Hoodie Policy for Grades 6-12

Academic success and safety of our scholars are top priorities for Williamsburg County School District. The Hoodie Policy sets the standard for an environment that is safe and conducive to learning.

I. Hoodie Policy for Grades 6-12

A. Garments with an exposed hood (hoodies, jackets, coats, etc.) are not to be worn in the building at any time. Students must remove garments with an exposed hood whenever they enter the building. This does not apply to extracurricular games and activities. Violations of this policy will lead to disciplinary action.
