WINNERS

The annual Talent Show gives all talented students an opportunity to perform and compete for honors. In the past, the student body has been pleasantly surprised by their classmates and this year was no exception.

1st PLACE

Junior Jacquie Hicks, an accomplished singer and pianist, has performed in Musical Moods, as a soloist for the Select Choir, and in many other musical programs. Jacquie won first place singing "Theme From Ice Castles." She was also the winner of the 1980 Talent Show.

2nd PLACE

Tim Bowden is both an excellent singer and guitarist. Charla Kerley, his accompanist, and Tim are both members of the CCHS Select Choir. They performed "Long Haired Country Boy" to the delight of the audience. Obviously the judges were also impressed as they awarded the duo second place.

3rd PLACE

Cleve Couch, sophomore, is a member of a musical family and often sings in his church. Cleve is a member of both the CCHS Stage Band and Select Choir. Cleve won third place with his medley of "Bridge Over Troubled Water" and "Lay Me Down." Cleve will definitely be a strong contender in upcoming contests.

... AND NOW A WORD FROM OUR SPONSOR

The Publications Staff sponsored Spirit Day and took the opportunity during the Talent Show to advertise some of their favorite products.

The 1981 seniors are honored at pinning ceremony.

The Class of '81, winning the pep rally, banner and spirit chain competition, accumulated enough points to obtain the coveted Spirit Cup. Each of the classes' hard work paid off as victory prevailed for both the Jet basketball teams when they met their powerful Soddy-Daisy opponents. The Lady Jets rolled over the Trojanettes by a score of 61 to 31. An exciting boys' game followed with the Jets winning 62 to 58.

The band Spectrum helped continue the winning spirit at the after-game dance sponsored by Student Council.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Stepp, the Cumberland County High School Band enlivened school and community functions with quality performances.

In the fall, the Marching Band was an indispensable element in pre-game and half-time festivities at CCHS ballgames. During marching season the band participated in the Sequatchie Valley Band Festival and the University of Tennessee Contest. At both contests the band enjoyed performing superb shows which included the music "Nobody Does It Better," "A Few of My Favorite Things," "Ride Like the Wind," and "Send in the Clowns." An inexorable display of energy and enthusiasm coupled with flawless maneuvers entitled the band to superior ratings. At the Sequatchie Valley Contest, Drum Majors Lisa Campbell and Brenda Cannon, the corps and the band earned superior ratings. At the UT Contest, the band won a birth in the final competition with five other selected bands by competing against eleven bands in the preliminary. In the finals, the Marching Jet Band placed third. Never has a CCHS band received such high honors at a marching competition.

During football season the CCHS band tried a first. The band elected Janine Barger, Mike Hall and Kim Loomis cheerleaders to coordinate and direct band cheers during pep rallies and ballgames. Another first for the group was having one of its members, Mariacarmen Dunaway, selected to the Tennessee All State Band.

Officers for the 1980-81 school year were president, Mike Hall; vice-president, Kim Loomis; and treasurer, Becky Snoddy. Kim Loomis also served as Band Sweetheart for Homecoming 1980.

Other performances of the band included a Christmas Concert, several parades, and the annual production of Musical Moods.

For 13 years Mr. Stepp has been the director of the CCHS music department. His hard work and dedication have helped to build both band and choir into strong and successful organizations.

C.C.H.S. CHOIR

SELECT CHOIR AND STAGE BAND

Cumberland County High School Select Choir once again demonstrated consistent excellence and impressed audiences with the subtlety and power of their vocal performances. Talented students' auditioning for membership in the Choir assured an outstanding range of voice and talent. Whether appearing on their spring tour, in the sacred concert, at various nursing homes or at banquets engagements, the group performed with enthusiasm and style.

The Stage Band proved their musical know-how in performance after performance. The group appeared in the Tennessee Tech Stage Band competition and were also a welcome addition to many school and community functions. Featured soloists were Janine Barger, Rick Houston and Freddie Darnell.

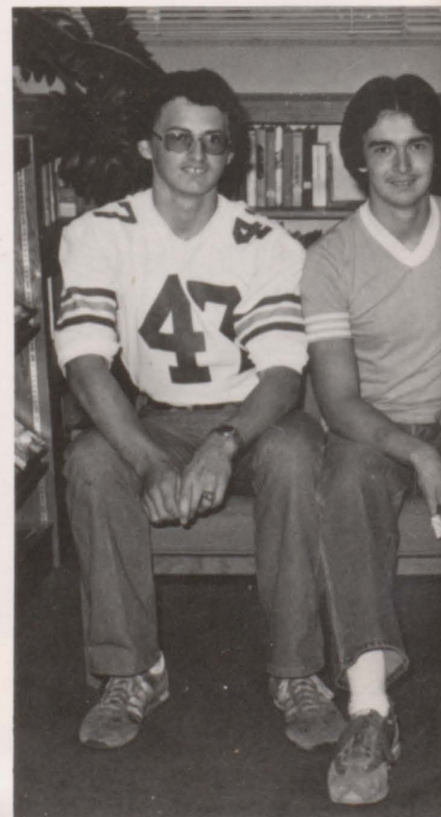

Delegates for Boys and Girls State are nominated by the guidance counselors and elected by the faculty. All eligible students must have a B average. Delegates for Girls State are selected on the basis of leadership, character, scholarship, cooperation, and physical fitness. The Boys State delegates selections are based on the qualities of honor, courage, leadership, and service.

Volunteer Girls State was held at MTSU in late spring. The Girls State delegation was addressed by various dignitaries including First Lady Rosalyn Carter, Governor Alexander and wife, Honey, and State Senator Anna Belle O'Brien.

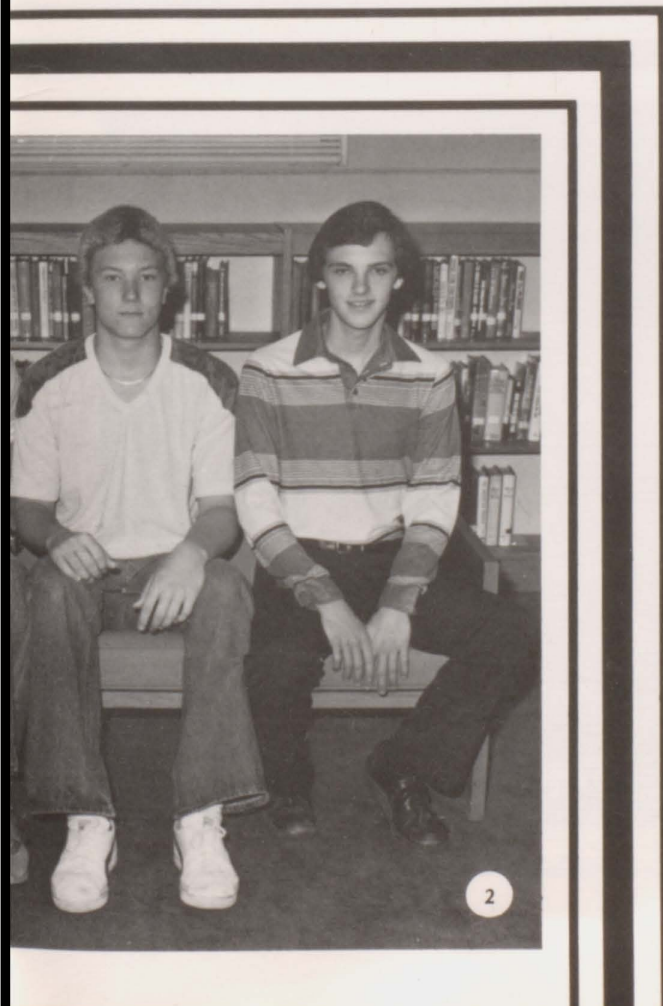

Boys State was held at Tennessee Tech, where delegates were addressed by Governor Alexander. The week ended with the Governor's Inaugural Ball with both Boys and Girls State Delegates attending.

The national sponsor of the oratorical contest is the American Legion which provides thousands of dollars in scholarship money for this program.

FOREIGN FRIENDS

This year CCHS was very fortunate to have three foreign exchange students. Many students here had the opportunity to become friends with at least one of these remarkable people and discuss the different types of lifestyles of their respective country. People that did become friends with these people found, not foreign weirdos, but truly good friends.

BRAZIL

Carlos Luz came to America from São Paulo, Brazil, on January 21, is currently residing with the family of Terry Burdett, and will return to Brazil on July 24.

Carlos sees a few similarities between America and Brazil. For example, Carlos' favorite foods include hamburgers, french fries, and pizza. According to Carlos, these foods, which are very popular with U.S. teens, are also popular in Brazil. Recreation is also basically the same. Young people in Brazil go with their friends to movies, ice skating, amusement parks, and snackbars. The beach is also a popular favorite. Since the weather in Brazil is seldom cold, there is a lot of time to lounge on the sand while soaking up the warm Brazilian sun. Although Carlos likes to go to the beach, he admits that he loves the snow in America.

When Carlos compared schools, he did say that he likes the Brazilian school system better than our system at CCHS. Carlos attends Rio Branco which has an enrollment of about 4000 students. At Rio Branco, there are around sixty students to a classroom, and instead of the students changing classes, the teachers move to the students. Classes are from 7:30-12:50 with five classes each day. Students in Brazil also have twenty minutes each day for time to themselves.

When Carlos commented on the thing he liked most about America, he said everyone is very warm and friendly. "Wherever I go in the halls, someone says hello to me. I believe I have many friends here."

GERMANY

Marlies Schaafberg came to America in August of 1980 from Verden, West-Germany. She is staying with the family of Sherry Stevenson, and will return to Germany at the end of July.

Marlies likes America very much. She pointed out many differences between Germany and America. One of the differences she mentioned is the people. "In Germany, if people don't know you, they are more reserved." She feels that Americans are much more outgoing, and she likes the mixture of races we have in America. She also mentioned that Americans are more dependent on cars for transportation. In Germany, the major types of transportation, such as buses and railroads, are used as well as walking and bicycles. According to Marlies, there is some difference between American and German teens. Young people in Germany meet at parties or discos, while in Crossville most teens meet at school and in town. Another important difference is that girls here dress up more. "In Germany, girls do not put so much emphasis on make-up and high heels if there is no special occasion." Marlies believes that teens both here and in Germany talk about the same areas of interest, and that the relationship of teens with their parents is the same in both countries.

There are several aspects of America that appeal to Marlies. "I like the weather. I just hate the snow though." She says that in Germany the temperature changes are not so sudden or extreme from one day to the next. The summers in America are warmer and the winters in Germany is much cooler. She also loves our music. "I'm addicted to the radio. I listen whenever I can."

Marlies would like to continue her college education in America after her graduation from CCHS. Evidently, Marlies has come into contact with some thing in America and that she likes well enough to make her want to stay.

HOLLAND

Frans Ribbink came to America on August 8, 1980 from Dieren, Holland, is staying at the M.V. Stump residence, and will return to Holland sometime in July 1981.

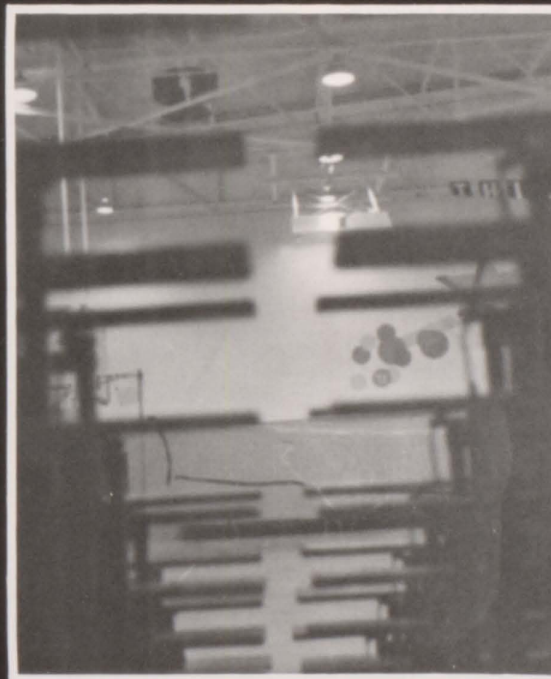

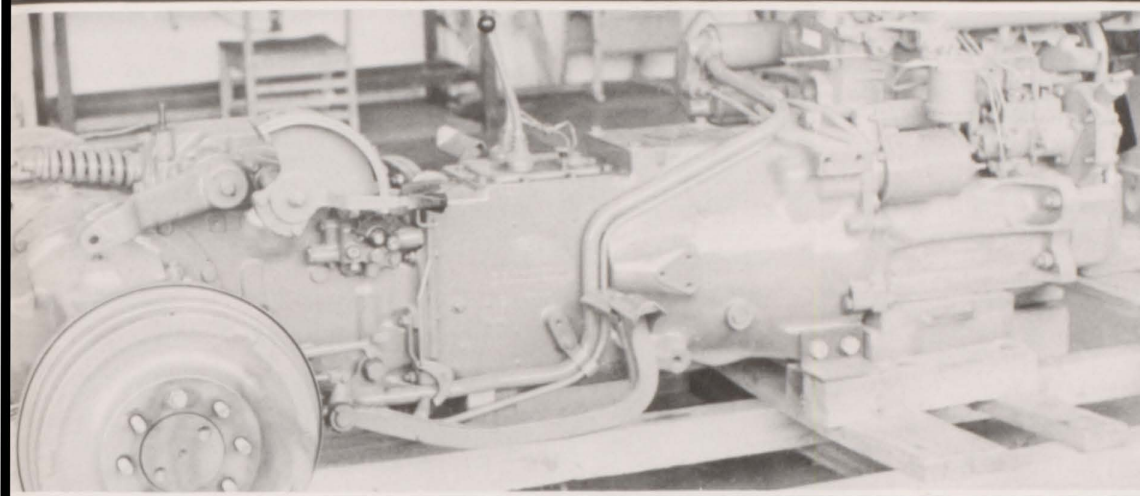

He feels that the music of America and Holland is basically the same but that it does have differences. He feels we are behind in popular music. "We've groups that have been known in Holland for several years and they are just coming out here." He does not like our hot summer climate but feels that our winter is about the same as Holland's winter. Teenagers in both countries are similar. "I guess they're the same everywhere you go." Discos are more popular in Holland. "A disco is in every small place." He feels that most of the American activities are connected with school. He especially commented on our remarkable school spirit. "In Holland, we have no school spirit. I was surprised at the spirit here." Possibly the most amazing topic Frans discusses is Dutch television in comparison to American television. "Television is very different." In Holland there are only two stations, while in America there is a network on almost every station. Dutch television begins at 5:00 PM and lasts until either 12:00 or 1:00 A.M. There are no commercials except during the news. Also, the shows differ. In Holland, more documentary and educational programs are telecasted.

Frans likes the hospitable American people and can find nothing about America that he dislikes.

THIS IS STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council serves as an adviser to the administration, as a voice of the students, and as a service organization. Members of the council attend each faculty and board meeting to voice the opinion of the students. The Council also reviews administrative policy and suggests amendments to assure fairness for the student body.

The Council also organizes activities for the entertainment of the school. Kiss-a-Pig, home basketball game dances, Spring Fling, and Homecoming are just a few of the functions the Student Council sponsors. All of the money that is raised is used for school improvement.

Over the past year, the Council was involved in renovating the water system as well as in obtaining, naming, and painting The Spirit of Dixie, the new school mascot. Members also worked on concrete campus sidewalks and water coolers.

Council meets everyday fourth period for business meetings. CCHS is fortunate to have the only council in the state which has daily meetings. Members receive one credit for serving on the council which consists of eight sophomores, ten juniors, and twelve seniors. The student body elects representatives, president, and vice president during the spring of each year.

The monthly newspaper, JET CONTRAIL, and yearbook THE PLATEAU were produced by members of the Publications Staff. Both publications were nonprofit and financially self supporting.

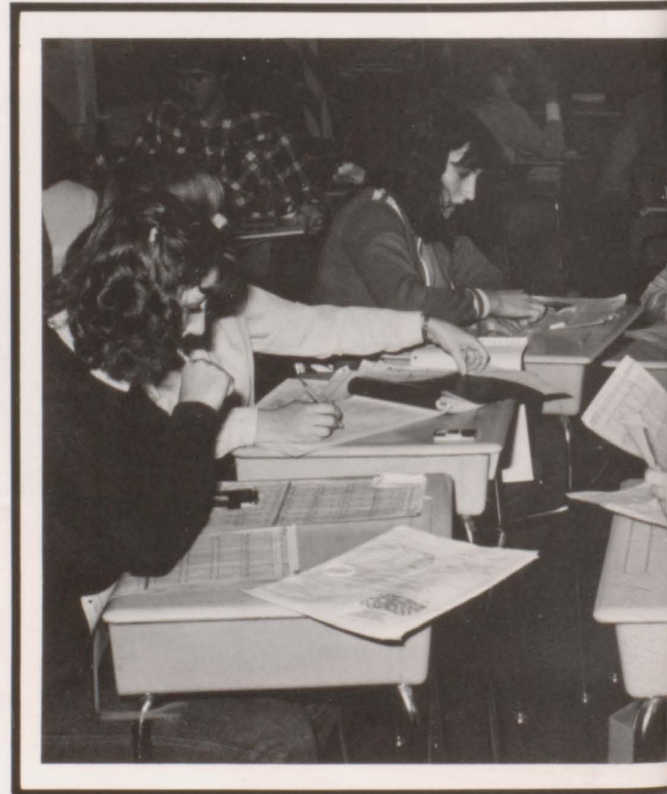

The class consisted of 33 students and two advisers. Of these 33, eight were audits who had served on last year's staff and this year offered their experience for no school credit.

Staff advisers were Diane Brown and Judy Quillen. Mrs. Brown's ten years of experience and know-how in publications were invaluable. Although this was Mrs. Quillen's first year as adviser, she proved to be a definite asset to the staff.

THE COMPTON

Lachelle, could you draw these 50 logos for me by tomorrow? ... How do you spell "congradulations"? ... No, Joyce-I won't have my editorial done by tomorrow ... What do you mean "a lot" is two words? ... Was I supposed to knock before I came in, Scott? ... What do you mean the Red Dog bought an ad? ... Madge, where is the copy for pages 127-210? We told you about it yesterday.

Four English credits are required for graduation, making it the most important subject for successfully completing high school. Both regular and advanced courses are offered for tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades.

The main difference between courses labeled general and those labeled advanced is in the amount of material covered. Advanced classes move a little faster, read a little more, and cover more ground. General courses contain much of the same material as the advanced courses; the pace is slower.

Three courses of foreign language (French, Spanish, and Latin) are offered. All foreign language courses deal with a study of the language and culture of another country.

C-Wing has a distinctive sound. The clatter of typewriters and business machines marks it as the home of the business department. Although no course in business is required for graduation, business courses are in demand by students who wish to become proficient in areas of Typing I and II, bookkeeping, principles of business, business arithmetic, general business, and office practice.

Whether students are planning to enter college or to go immediately into a career, business skills learned will aid them in fulfilling their chosen roles.

FINE ARTS

Band and Choir

Art is free expression without words.

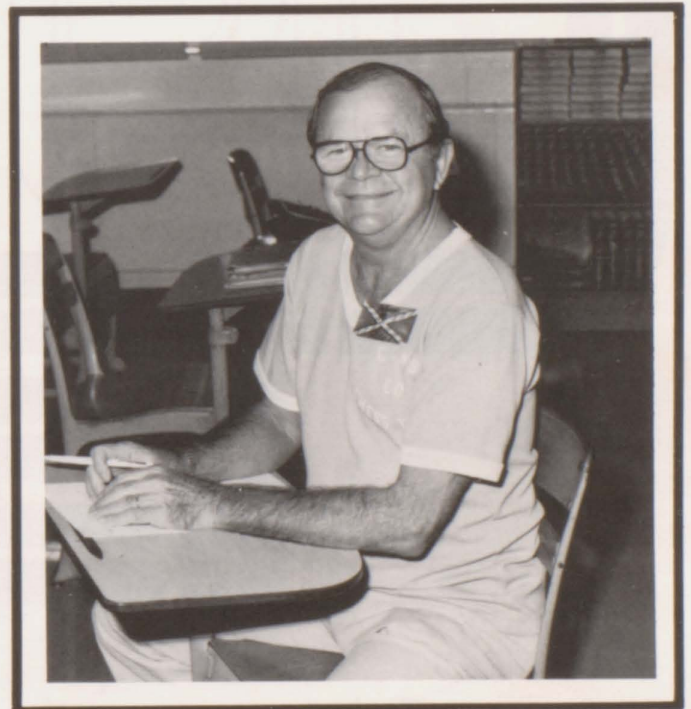

The students who take art are introduced to the study of basics, including shadowing, texturing, and contouring.

Art students have a better concept and understanding of objects in their environment.

The music department at CCHS provides several types of entertainment for the school each year. This year the marching band had an outstanding season with awards and honors received. The concert band and choirs offered varied entertainment including concerts, outside school events, and Musical Moods, an annual musical presentation.

JUNIORS

Although juniors have experienced high school life and think they know what is expected both from teachers and fellow students, the junior year for many students is the most difficult of the high school years. For some, the classload can be overwhelming. Chances are that a book-laden individual trudging to class is a junior. The year between being a lowly sophomore and an idolized senior is ephemeral. With only one more year remaining, juniors realize how fleeting are their high school years, and they seriously begin to consider their lives goals.

SOPHOMORES

When the Class of '83 first came to CCHS, they were excited, scared, and lost. In the many days that followed, they met new people, made new friends, and became involved in various school activities. Sophomores soon discovered that hard work was necessary to keep up with the upper classmen. After much participation in school projects, a feeling of satisfaction settled over the sophomores, who began to understand that in the years to come, they would become the foundation on which others would build.

"Your Partners In Progress"

To the Reader:

We, as Editors of the 1981 Plateau, can not convey to you the feelings and emotions that have gone into the production of this yearbook. Countless hours were spent in our efforts to present a book containing all the windows of school life here at C.C.H.S.-in athletics, activities, and academics-not only with pictures, but also with words to explain the views you see.

In order to give our readers a "classy" look at c.C.H.S., we pushed our staff to its very limits. This book could never have been what it is without each member's individual work. We thank our many advertisers for their patronage. Special thanks go to McEachern Photographers, Terry Ashburn, Bob Wilson, and our staff photographers, Scott Kitchen and Jeff Allred, for the many pictures. Another big thank you goes to Madge Reed and Mrs. Judy Quillen for all of their help with our abundant copy.

But the person deserving the biggest thank you is our adviser and friend, Mrs. Diane Brown, whose inspirations and guidance were essential in the making of the 1981 Plateau.

We hope this book will bring you hours of enjoyment and that you will grow to love it just as much as we have loved bringing it to you.
