

Sex Education and HIV/STI Prevention
Parent Notification Form and Request to Excuse Child from Instruction
Midland Public Schools Notification to Parents/Guardians for Health/Wellness Course, Human Life Cycle Unit

Dear Parent or Guardian:

We are about to begin teaching The Human Life Cycle Unit in our Health/Wellness class taught by a qualified health teacher. The outline and standards for this unit can be found on the district website at <https://www.midlandps.org/health-physical-education> or a paper copy can be requested from the teacher. This program of instruction was approved by the Midland Public Schools Board of Education. As a parent, you have several rights:

- You must be notified prior to instruction on sex education and/or HIV/STI prevention.
- You may preview the curriculum and materials. To do so, please contact: Joe Amabile, MPS Curriculum Specialist email: amabilej@midlandps.org
- You may view the lessons being taught if you wish. To do so, you must schedule your visit at least 48 hours prior to the class you want to observe. To schedule your lesson observation, please contact the school principal.
- You may excuse your child from this instruction without penalty. If you decide that your child should not participate in some or all the lessons, please complete the Exemption Request below and return it to the classroom teacher.
