TK and Kindergarten

Mrs. Tinnin

Kindergarten students are developing their reading and writing skills, focusing on tricky words such as the, a, all, from, of, and one. They continue to practice writing complete sentences, emphasizing the use of a capital letter at the beginning, proper spacing between words, and appropriate punctuation at the end.

In math, kindergarteners continue working on addition and subtraction, using number sentences and number bonds to represent and match pictures.

TK students are exploring different habitats, continuing with the pond habitat. They are learning about the animals that live there and how to identify the characteristics of various habitats.

TK students are learning the letter sounds for M, A, T, D, E, and O, and practicing writing the corresponding sound pictures for each letter.

In math, TK students are working on writing numbers 0 through 5. They are also learning simple addition problems.

Third and Fourth Grade Classroom

Mrs. Mars

Students spent time this week going over the water quality test results we got on Friday. We are pleased to say the river is in very healthy shape and was ready for the 1st and 2nd graders to release their salmon this week. They are now preparing their slides and practicing their public speaking skills for their presentation at the GREEN Congress in March.

First and Second Grade Explorers

Mrs. Mittge

This year's batch of salmon did not make the trip from our aquarium to the creek as successfully as in year's past so we released the babies we had and took a trek along the trail to see where our salmon might spawn in a couple years. We will miss watching our little fish zip around our aquarium but they should be happy in their new home in Olequa Creek until they can make the trek to the ocean.

Students studied what sense organs are and how they work this week. They then traced super heroes and made a model of the nervous system.

Friday we used our learning game time to use Ozobots. These little machines will be used to introduce robots and coding to our students.

Fifth and Sixth Grade Classroom

Mr. Burlingame

Thank you to everyone who supports Evaline through helping organize our activities, donating money to the booster club or other activities, donating their time participating in contest judging or running parties, or any of the many other ways you show your support. You are very much appreciated by the students and staff at our little school. They say it takes a village to raise a child and our "village" is very much a part of the growth, learning, and fun our students get during their time at Evaline.

Cispus Parents Meeting!

Thank you to the parents who were able to attend the Cispus Parents Meeting. If you were not able to attend but still have questions about Cispus, please contact me at (360) 785-3460 or at sburlingame@evalinesd.k12.wa.us.

February's Character Trait of the Month - Perseverance - SEL Teacher Mrs. Duren

Each February we focus on Perseverance — "The ability to work through situations even when there are obstacles or challenges in the way." Our students have many different opportunities during this month to apply what they have learned regarding persevering, including tackling new math and writing skills as second semester gets going, focusing on Accelerated Reader goals they have made for the year especially as we move toward our upcoming schoolwide Read-A-Thon, or doing their best while participating in district testing. Perhaps this is a time when students begin to think about their goals they are making regarding activities occurring outside of the school day such as regarding music, sports, or animal related hobbies or interests.

At Evaline, due to our lengthy community based history, we are oftentimes able to connect many character traits which they are applying to their experiences now to experiences past classmates have experienced as well, connecting our generational experiences one moment at a time. One example of doing this earlier in the month was when we focused on our 100th day of School, and were able to discuss what perseverance looked and felt like not only for ourselves in 2026, but also for students and staff who were here 100 years ago as well. In our older classes we discussed what it would have been like to be a student at Evaline during difficult and uncertain times such as during the Depression, or war time. This led to not just thoughts regarding the perseverance they must have had to rely on to get through those hard times, but also led to feelings of respect and empathy from some of our students regarding those past students and their experiences.

This is a photo of the Evaline Baseball Team in about 1926, and next to it is a photo of a group of Evaline students from 2026 who dressed up to look like the way they think their 100 year old selves would look like today.

Another tradition that we have had at Evaline which also assists students in better understanding the character traits of perseverance and empathy is the all school reenactment of the folk story entitled Stone Soup, which we are currently preparing for. Many versions of this story have been retold in many countries over the years, with several of the more popular ones being centered in Asian countries. The gist of the story is that a small group of strangers arrive in a poor town and people are initially reluctant to include them or to share what they have with them due to previous bad experiences they have had. The strangers convince the townspeople to each share just something small to a boiling pot of water and stones which eventually creates a large delicious container of soup that they can all share. For our re-enactment, we ask families to donate small food items if they are able toward making our own stone soup. Each class has the opportunity to read and do activities related to the story prior to the meal with their classmates, and we eat the meal in the lunchroom with random students finding one of our washed stones in their soup to further symbolize the experience. We hope that by living out this story, which is filled with so many character traits (including respect, kindness, responsibility, gratitude, creativity, empathy, perseverance, honesty, cooperation and courage), that it will encourage students to continue to strive to be the best students of character that they can be.

Pictured to the left are students participating in our Stone Soup lunch back in January 2024. Be watching for upcoming photos from our 2026 reenactment in future newsletters, where we have also offered the opportunity for Grandparents to attend as well.
