STUDENTS:

- Club pictures, class representatives, band and class officer pictures will be made today.
- All FBLA members and anyone interested in FBLA needs to see Ms. Colburn today to confirm shirt sizes.
- All Jr. Beta members see Mrs. Garrett during break today to vote for officers.
- This week is Red Ribbon Week and this year's theme is "Celebrate Life. Live Drug Free™." Kids everywhere will celebrate and demonstrate how important it is to make healthy choices by remaining drug-free. Huntland will be celebrating Red Ribbon Week by dressing up on the following days: Today: A "Red" letter day to kick off Red Ribbon week. Tomorrow is Spirit Day! Wear your Huntland blue and white to cheer our team on to victory! Which grade will show they have the most school spirit? Friday, October 28th: Hats Off to Being Drug Free! – Wear your Favorite or Silly Hat. Monday, October 31st: Say "BOO" to Drugs! – Wear a "school-appropriate" costume OR if you choose not to wear a costume, you can wear orange as your way of answering the question, "Orange You Glad to Be Drug Free?"
- Pumpkin Parade will be Friday, October at 6:00.
- FBLA is collecting can tabs for Ronald McDonald House charities through November 9th. Prizes will be given to the classes that bring in the most tabs. Can tab leaders: Mrs. Minor's class is leading in K-2; Mrs. Burt's class is leading in 3-5; and Mrs. Speer's class is leading in 6-8.
- Congratulations to the middle school boys and girls for their victories last night.
- Middle school basketball game here Friday at 6:00.
- Football game tomorrow night at Moore Co. at 7:00.
- Seniors: Please do not forget that most colleges you are applying to have a scholarship you can apply for as well. The majority of those application deadlines are November 1. Please get those filled out and submitted as soon as possible!
