F. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION Q & A

Board study sessions are generally for the Board to engage in study and/or training. Pursuant to the Brown Act, these study sessions are held in open session, in the presence of the public. However, they do not involve the public. In light of the particular subject matter of this study session, and consistent with the Board's interest in fostering collaborative labor relations grounded in the identification of mutual understandings and shared interests, the Board has reserved time for members of the public to direct questions to the designated presenter and trainer.

G. ADJOURNMENT

Any person with a disability may request these agenda be made available in an appropriate alternative format. A request for a disability-related modification or accommodation may be made by a person with a disability who requires a modification or accommodation in order to participate in the public meeting to insert contact information.
