ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP

Section 18.1.

The employer shall deduct PSE state dues from the pay of any employee who authorized such deductions in writing pursuant to RCW 41.56.110. The Employer shall transmit all such funds deducted to the treasurer of the Public School Employees of Washington. Transmissions will include payments and an electronic list of all represented employees with deduction amounts. Transactions will be received by the first Monday following payroll. Submissions are to include all employees covered by the Collective Bargaining Agreement. A dues remittance form needs to accompany the payment every month and include membership status changes.

An employee’s written, electronic, or recorded voice authorization to have the employer deduct membership dues from the employee’s salary must be made by the employee to Public School Employees of Washington (PSE). If the employer receives a request for authorization of deductions, the employer shall as soon as practicable forward the request to PSE.

Section 18.2.

Upon receiving notice of the employee’s authorization from PSE, the employer shall deduct from the employee’s salary membership dues and remit the amounts to PSE by the first Monday following payroll.

Section 18.3.

The employee’s authorization remains in effect until expressly revoked by the employee in accordance with the terms and conditions of the authorization. An employee’s request to revoke authorization for payroll deductions must be in writing and submitted by the employee to PSE in accordance with the terms and conditions of the authorization. Revocations will not be accepted by the employer if the authorization is not obtained by the employee to PSE. After the employer receives confirmation from the exclusive bargaining representative that the employee has revoked authorization for deductions, the employer shall end the deduction effective on the first payroll after receipt of the confirmation. The employer shall rely on information provided by the exclusive bargaining representative regarding the authorization and revocation of deductions.

PSE will be the custodian of the records related to dues authorization and agrees that, as the custodian of the records, it has the responsibility to ensure the accuracy and safe-keeping of those records.

Section 18.4. COPE (Political Action Committee).

The District shall, upon receipt of written or voice authorization that conforms to legal requirements, deduct from the pay of such bargaining unit employee the amount of contribution the employee voluntarily chooses for deduction for political purposes and shall transmit the same to the Association. Section 19.2.1. (STEP ONE – VERBAL)

The employee shall first discuss the grievance with his immediate supervisor. If the employee wishes, he may be accompanied by an Association representative at such discussion. All grievances not brought to the immediate supervisor in accordance with the preceding sentence within fifteen (15) working days of the occurrence of the grievance shall be invalid and subject to no further processing.

Section 19.2.2. (STEP TWO - WRITTEN)

If the grievance is not resolved to the employee's satisfaction in accordance with the preceding subsection, the employee shall reduce to writing a statement of the grievance containing the following:

- A. The facts on which the grievance is based;
- B. A reference to the provisions in this agreement which have been allegedly violated; and
- C. The remedy sought.

The employee shall submit the written statement of grievance to their immediate supervisor for reconsideration within fifteen (15) working days of the Step One discussion and shall submit a copy to the official in the administration responsible for personnel. The parties will have five (5) working days from submission of the written statement of grievance to resolve it by indicating on the statement of grievance the disposition. If an agreeable disposition is made, all parties to the grievance shall sign it.

Section 19.2.3. (STEP THREE – SUPERINTENDENT)

If no settlement has been reached within the five (5) days referred to in the preceding subsection, and the Association believes the grievance to be valid, a written statement of grievance shall be submitted within fifteen (15) working days to the District superintendent or the superintendent's designee. After such submission, the parties will have ten (10) working days to the District superintendent or his designee to resolve it by indicating on the statement of grievance the disposition. If no settlement has been reached within the ten (10) days referred to in the preceding subsection, and the Association believes the grievance to be valid, a written statement of grievance shall be submitted within fifteen (15) working days to the District board of directors. After such submission, the parties will have thirty (30) working days from submission of the 3 board of directors reserves the right to summon the employee for an oral statement of the 4 grievance. The employee reserves the right to appear before the board of directors to explain

9 If no settlement has been reached within the thirty (30) days referred to in the preceding
10 subsection, and the Association believes the grievance to be valid, the employee may demand
11 arbitration of the grievance. Any grievance arising out of or relating to the interpretation or the 12 application of this agreement shall then be submitted to the Public Employment Relations
13 Commission. During arbitration under this provision, neither the District nor the grievant will
14 be permitted to assert any grounds not previously disclosed to the other party. The arbitrator
15 shall be mutually agreed upon by the Union and the District. Should there be any fee charged
16 for use of the arbitrator, the Union and the District agree to equally split this cost. The 17 arbitrator shall have the authority to interpret this agreement but shall not be authorized to 18 modify or add to the agreement. The parties further agree to accept the arbitrator's award as
