-MATTHEW 2:14-15

Dear Parishioners,

Merry Christmas!

Certainly, for those who kept Advent well, there is all the more reason to celebrate.

As we gather this weekend, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. This feast is a not-so-subtle reminder of the beauty and dignity of the human family, for Christ chose to enter fully into family life, submitting Himself to a human father and mother. This family was unlike any other in history. The Blessed Mother had offered a perpetual vow of virginity to the Lord, a vow that St. Joseph lovingly accepted and protected. Their Son was unlike any other—not only because He was not biologically Joseph’s son, but because He is the Son of God, the Second Person of the Trinity. And yet, He chose to be born into a family, to be nurtured, taught, and loved within a household.

The Holy Family gives us a model for our own families—not a model of perfection without struggle, but a vision of hope, harmony, love, and mutual self-gift. Meditating on the Holy Family can inspire us to deeper charity and mutual submission within our own homes. This is why our many Nativity scenes are not merely decorative or quaint; they are invitations to prayer. They help us contemplate the mystery of the Incarnation and the profound humility of the Son of God, who submitted Himself to all of this—for us.

On Thursday, we celebrate the Maternity of the Blessed Mother, as we contemplate that she bore Christ and gave birth to God. It is a Holy Day of Obligation, of course.

Thank you to all who sent kind cards and gifts. I am deeply grateful for every expression of generosity, and especially for your prayers and support. I will admit that I am also thankful not to receive too many food items! I still remember my early years as a priest at the Cathedral, when one Christmas we received three very large baskets of fruit. Every piece was ripe and juicy—but far more than we could manage. We had fruit at every meal, and the cook had to get quite creative so that nothing went to waste. And, as we all know, too many goodies can easily go to the waist as well!

Know of my gratitude, my prayers for you and your families, and my joy in celebrating this holy season together.

In Christ,

Fr. Todd

UPCOMING FORGIVEN RETREAT ~ AT ST. EDWARD

Are you desiring to encounter the Lord's love, mercy, and healing in a deeper way? This half-day retreat is an opportunity to renew our understanding and love for the Sacrament of Reconciliation (or Confession).

Over time, this Sacrament can come to seem like an obligation or only needed for very big sins. The reality is that the Lord desires to meet us regularly with His mercy and healing and does this in an unparalleled way in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Join us on Sunday, January 11, at St. Edward's in Minneota from 2:00 – 7:30 pm to be renewed in this gift and to receive deeper healing. The day will include presentations, shared meals, small groups, Q&A with a priest, and an opportunity to go to Confession and receive prayer with prayer teams during a Eucharistic Holy Hour.

Register online for free at dnu.org/worship or use the QR code. Please prayerfully consider who in your life you could invite to come with you! Questions? Contact the Office of Worship at worship@dnu.org or 507.233.5320.

KITCHEN ANGELS FOR ST. EDWARD SCHOOL

We would like to create a group called "Kitchen Angels." The purpose of this roster is to be contacted should we need to prepare donated produce for the school lunch program or do a little extra cleaning in the food preparation area. Our School Head Cook, Cynthia Moorse, will be supervising these activities

Enrolling in the Kitchen Angel roster does not mean you're obligated to take each case or peel each vegetable. You would be contacted by e-mail or called, when produce is donated and helpers needed, and if you're interested/available, you would respond back to volunteer for a couple of hours.

Please let Cynthia or the school (872.6391) know if you have any questions and/or if you're interested in joining this roster!

SUNDAY F.I.R.E. (Families Involved in Religious Education – Adult & Older Teen Faith Formation)

We meet Sundays from 9:30 – 10:30 am in the Knights' Hall in Minneota. Video links and schedule can be found on goodteacherafc.com under "Religious Education – Sunday FIRE" if you're not able to join us.
