The following topics were discussed in open discussion.

- Abigail Skene, West Pittston - Safety Precautions we have in place. Mr. Kopko spoke about constables going around to the schools, metal detectors, armed security officers in schools and new plans being worked on by Officer Alberigi. Cameras are also inside and outside of buildings. Parents were interested to see a presentation of plans that was discussed last month. Dr. Pollard responded that over the summer they will attend PTO meetings and stated anyone can contact him.
- Carl Yorina, West Wyoming – Thanked the board for approving him to volunteer with the Science Olympiad. In six weeks the girls went from knowing nothing to receiving a gold medal. It is seven years in a row that Wyoming Area received a medal. Mr. Yorina said it was an absolute honor to work with these two ladies.

If you want to listen to entire comments and answers to the questions, log on to the Wyoming Area website at www.wyomingarea.org.

With no further questions the meeting was adjourned at 8:43 p.m. on a motion by Mr. Supey, second by Mr. Campenni.
