CRIMINAL RECORD HISTORY REPORT

Dorchester School District Four requires that prior to initial employment, a criminal history from the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) be requested. In accordance with South Carolina State Law, we can consider for employment only persons having a criminal record history report on file. To receive a criminal record history report on you, Dorchester School District Four will have to forward the information listed below to the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division.

Dorchester School District Four does not consider race, sex, and date of birth in the regular application process. Therefore, you are asked to supply the information noted below through use of this form, and that you forward it to us along with your application. Availability of a record clear of any criminal history at the time of employment consideration will be to your advantage, and you should consider completion of this form as an integral part of your application.
