

Randolph County School System “STAR<sup>3</sup> Students” for January 2023

Franklinville Elementary School - Neveah Perez - 1st Grade

Neveah Perez is a genuine, kind, and caring student. She gives 100% effort in her classes and is always willing to collaborate with all other classmates. Neveah is the first to lend a hand in the classroom, both to her teachers and her classmates. She is always positive, works hard, and continues to impress her teachers daily. Neveah is a role model and strives to “SOAR” at Franklinville Elementary, as she is safe, shows ownership, is attentive, and is respectful. Franklinville Elementary School is proud to recognize Neveah Perez as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Grays Chapel Elementary School - Kale Langley - 4th Grade

Kale Langley is a true example of a STAR<sup>3</sup> Student. He goes above and beyond in his schoolwork and his character is exemplary. He encourages his classmates and always has a smile on his face. If someone is confused, Kale is the first to want to jump in and help. If he thinks someone is left out at recess, he will invite the student to play with him. If Kale thinks someone is left out at lunch, he will sit with the student. Kale is always kind to his classmates in word and deed. He also works hard in the classroom and always gives 100%. When doing schoolwork, he is focused and constantly looks for ways to improve his work. Grays Chapel Elementary School is pleased to recognize Kale Langley as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Level Cross Elementary School - Hunter Atkinson - 3rd Grade

Hunter Atkinson is a wonderful student and a friend to everyone he meets. He lights up any room he enters with his bright smile and positive attitude. Hunter gives his best effort and works hard to meet his goals. Despite challenges, he never gives up or makes excuses. Recently, Hunter was helping another student who was struggling with a math problem. Before he continued with his assignment, Hunter encouraged the other student by saying, “You got this!” He is a true asset to our school and much deserving of this award. Level Cross Elementary School is honored to recognize Hunter Atkinson as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Liberty Elementary School - Hannah Burton - 3rd Grade

Hannah Burton has been working very hard in third grade. She comes to school every day with a “can do” attitude. Even when presented with challenges, Hannah tries her best and does not give up. She is always willing to lend a helping hand to her peers and teachers, shows kindness to everyone around her, and has proven herself to be a fantastic role model. Hannah is respectful and responsible, and arrives at school daily with a big smile and an even bigger heart. Hannah Burton is certainly a star at Liberty Elementary School and deserves recognition as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Northeastern Randolph Middle School - Caroline Wilson - 7th Grade

Caroline Wilson has shown kindness and a caring spirit to her peers in all of her classes. Additionally, she goes above and beyond in the classroom and with the quality of her work and efforts daily. Everything she does and submits exceeds qualifications and expectations. Caroline is a terrific student and overall a genuinely kind person who strives for excellence in all aspects and at all times. It is an honor to have this student at our school and to be able to know and teach her - she is a role model for other students. Northeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to select Caroline Wilson as STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Providence Grove High School - Iris Allred - 12th Grade

Iris Allred is a model student who always works with determination and focus. She quietly performs her complex French IV tasks and verifies that her work is accurately completed. With grace and maturity beyond the normal, Iris focuses on doing her best and achieving success in her academic and artistic goals. She is respectful to her teachers and peers and is willing to help others if they need her. We are proud of Iris Allred and are excited to name her Providence Grove High School’s STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Ramseur Elementary School - Jonathan Gonzalez Garcia - 5th Grade

Jonathan Gonzalez Garcia embodies all of the characteristics of a STAR<sup>3</sup> Student. He continuously demonstrates a high level of dependability in everything he does. Jonathan completes his assignments on time and consistently puts forth his best effort. He is always ready to lend a helping hand in and out of the classroom and holds himself to high standards. Jonathan exhibits a growth mindset whenever he is at school and his positive nature and ability to hold himself accountable is empowering to his peers. He encourages others to also be their best self in and out of the classroom. Ramseur Elementary School is excited to recognize Jonathan Gonzalez Garcia as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman Elementary School - Trey Six - 4th Grade

Trey Six is a great all-around student and person. He is kind, encouraging, hard-working, and a leader in everything he does. No matter what is set in front of him, Trey gives his very best and constantly pushes himself each and every day. He seeks opportunities to support other students and he is trusted by staff and students alike to complete important tasks. Trey is an academic leader, while always finding ways to help his classmates and teachers. He consistently goes above and beyond each day to do his very best and to be a kind, inclusive friend. Trey's caring heart, work ethic, determination, and kindness make us proud to name him Randleman Elementary School's STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman High School - Stephanie Diaz Ramos - 12th Grade

Stephanie Diaz Ramos is a hardworking, dedicated young student. She is a key member of HOSA and an integral part of our yearbook staff, and maintains a strong academic performance. At our school’s Veterans Day Appreciation Ceremony this past November, Stephanie touched everyone’s hearts and helped the entire audience recognize the importance of honoring our veterans with her heartfelt speech. In addition to her success in the classroom and her leadership roles in organizations, Stephanie is an ambitious student who has created and runs her own baking business. She meets challenges with dedication and a strong work ethic. We know that she will be successful beyond high school because of the perseverance, skills, and talents she has showcased at our school. Randleman High School is proud to recognize Stephanie Diaz Ramos as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.

Randleman Middle School - Hailey Bowman - 7th Grade

In her role as a media assistant, Hailey Bowman is conscientious and willing to help in any capacity needed. Self-motivated, independent, and hardworking are some of the words staff use to describe Hailey. She is a quick learner, and as a media assistant, she is capable of handling day to day activities in the media center, even in the media specialist's absence. Hailey is also a valuable member and unofficial leader of our "Battle of the Books" team. She encourages her teammates and holds everyone accountable to read and re-read the books. Academically, Hailey achieves at high levels and is a classroom leader. She is an active member of Beta Cub, where she volunteers for service projects and serves on various committees. Randleman Middle School is proud to select Hailey Bowman as our STAR<sup>3</sup> Student for January.
