1999 Leonine Dedicated to:

Mrs. Debra Elarbee

Yearbook Sponsor – 1975 to 1998

This is just a small token of our appreciation for your many years of dedication to the Central High School yearbook. Your devotion to the students of C.H.S. is evident in the pages of the yearbook, which, for you, was a labor of love. When we decided to have a dedication for the 1999 yearbook, there was really only one person we considered – that was you. Even though you are no longer the sponsor of the yearbook, your influence and presence is felt by all of us. For us, there was no choice to be made! So, we dedicate the 1999 Leonine to Mrs. Debra Elarbee. We Love You!!

YOU LOST WHAT!?!?

" Debra Elarbee is the best of the best as far as friends go and I'm lucky because she's one of mine!! "

- Gayle Murrow

Mrs. Murrow, Mrs. Elarbee, Mrs. Wilkins, Ms. Treadaway

She is an inspiration in many ways. She is such an outstanding part of the CHS family. Her years of time and effort spent on the yearbook are testimony to her affection and dedication to our students. We are lucky to have people like Debra Elarbee at Central.

- Scott Cowart, former yearbook staff member and current principal

This group of eighth, ninth, and tenth grade girls was an extremely hard working bunch. Some of the girls had to play a position that they were not accustomed to and they did a great job, especially Rebecca Vinson playing catcher and Michelle Shinn at shortstop. Marisa Harris was their lone pitcher and did a fantastic job pitching every game. They came in second place at their own JV Tourney. Their record was 9-2 and they came in third place in the region.

How hard would you play today if you knew there was no tomorrow?

In Memory of . . .

Today, we gather here to express our extreme grief for Fungo P. Rodder. F.P. Rodder was respected by many but liked by few. This spot today will be remembered always in memory of the great Fungo P. Rodder.

F.P. was a great companion of Coach Kay. He didn't have much to say but F.P. laid the [beat] down on those who are weak. But because of my neglect, F.P.'s days were shortened. Today I feel much regret for not showing my respect toward F.P. for, on his last moments, he laid the [beat] down on all the infielders including myself. I should have been tougher--I should have been a man.

We will forever remember and respect you, F.P.
Jonathan Stamps

Rest + in peace,
F.P.

Words can't describe how unique you are;
We've always known that you would go far,

Your personality shines and all who know you,
See the care and pride in all that you do,

You're a high achiever, won't settle for less,
No doubt in our minds that you are the best,

Your stubbornness, spunk and spitfire attitude,
Will ensure you success, you'll never lose,

With you as a daughter, I was truly blessed,
To me you're a star that outshines the rest,

You're special, comical and sweet as can be;
My daughter, my friend - you're everything to me.

Dearest Mary,

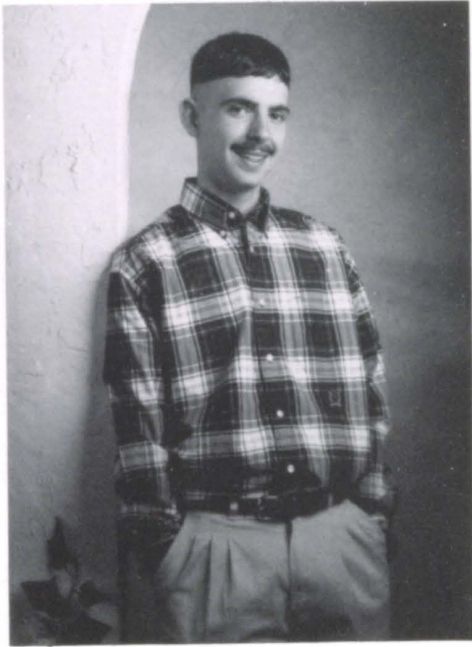

It seems like it was just yesterday when your dad and I stood over you in your crib and watched you while you slept. You were so tiny and dependent, and we had such hopes, dreams, and fears. We thank God for you and the wonderful woman you have become. We just want to thank you for all the cherished memories we have and will have in the future. You have so many exciting times ahead, and we wish you the best for your future.

We love you,

Tommy DeFreitas

*Have A Great Senior Year, Tommy!
Love,
Dad, Mom, & Tara*

Life is mixture of sunshine and rain,
Good things and bad things,
pleasure and pain.
We can't have all sunshine,
But it's certainly true,
There is never a cloud
the sun didn't shine through.
So always remember that whatever befalls you,
And if friends disappoint you,
and plans go astray,
And nothing works out
in just the right way,
And you feel you have failed
in achieving your goal,
And that life wrongly placed you
in an unfitting role, Take heart and "stand tall"
and remember who you are
For God is your father and no one can bar
Or keep you from reaching your desired success,
Or withhold the joy
that is yours to possess.
For with God on your side it matters not who Is working to keep life's good things from you,
For you need nothing more than God's guidance and love To insure you the things that you're worthy of.
So trust in his wisdom
and follow his ways,
And be not concerned with the world's empty praise,
But seek first his kingdom and you will possess
The world's greatest riches, which is true happiness.

Our Daughter

As time will come and go
Sometimes like a distant wind
Our lives see many changes
And we're thankful for true friends

But as we long for wisdom
And search for that distant light
We think of yesterdays
When we watched you sleep at night

And nothing that we touch
In a sometimes lonely world
Will ever mean so much
As the love of our little girl
