The mission of the Rocky Hill World Language Department is to enable our students to communicate effectively and appropriately in the target language and to foster an understanding of the cultures studied. Through comparisons and connections of our current and diverse ethnicity, the students will become successful in the global community and will develop the skills needed for lifelong learning.

The department is committed to providing all students with top notch world language education culminating in university level study in the 3rd and 4th years.

WORLD LANGUAGES

Rocky Hill High School

LANGUAGE FOR ALL

Students who have challenges learning languages have the option of taking a non-sequential World Language course that meets the Connecticut state requirement for graduation, but does not prepare students to progress to any additional language classes. This course is by recommendation only and guidance will discuss with parents if this option is appropriate.

Introduction to French Introduction to Latin Introduction to Spanish

MORE INFORMATION

The RHHS Program of Studies is linked below. Please find the details of all courses offered by the World Language Department beginning on page 87.

WORLD LANGUAGE STUDENTS GENERALLY CHOOSE ONE OF TWO TRACKS IN 9TH GRADE

TRACK 1

HAVE TAKEN A WORLD LANGUAGE AT GMS.

THEN TAKE

French 2 Latin 1 Spanish 2

TRACK 2

HAVE NOT TAKEN A WORLD LANGUAGE AT GMS OR WANT TO TRY A NEW LANGUAGE

THEN TAKE

French 1 Latin 1 Spanish 1

EARN COLLEGE CREDIT

Each language track ends in the senior year with classes that earn credits through the University of Connecticut's Early College Experience program, which are transferrable to most universities. Students in French 4 and 5, in Latin 3 and 4 both earn 3 UConn credits in their junior and senior year for a total of 6 credits. Students in UConn Spanish V earn 6 credits and students in Perspectives on Latin America (available in addition to Spanish V) earn 3 credits.

The department also encourages students to take more than one World Language if they are interested.
