

CES Intermediate Student Spotlight
January, 2024

Sophie Galbraith

Sophie is deserving of the empathy award because she is very considerate of others. You can often see her trying to understand before she speaks, and this is a rare quality in elementary students. Sophie cares about the well-being of her classmates and is always the first to offer a kind hug.