Mrs. Chandler | Week 16 November 27- December 1

What We Are Learning

Reading: I can explain what happens in each stanza of a poem, using text details. I can analyze how a poem's stanzas build on one another to tell a story.

Math: I can measure & estimate liquid volume and mass using standard units of grams, kilograms & liters. I can solve 1-step word problems involving mass or volume. I can fluently multiply/divide within 100 (focus on 0-10).

Language: I can identify and use linking verbs in a sentence.

Writing: I can identify facts and information related to topic and then write complete sentences about that topic.

Homework

Homework sent home Monday 11/27 and is due on Friday.

Please study multiplication facts nightly!!
