

CES Student Spotlight #2
October, 2025

Harper Merriman

Harper shows respect every day in class. She listens carefully, follows directions, and treats her classmates and staff with kindness. She's always ready to participate, help others, and set a great example for her peers. Her positive attitude and polite manners make our school a better place for everyone.