STAFF SPECIAL RECOGNITION:

Jonathon Wyatt- Choir Teacher

In the summer of 2021, our search for a new choir director at Williamsburg City School. I had the pleasure of meeting Jonathan Wyatt for the first time. From the moment we started talking I could see the passion and excitement that he had for Williamsburg and the music department. Has an alumnus of Williamsburg and the music program he knew the history like no one else. It was easy to see who the next choir director needed to be.

The program has grown very quickly with Jonathan in the lead. Going from a group of 4 to a group of over 20 students Jonathan has instilled the love of music in his students. In the first half of the school year the choir has performed at server concerts, won a contest to open for the rock band Foreigner, seen a musical in Cincinnati, started a new tradition with Hanging of the Green, and made us all remember what Christmas in a Small Town should feel like. There is no question that the Williamsburg Choir is heading in the right direction.

Jason Smith

Jason Smith is deserving of the “Going the Extra Mile” Award. He always goes above and beyond and works tirelessly to do what is asked, whether it is making home visits, speaking to parents/families, students, teachers, doing threat assessments, working with Dept. for Community Based Services or the State Police. Jason develops an excellent rapport with everyone with which he works with. Students who know him, love him. He treats everyone with respect and is always pleasant to be around. Jason always gives 100 percent in whatever he is doing and can adapt to make a connection with a variety of students from all backgrounds. We are very fortunate to have him working with us at Williamsburg Independent School District!
