With unparalleled understanding . . .

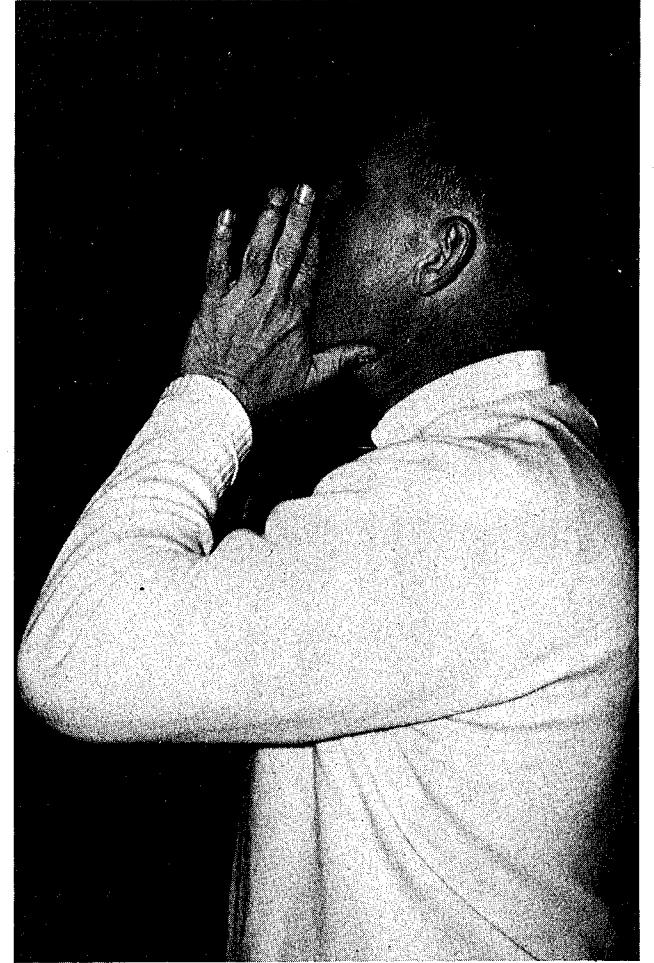

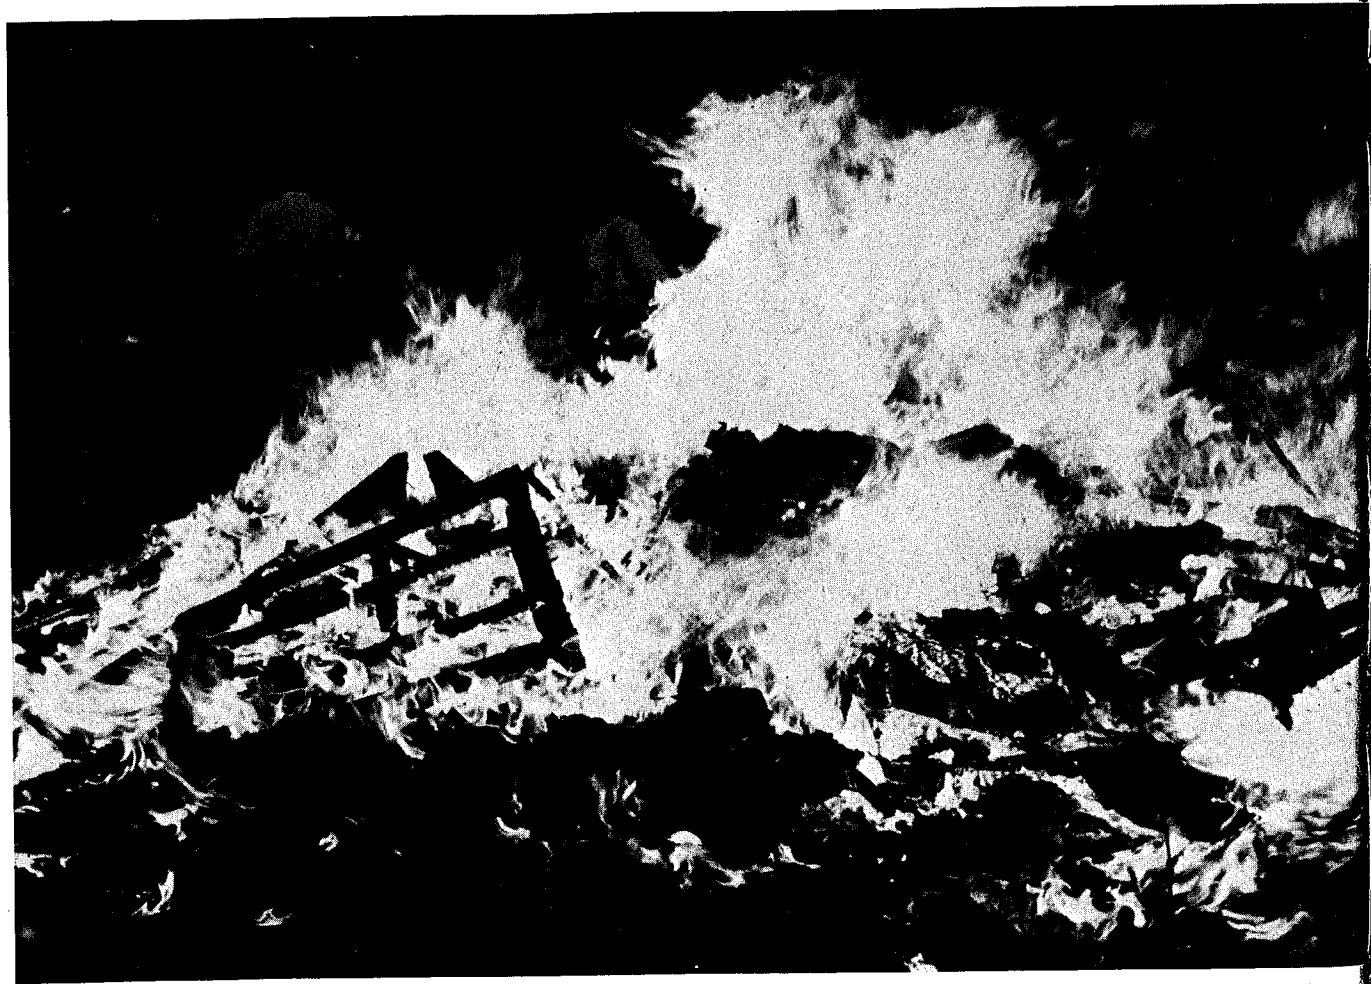

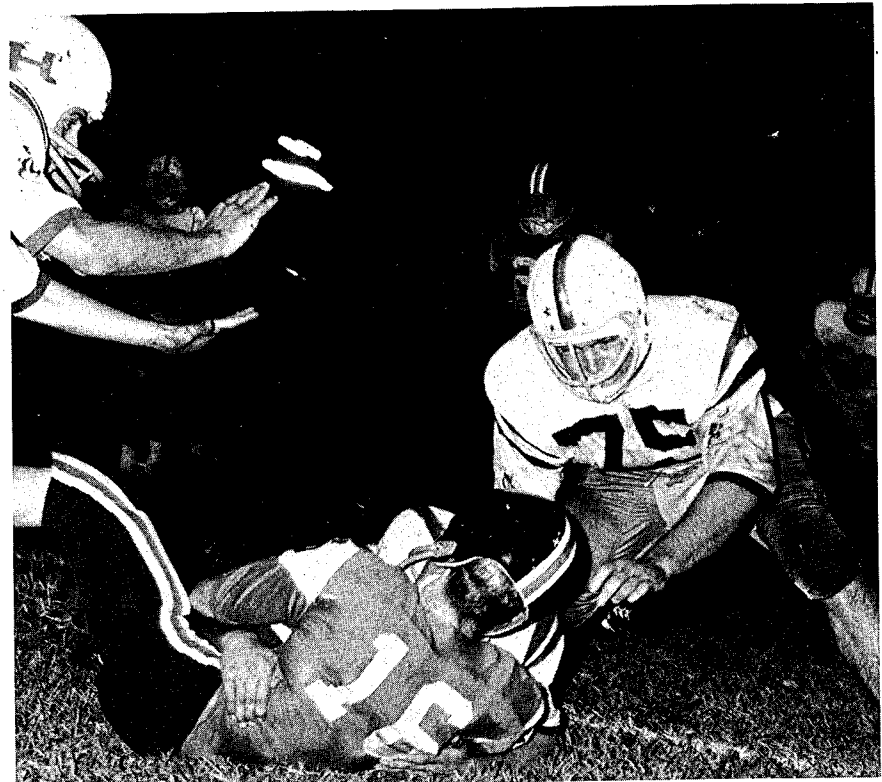

and concern for the welfare of the students, Mr. Joseph Brow is known by students and faculty for fair judgement in education, in personal relationships, and in extra-curricular activities. He often serves as mediator in student-teacher affairs.

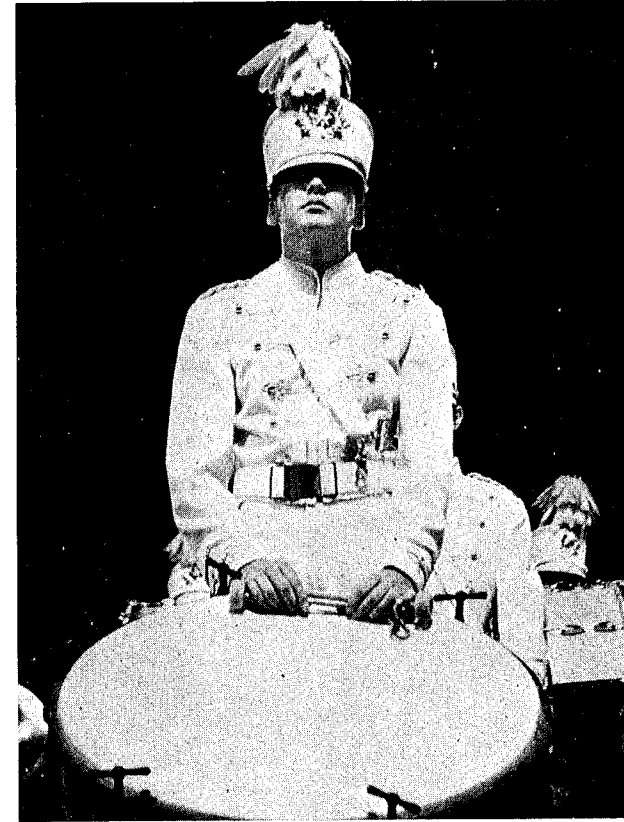

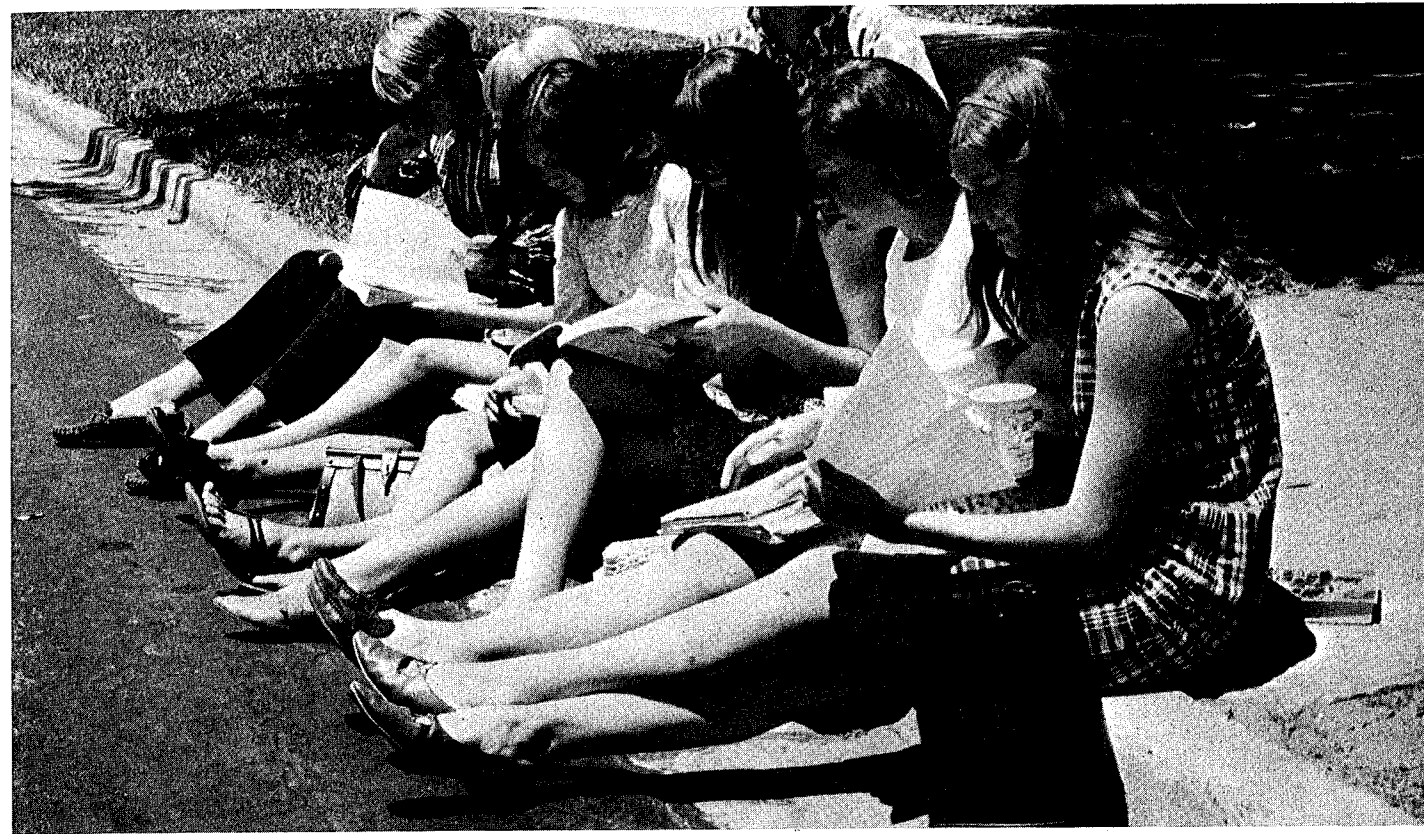

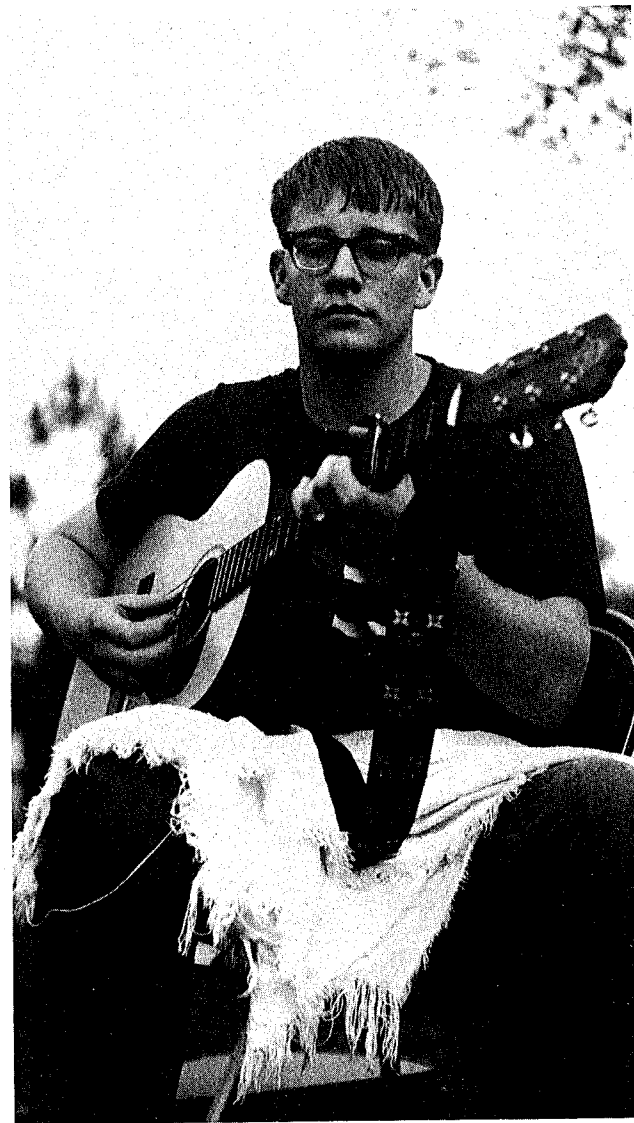

Having taught at LWHS for 14 years, Mr. Brow is active in school projects and civic affairs. A past athletic coach, he takes an avid interest in school sports.

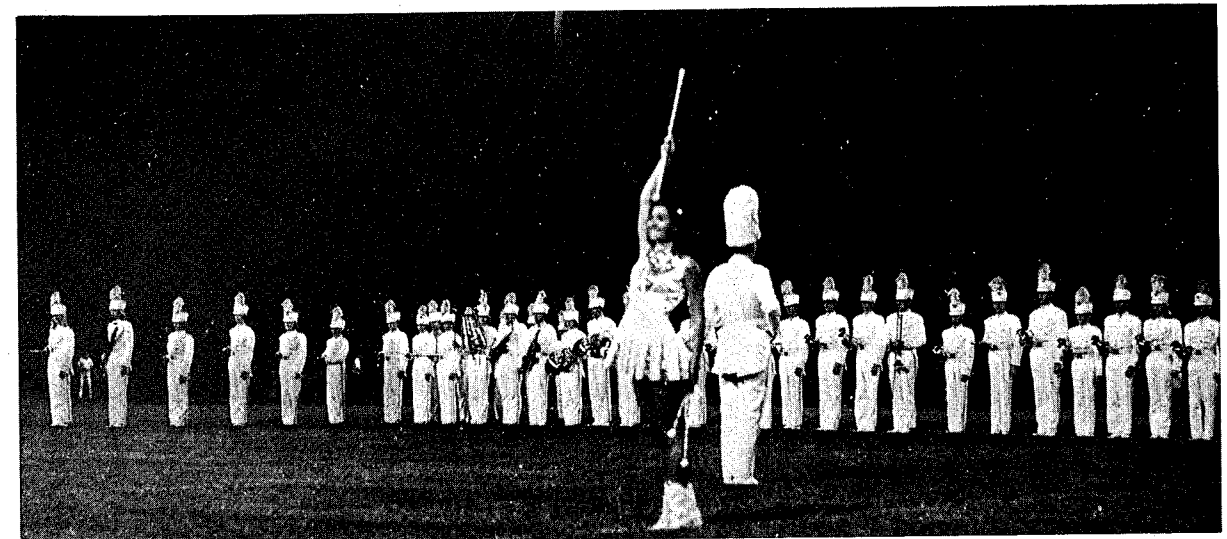

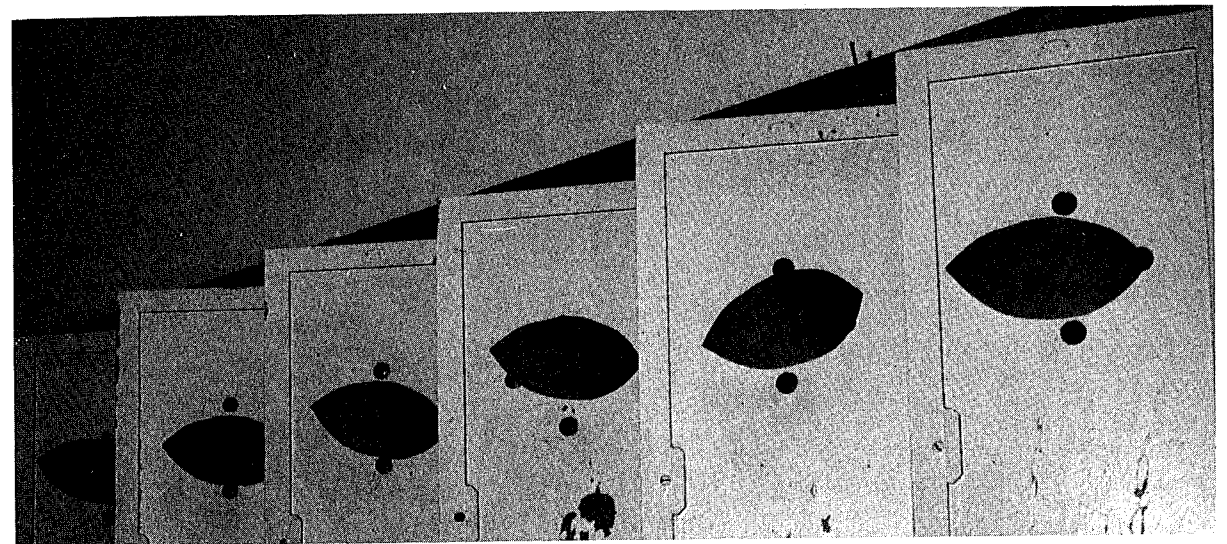

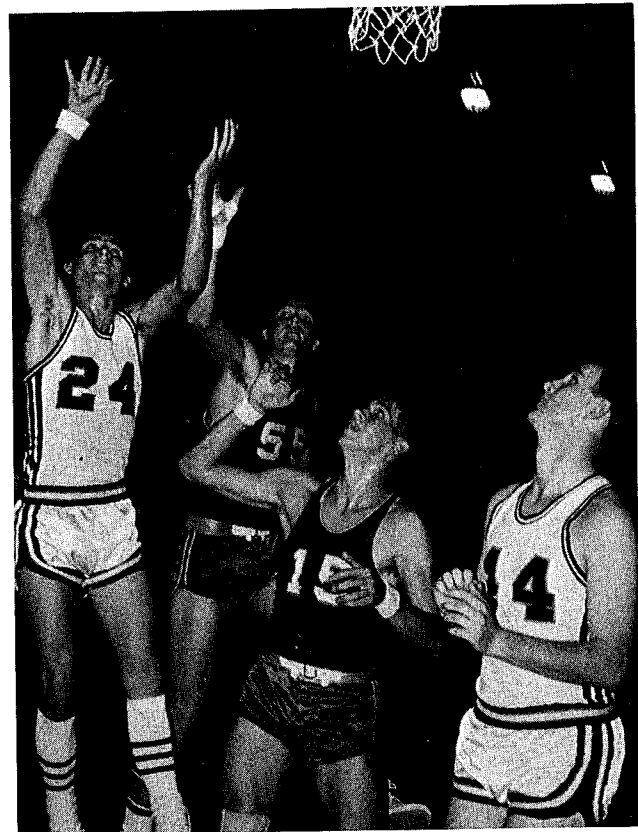

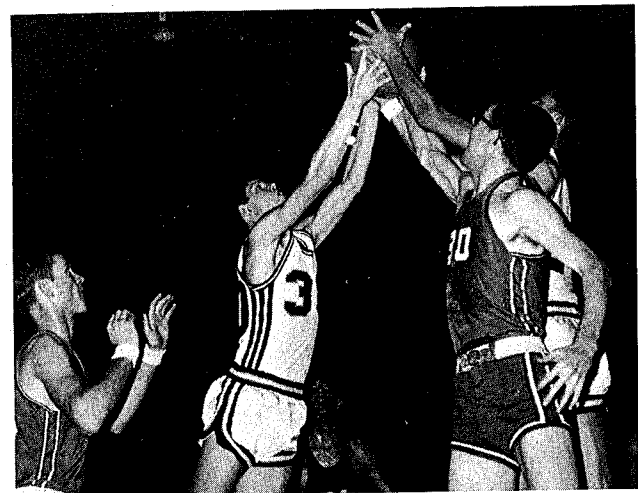

Born in Saginaw, Michigan, he lived in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and attended the University of Wisconsin before coming to Lake Wales. He received his B. S. degree from Florida Southern College and his M. Ed. from Florida Atlantic University. Mr. Brow's activities outside school include being a husband and a father to three boys and a member of the Lake Wales Kiwanis Club.

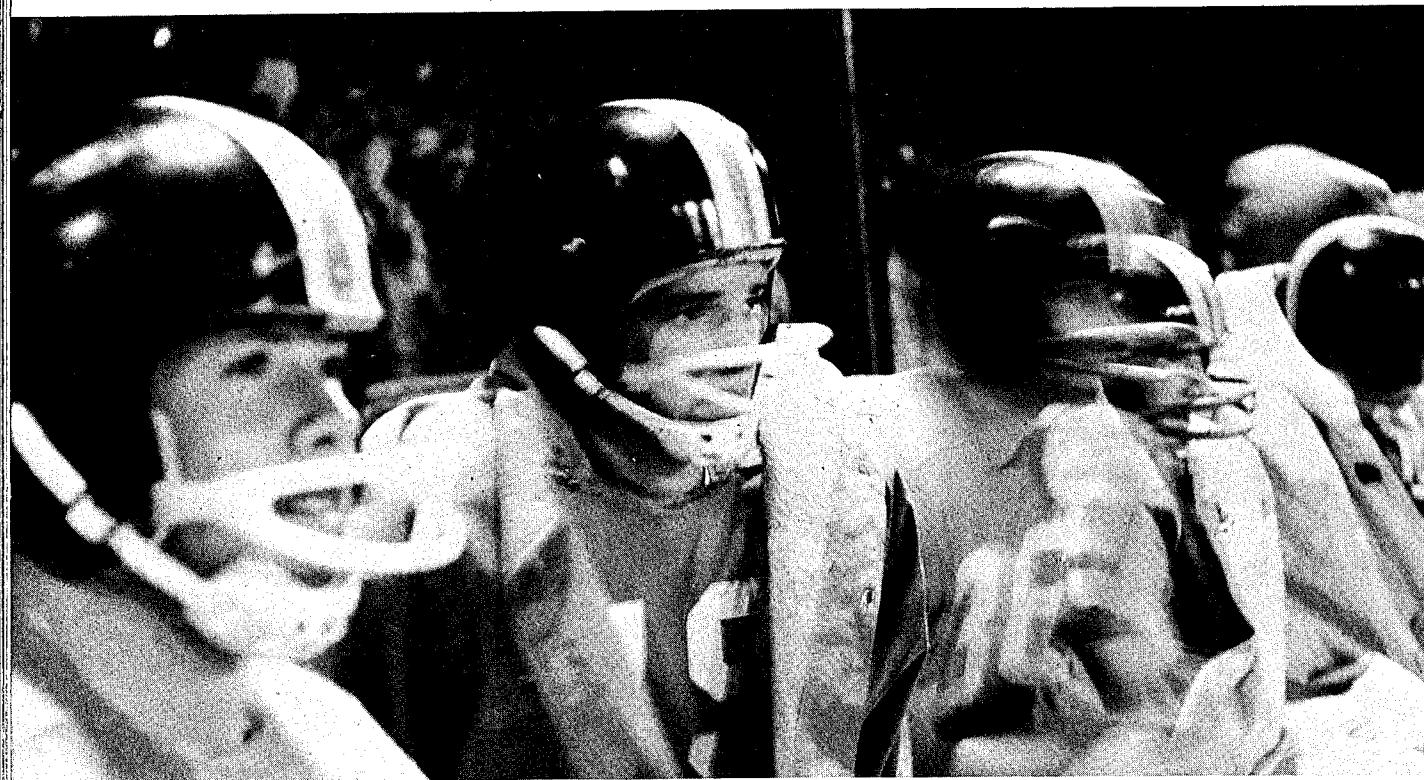

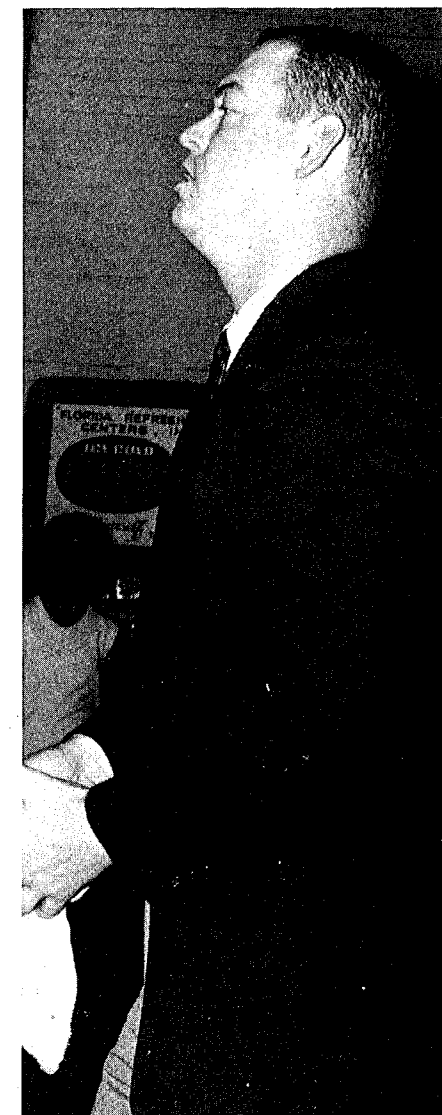

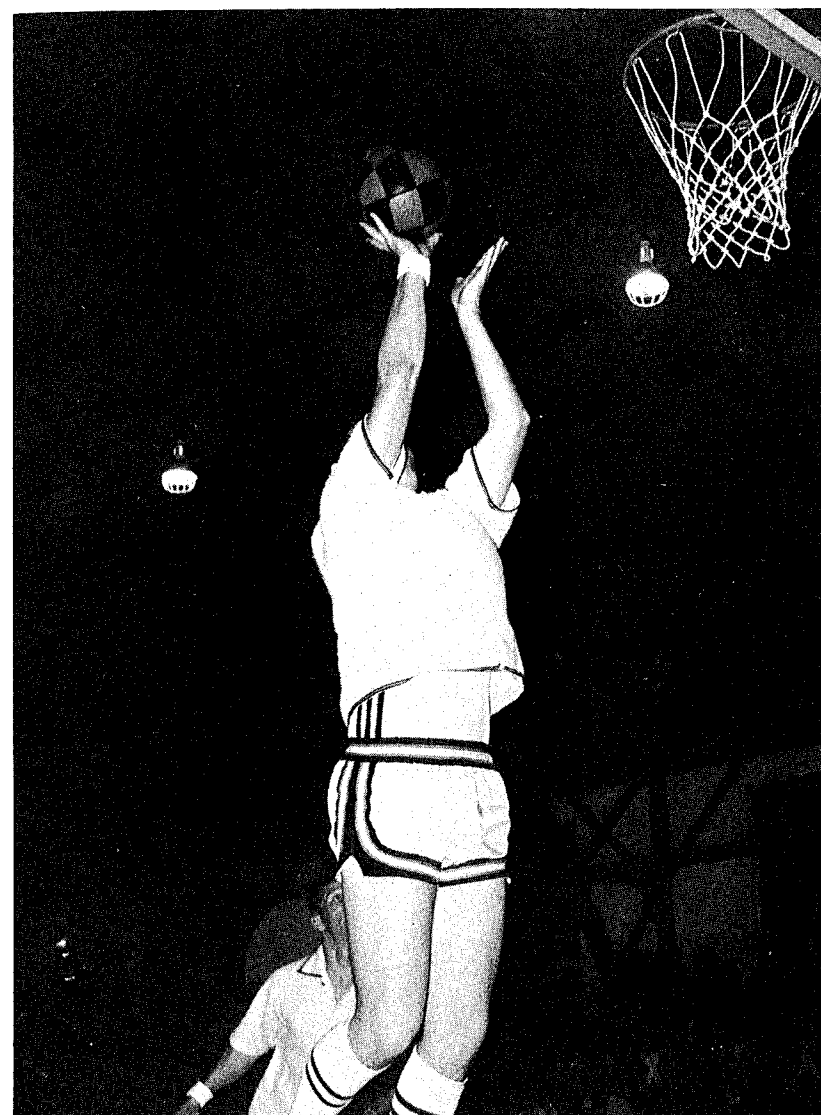

We are proud to dedicate the 1967 Crown Jewel to the Key Club sponsor and assistant principal of LWHS—Mr. Joseph Brow.

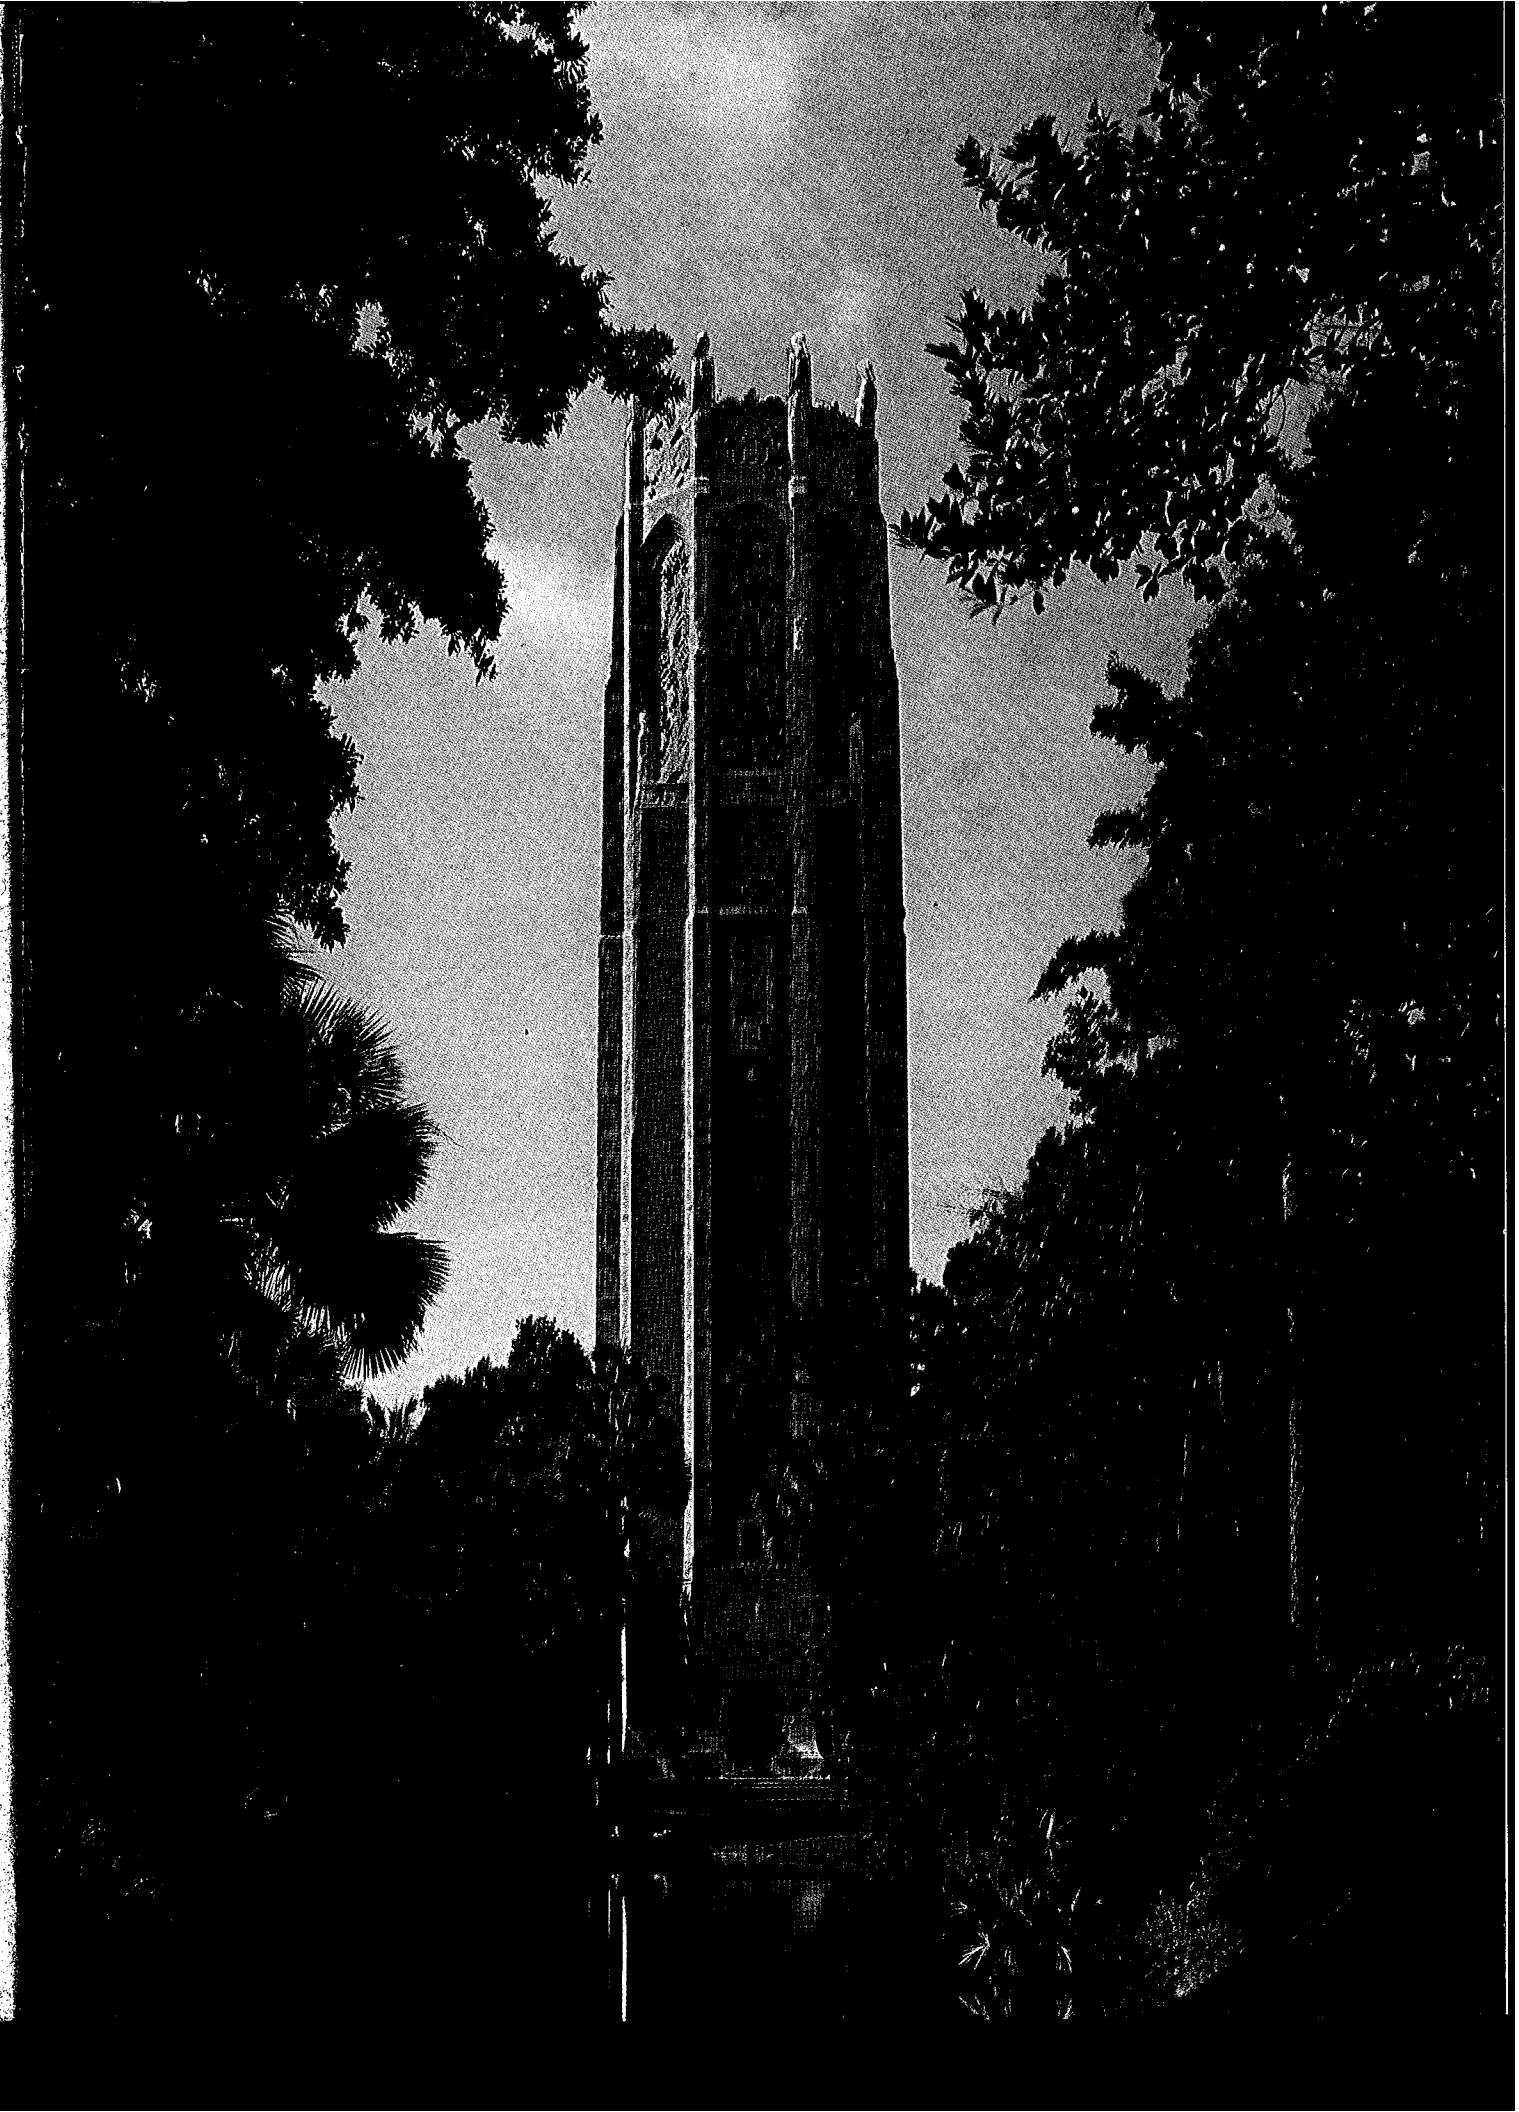

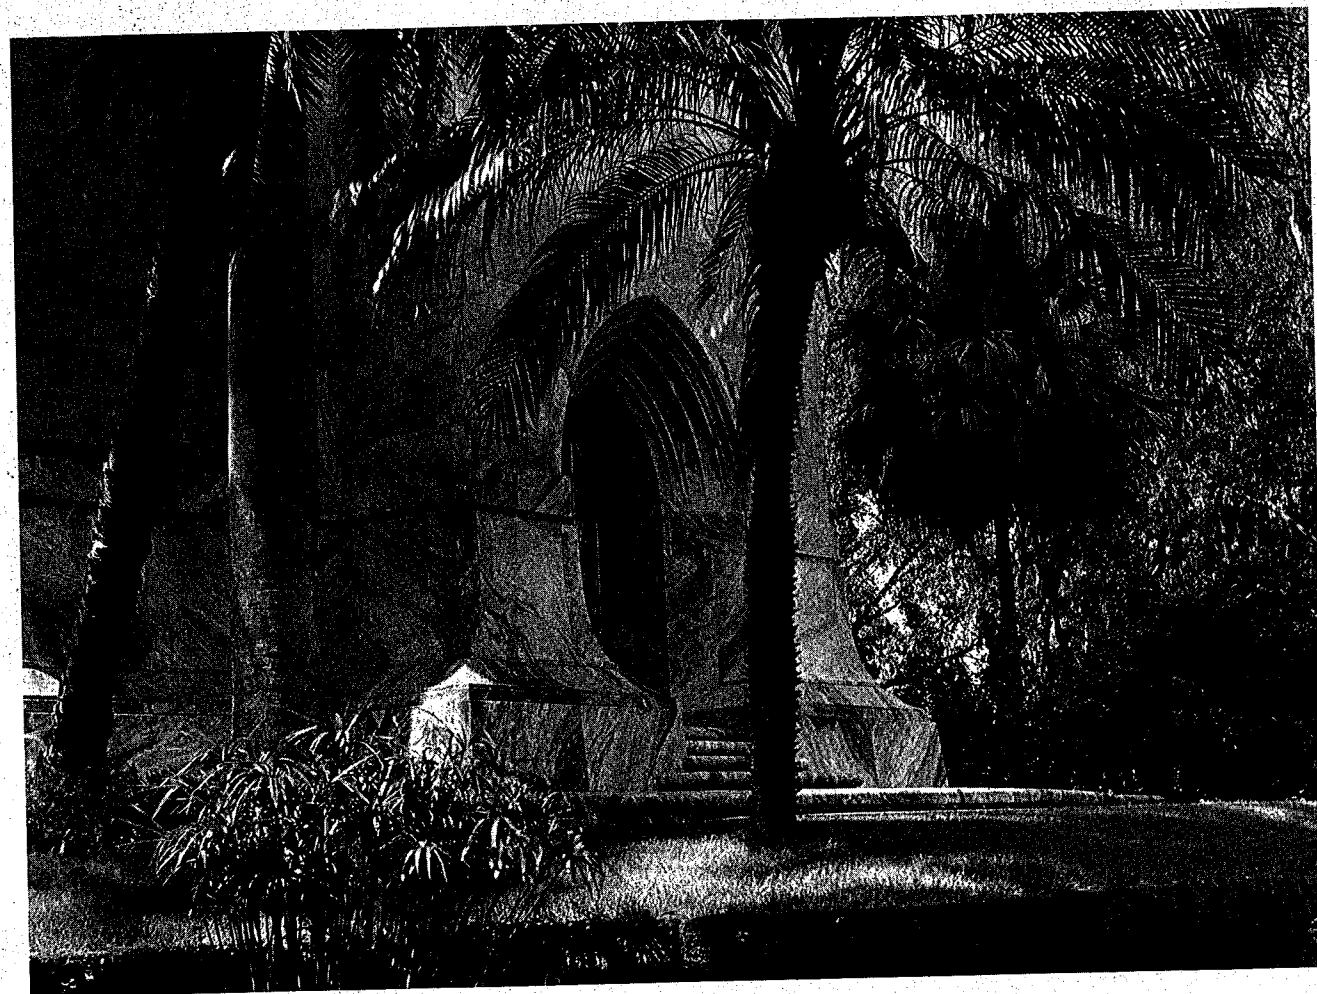

"Wherever your lives may be cast,
Make you the world a bit better or more Beautiful because you have lived in it."
Edward Bok

Administration

Mr. Martin Williamson, supervising principal; Miss Hattie Breedin, administrative assistant; Mr. H. L. Hiers, principal; Mr. Joseph Brow, assistant principal.

Area Secretaries

Mrs. Mabel Bullard, Mrs. Carolyn Stewart

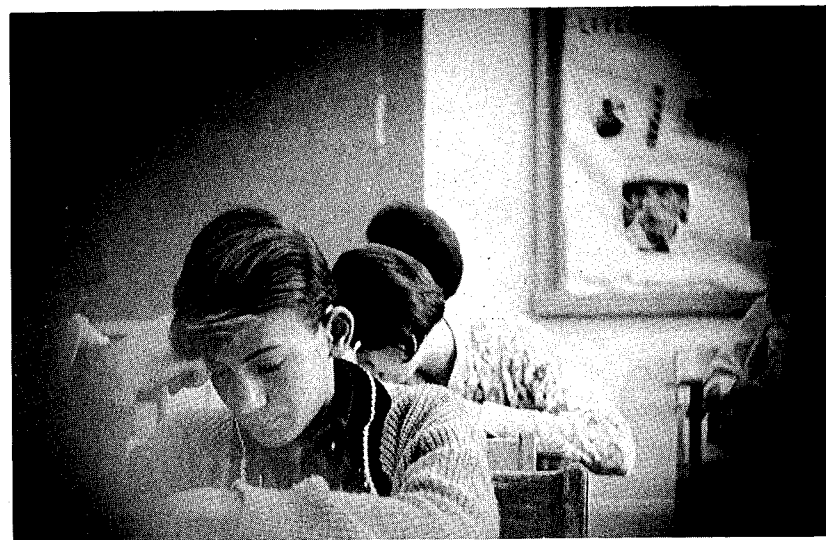

High School Secretaries

Mrs. Jo Ann O'Steen, Mrs. Evelyn May, Mrs. Louise Fugate

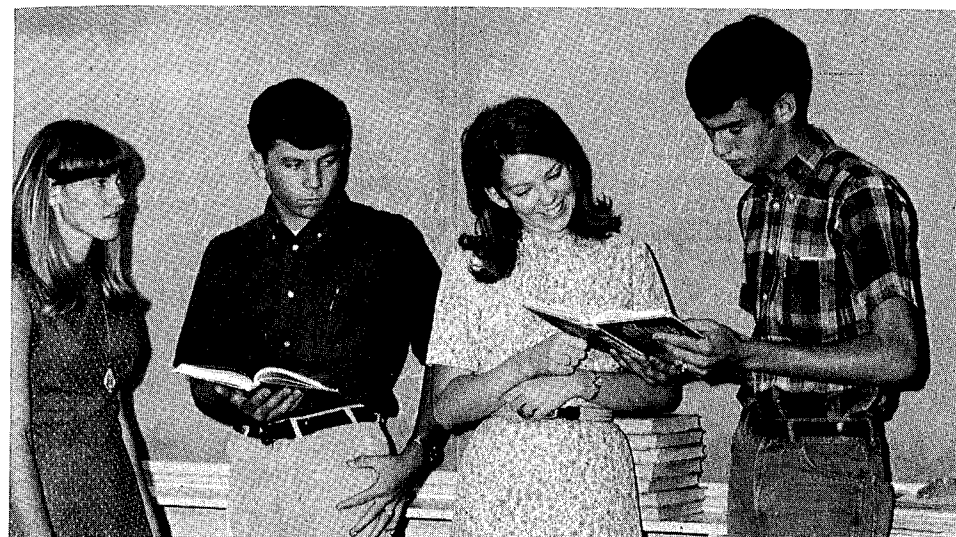

Miss Ellis Baxter, Miss Jeanette Odle, Mr. L. M. Baggett, Miss Colleen Lowery, Mrs. Berta Proctor, Mrs. Gloria Hunt

Communicating . . .

more effectively in both oral and written composition is one of the key aims in the study of English. By providing the student with opportunities to increase his skills in grammar, to develop a knowledge and appreciation of literature and to express his creativity, the English teachers help him reach this goal.

Mrs. Frances Petering, Mrs. Catherine Cotter

Harmony . . .

among nations is aided by the ability to exchange ideas and viewpoints. For this exchange, the ability to communicate is necessary. Our courses in Latin and Spanish provide a basis for understanding foreign languages. These courses offer a study of the customs of the respective countries as well as language mechanics.

Intermingling voices . . .

and blending instruments, all of superior quality, inspire pride and enthusiasm in the students of L.W. H.S. Under the very capable and precise leadership of Mr. Bishop and Mrs. Horne, the band and chorus yield a harmony at once roused or subdued, simply with the raise of an arm or the flick of a wrist.

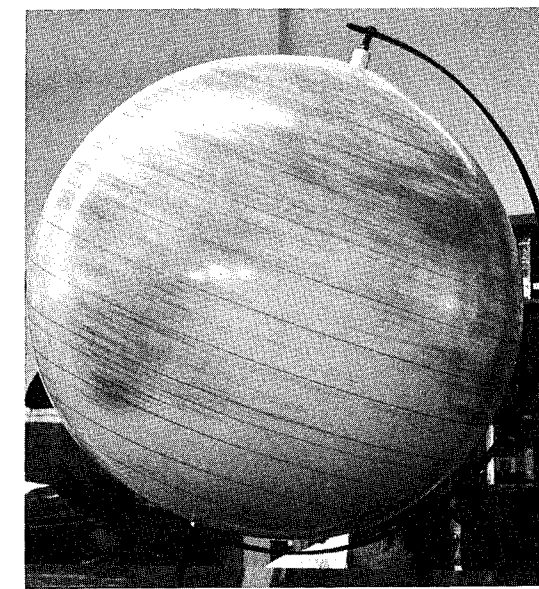

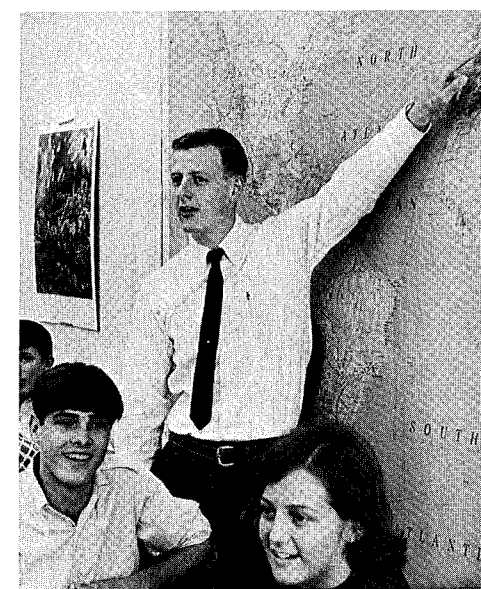

Mrs. Miriam Horne, Mr. Thomas Bishop

The world in which we live . . .

is brought immeasurably closer to us through the courses in social studies. Governments, philosophies, histories, and lives become real and significant as we increase our understanding. Included in the social studies program are courses in the governmental structure and the history of the American nation, in addition to a detailed look at the other peoples of the world.

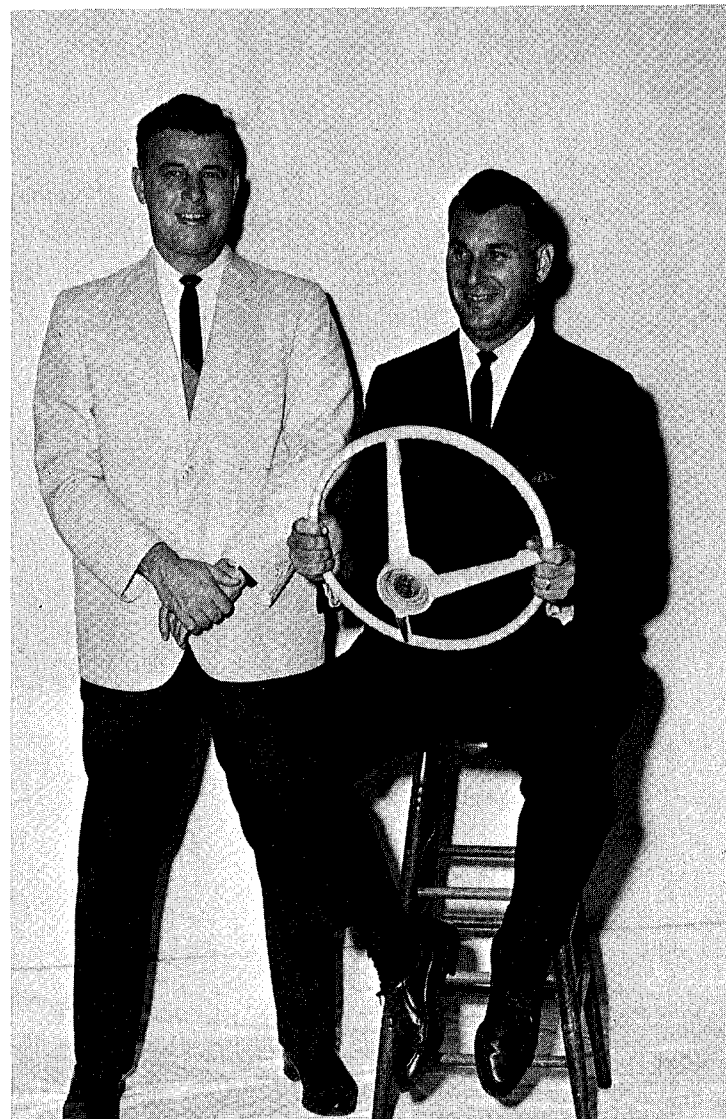

Miss Suzanne Reeb, Mr. Charles Delmar, Miss Babe Warren, Mrs. Lillian Smears

toward the privilege of driving is developed in the driver education class. Through texts, the student gains knowledge of the actual mechanics of the car. From the experiences of manipulating a car through every kind of maneuver, from the operation of blinker signals to the completion of a 3-point turn-around, the foundation for capable driving is formed.

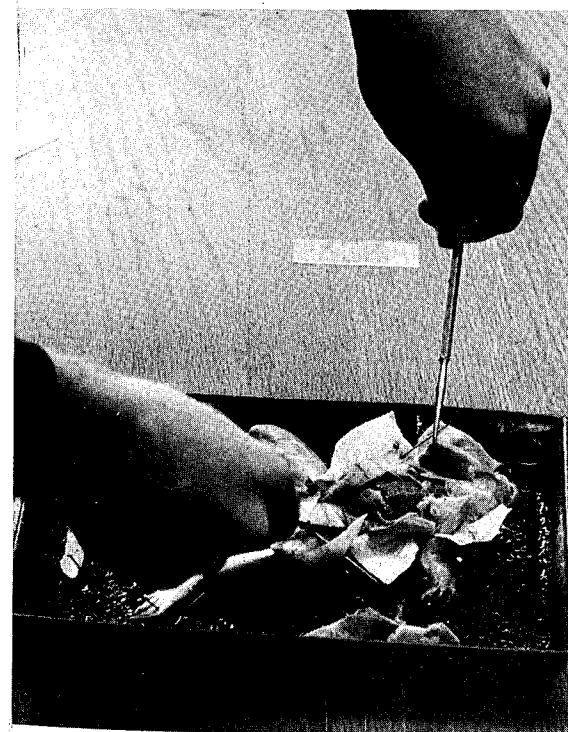

Mr. Wesley Abrams, Mr. Donald Mann

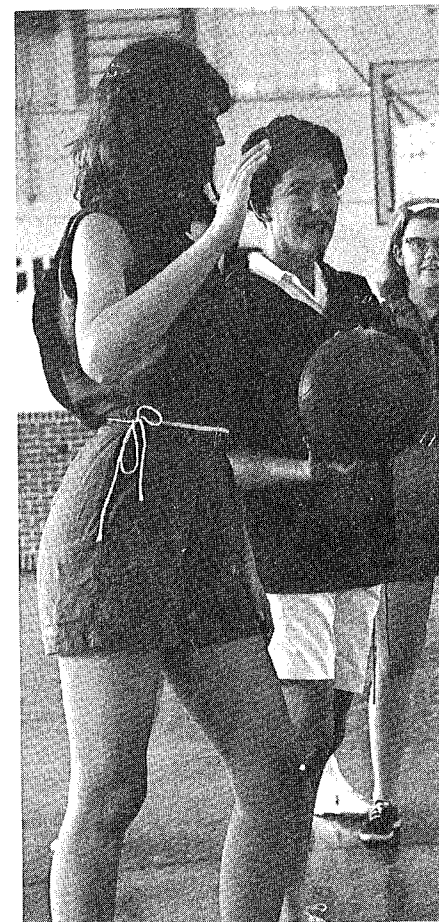

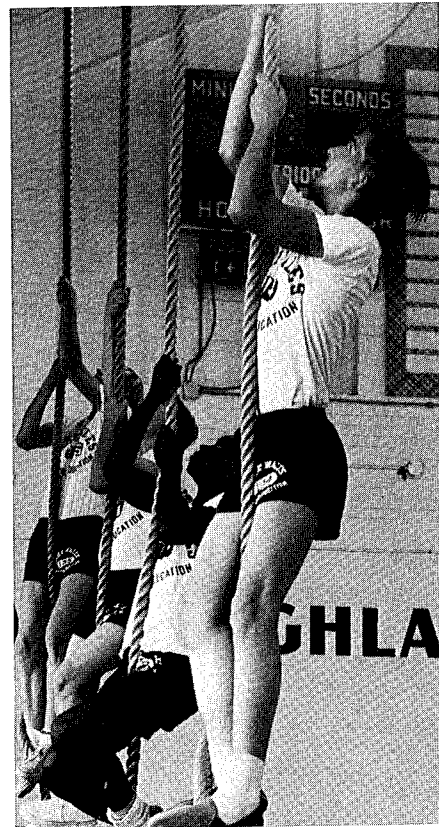

Mr. Carlton Byers, Mr. Joseph Brow, Mrs. Helen Erickson, Mr. James Thornhill

In our technological world, . . .

the study of the fundamentals and the complexities of science is a necessary part of the high school curriculum. Aided by lab experiments, research, and discussion, a scientific inquiry was made into areas ranging from the study of bugs to the principles of electrostatics. Especially challenging and memorable were the insect collections and the hydrogen-sulfide tests. An extra challenge presented to the physics class was that of adjusting to new teachers.

Mr. Robert Alwood, Miss Clarice Galloway, Mr. Dale Fair

and good sportsmanship are promoted in the physical education classes. Through the vigorous exercises, the period of instruction, and the actual competitive participation, the proper abilities and attitudes for enjoying sports are developed.

Miss Nancy Waters, Miss Betty Daniels, Mrs. Nancy Skinner

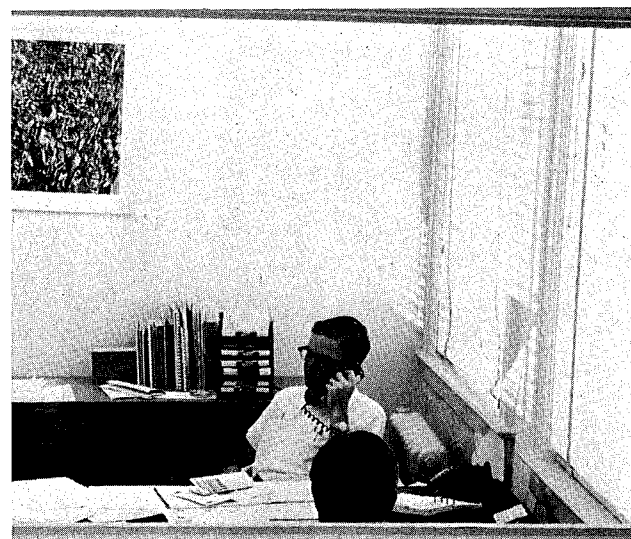

Accuracy and logic . . .

are the keys for accomplishment in mathematics. Working with numbers, symbols, equations, and abstract reasonings presents a difficult challenge. The rewards, however, include not only a genuine satisfaction over an immediate right answer, but also a practical means for solving many future problems.

Mrs. Audrey Kipe, Miss Ola Belle Tillman

Vital to every high school . . .

are the services provided by the library and guidance departments. Whether one is doing research for a theme, tracking down a book by Conrad, learning one's level of achievement, or planning for the future — the way is certainly made easier through the attentive efforts of our librarians and guidance counselors.

Mrs. Joan Sites, Mr. Paul Thompson

The efficient performance . . .

of home and office duties is the goal aimed for by the home economics and business classes. The first seeks to prepare the student for such home functions as food preparation, sewing, interior decoration, and general home planning. The business courses instruct him in typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping. The aim of both fields is the development of practical skills.

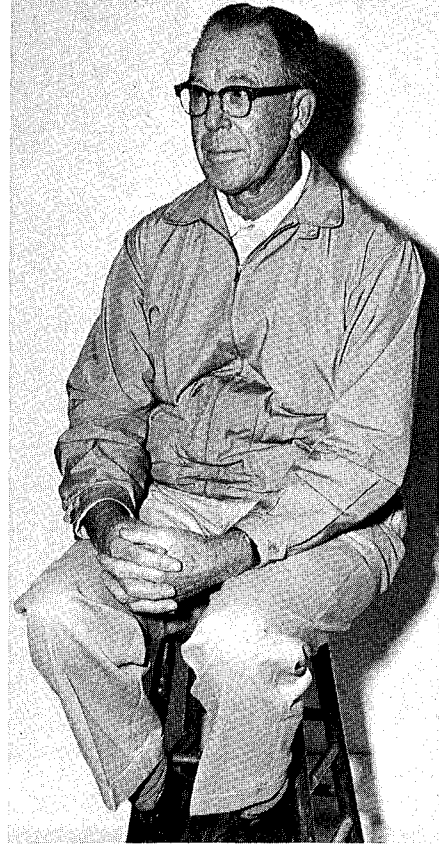

Mrs. Elspeth Smith, Mr. Gary Chastine, Mrs. Evelyn Pierce

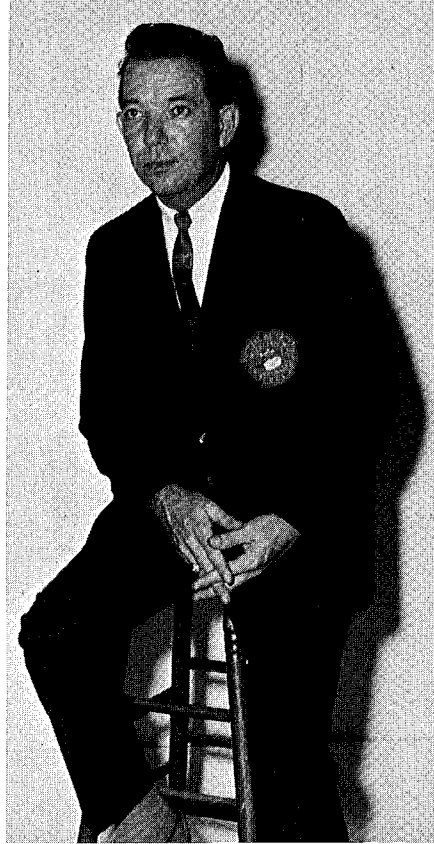

Mrs. Marjorie McDougal, Miss June Dixon

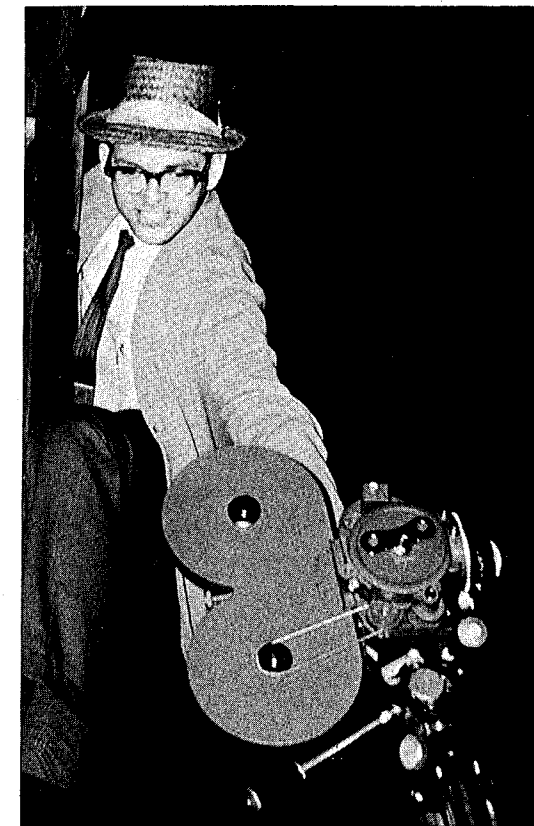

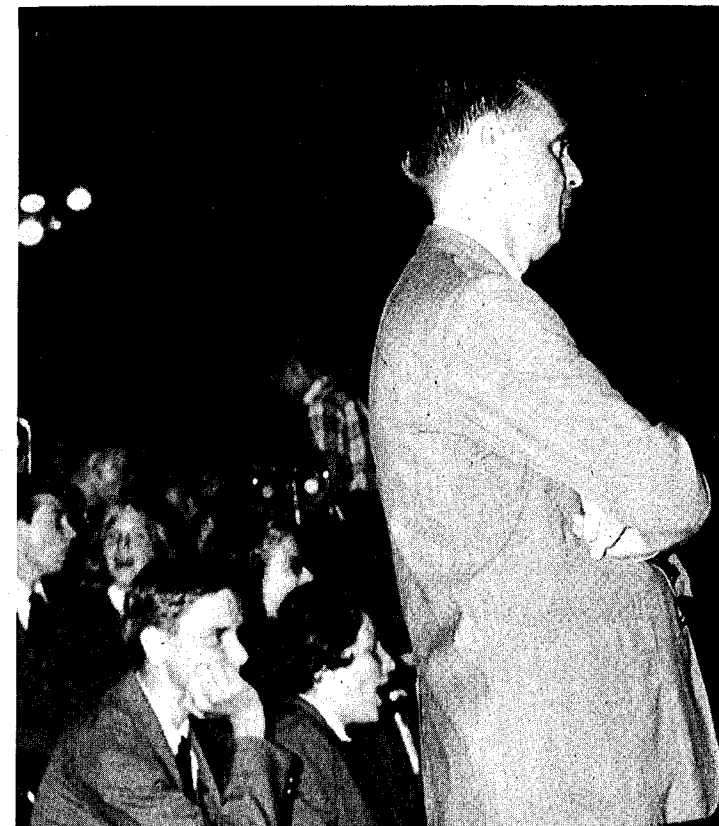

Mr. Malcolm Stover

Mr. James Lane

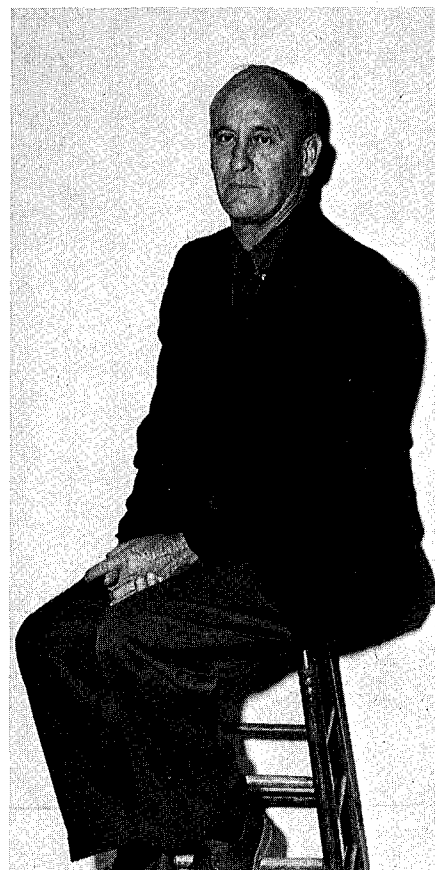

Mr. Leon Perry

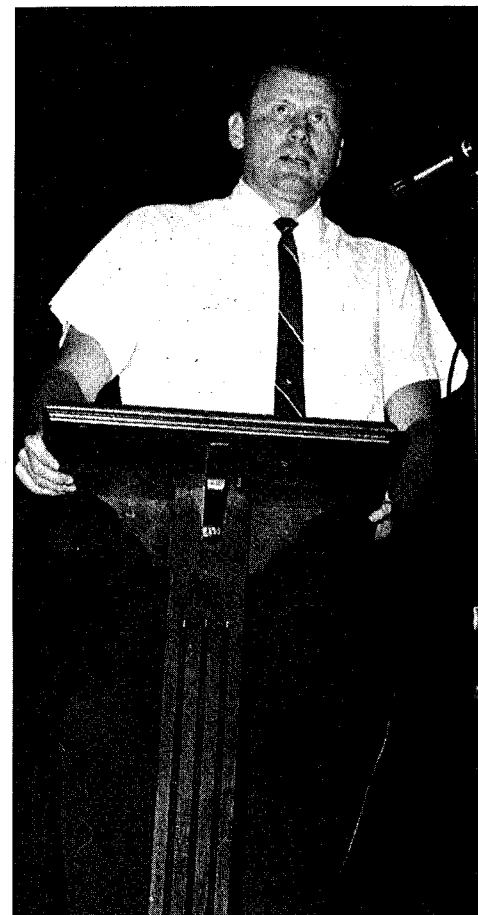

Education through experience . . .

is the approach to learning in the DCT, agricultural, and mechanical drawing classes. Employment in various business concerns, the raising of plants, and the development of technical skills are all aspects of the practical knowledge gained in these courses.

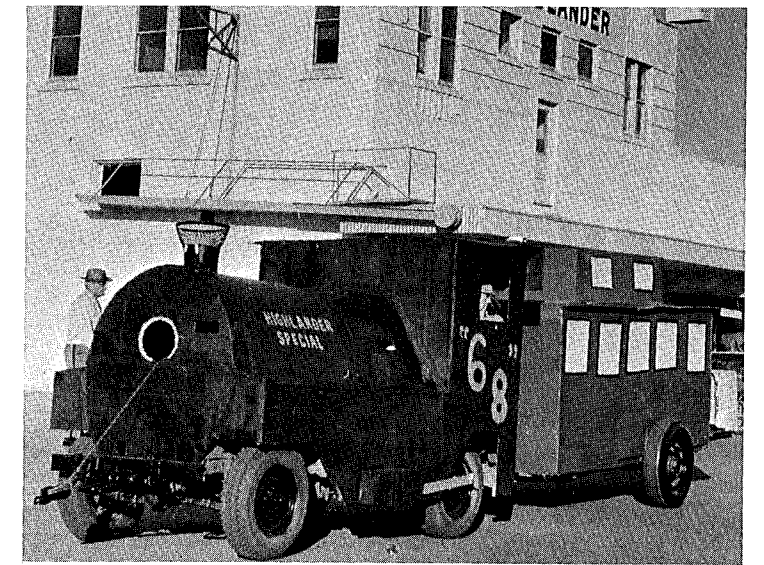

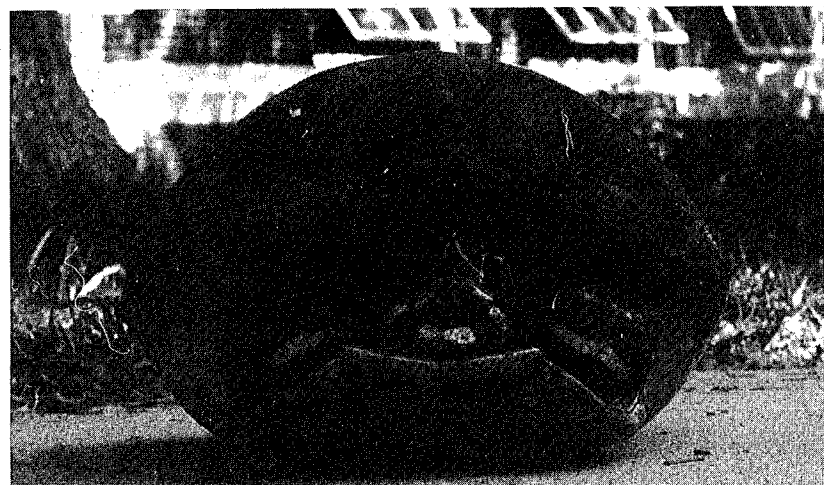

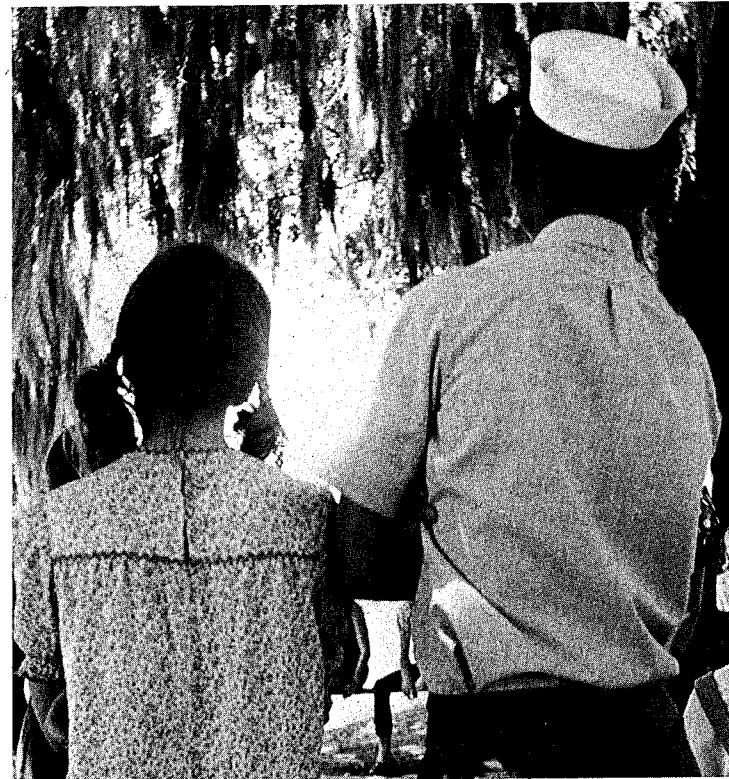

Mr. W. H. Crews

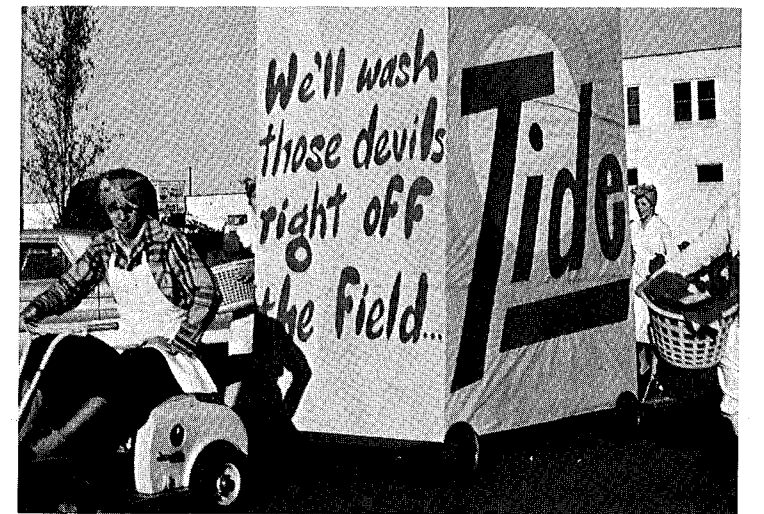

Make you the world a bit better . . .
Because you were involved.

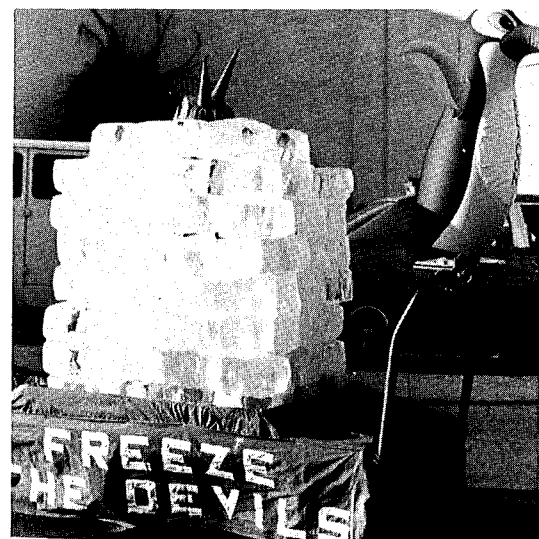

First place — Junior class

Second place — DCT

Taking first place . . .

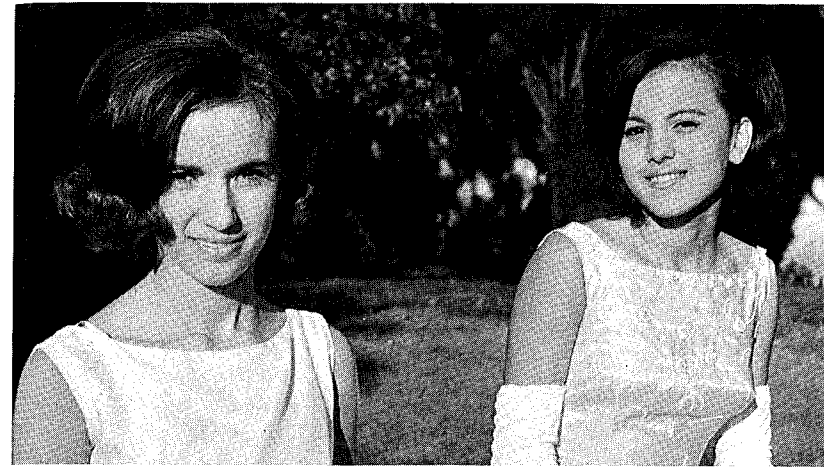

in the Homecoming parade was the Junior class train. Afterwards, Mike Ellis led the snake dance through town. The next day was "Silent Day", "Lick 'em Day", and "Color Day". Students, dressed in orange and black, ate suckers. That night, the Highlander football team defeated Kathleen to make Homecoming, 1966, a true success.

Honorable mention — Beacon Club

Third place — Senior class

Football sponsors — Priscilla Chelette, Stacia Long

Diane Griffith

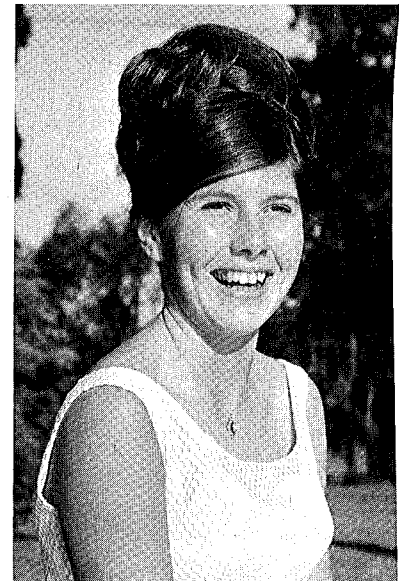

Alexandra Zilahy

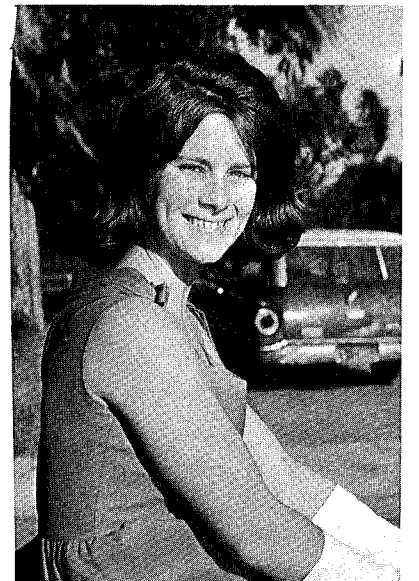

Homecoming Queen — Brenda Barker

Jayne Baker

Amelia Kelly

Gale Glass

Our Homecoming Queen . . .

Brenda Barker, was chosen by the students of LWHS from three Senior nominees. Crowned by Clifton Smith, she and her court reigned over the victory dance at the Armory after the game.

Crooked Lake was the site . . .

for the Freshmen and Sophomore picnics. The underclassmen ate chicken, swam, and danced. The Knights of Day and the Sounds of Rock provided music for entertainment.

Packed with students . . .

the busses left Lake Wales for the Hi-Time studio in Tampa. The Wipe Outs, cheerleaders, and the Highlander Scottish unit provided part of the entertainment. MC's, Barney and Hector, awarded Nevin Whidden and Jimmy McDougal an album for being caught by the wandering "star." Students from LWHS who viewed the Hi-Time show at home saw a tape of photographs of themselves and their friends.

Senior adolescents . . .

reverted to early childhood on the traditional Kid's Day. Students brought jump ropes, bicycles, jacks and stuffed animals to school. Speech pupils played "Drop the Handkerchief" and "London Bridge." Once again, Seniors experienced the joys of early youth.

Seniors climbed the stairs . . .

of Bok Tower on the annual Tower Day. After Mr. Morrison's brief history of the Tower, students walked through the garden to experience its beauty and tranquility.

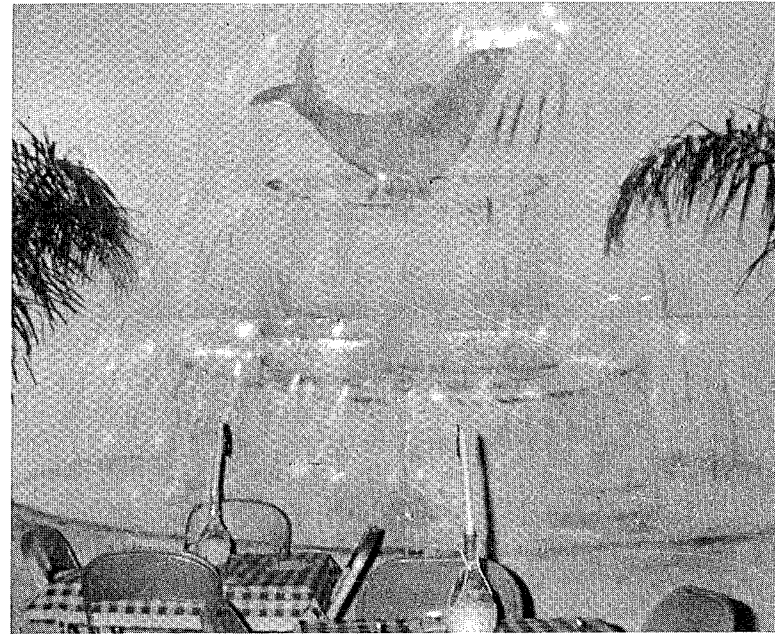

An air of sophistication . . .

prevailed at the Senior Tea. This year the tea was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Updike in Highland Park. The Seniors and their mothers drank punch, ate sandwiches, and enjoyed pleasant conversation. The women's circles of the First Methodist, A. R. Presbyterian, and the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd provided the refreshments.

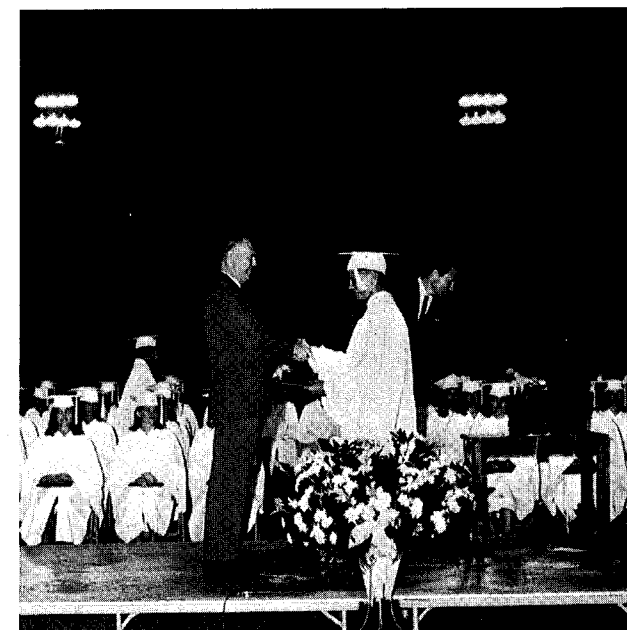

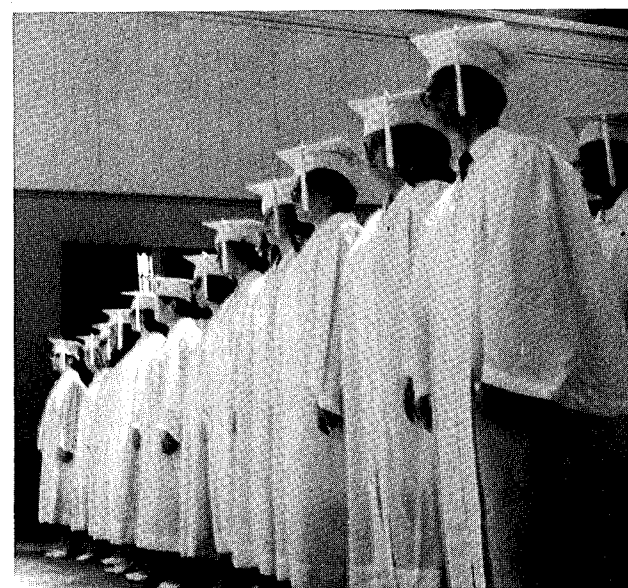

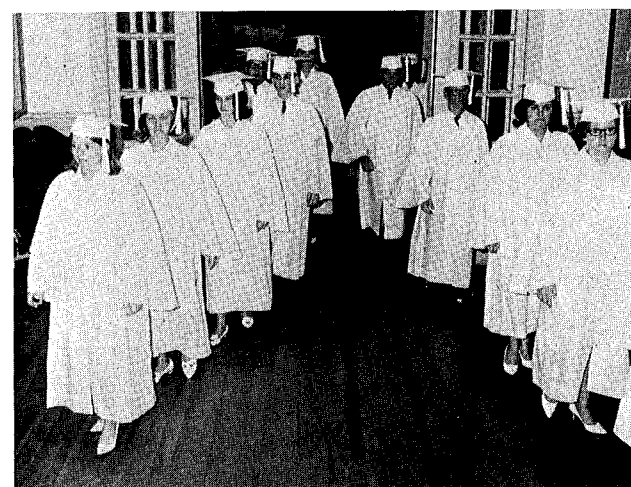

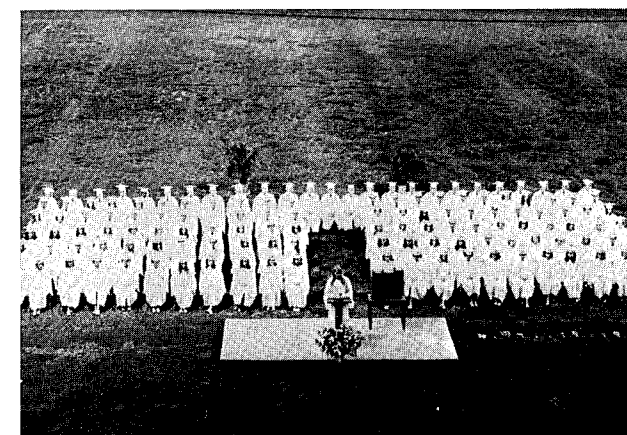

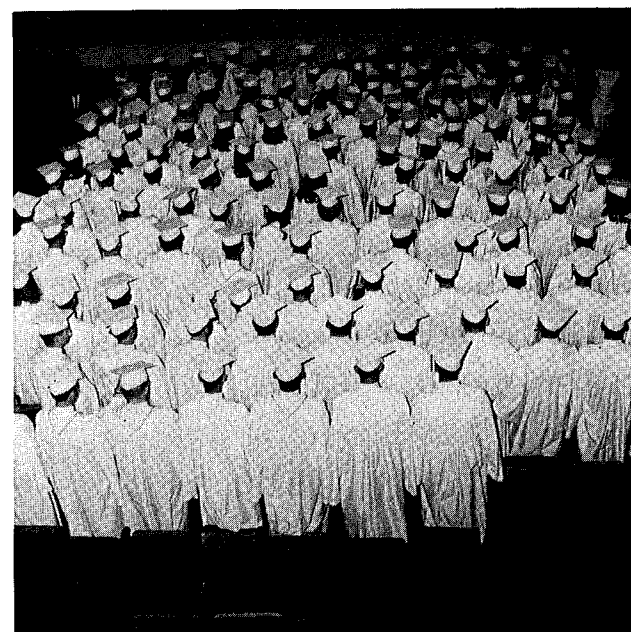

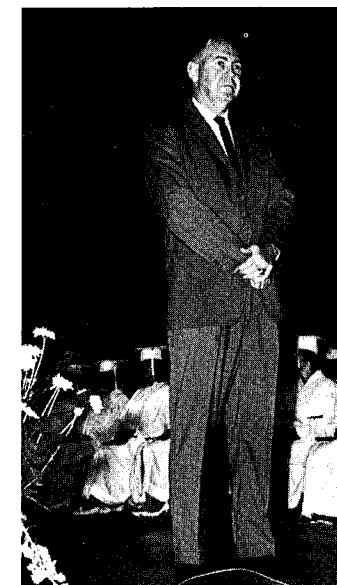

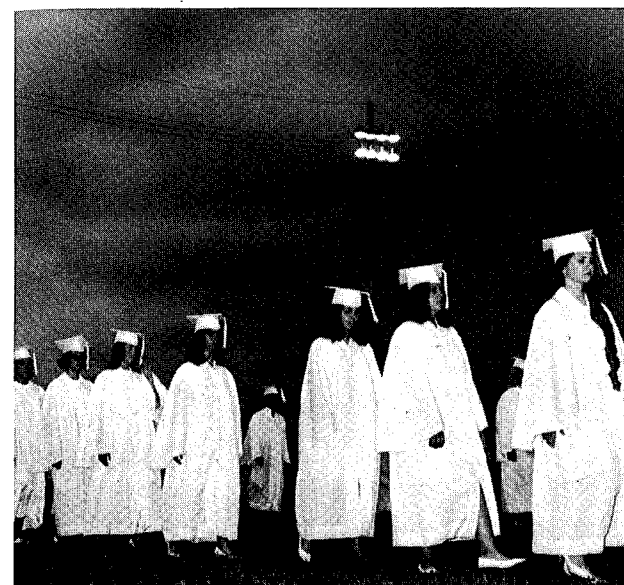

A magic night . . .

everything seemed like a wonderful dream: the decorations of Paris, the exquisite formal wear, Joe Stagi and his Band. After the Junior-Senior Prom, students went to the movie to see "Kaleidoscope," followed by breakfast at the Walesbilt Hotel.

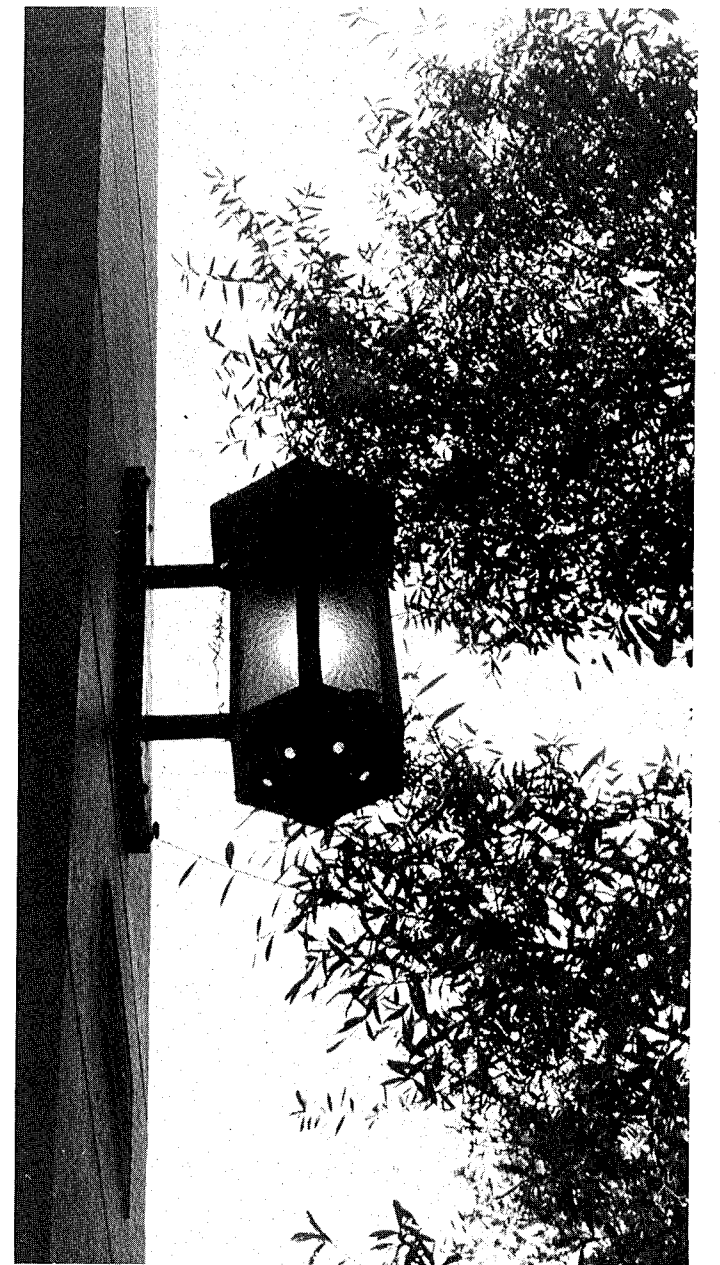

Pride, joy, sadness . . .

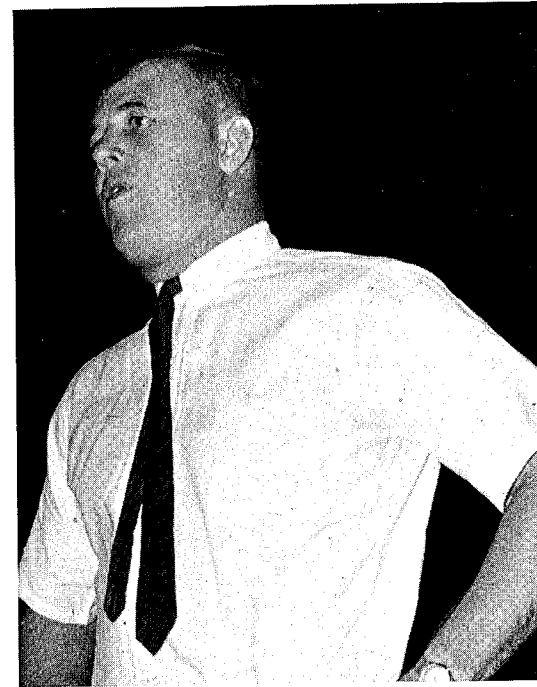

were the mixed feelings of the Class of '67 during Commencement. Administering the sermon for Baccalaureate was the Reverend Kramer from the Evangelical Lutheran Church. Honor Speakers were Diane Griffith, Susie Mott, Kay Updike, Nancy Wolfson, and Dick Burr. Mr. Williamson gave the Seniors their diplomas and congratulated them.

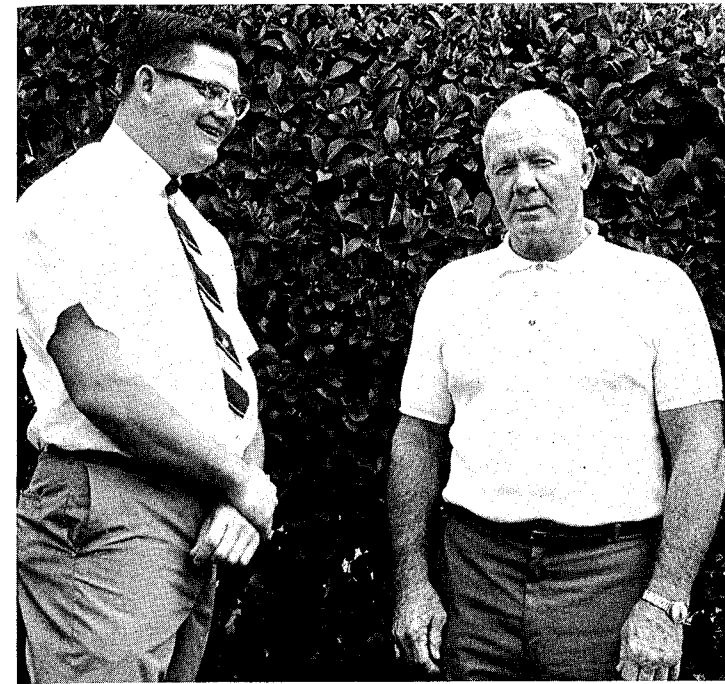

Make you the world a bit better . . .
Because you gave of yourself for the success of the team.

Hard Hitting . . .

and fast action were highlights of this year's football season. The Highlanders fought their way past beefy linemen and fleet halfbacks to attain their outstanding record of 7 wins and 3 losses.

A few Highlanders excelled in their fields and gained special recognition. Roy Norton made the all-state team, Randy Gailey won honorable mention for the all-state team, made the all-conference team and the second all-county team. Roger Sudbury made second all-conference team and the third all-county team. Mike Pike and Jackie Gardner got honorable mention for the all-conference team.

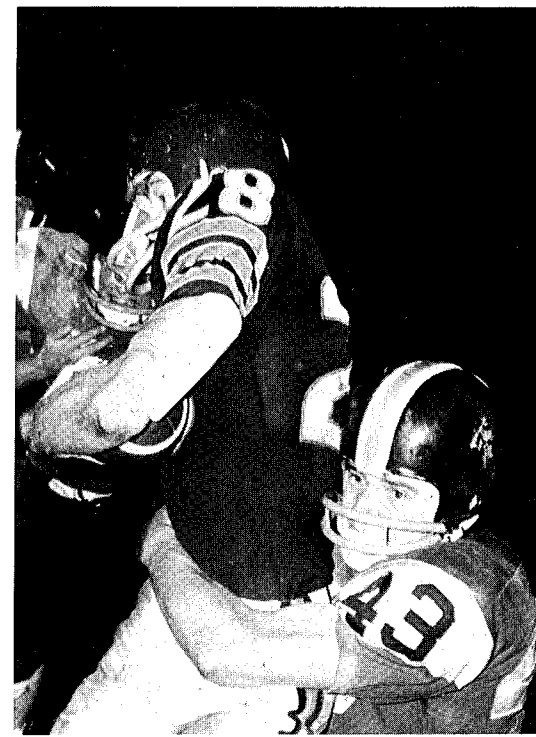

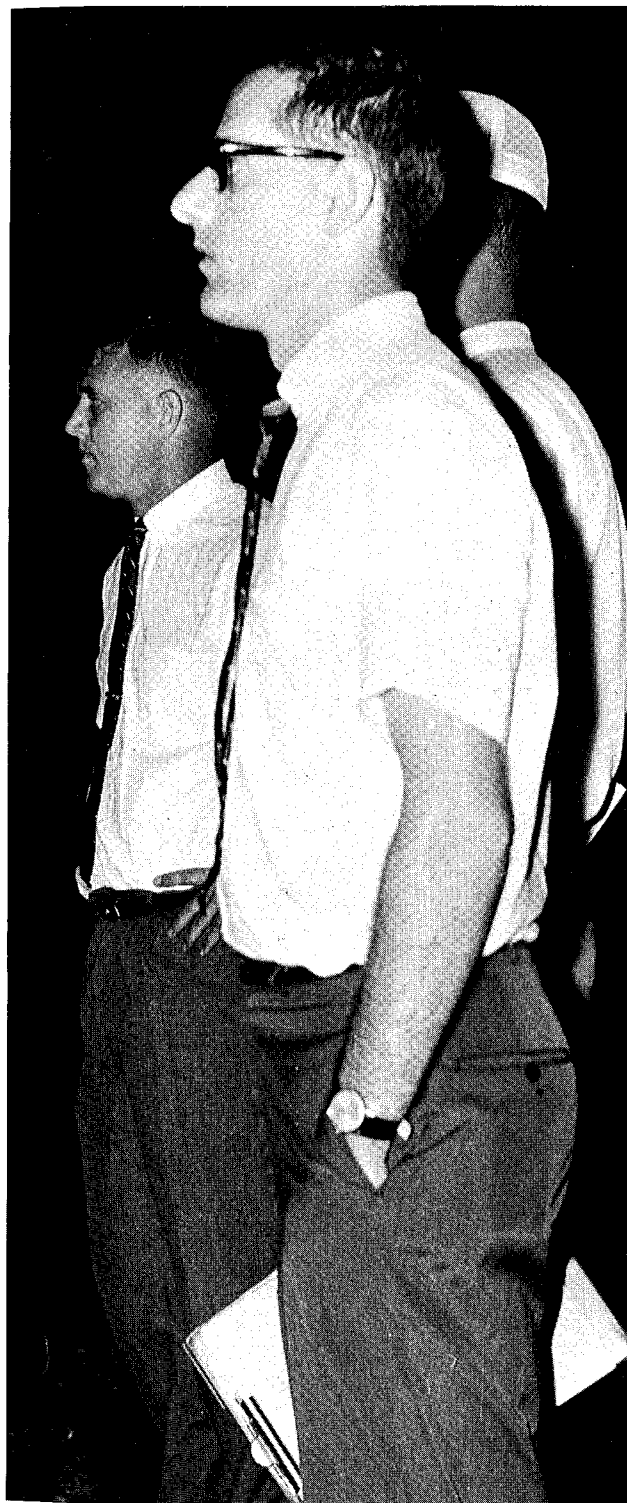

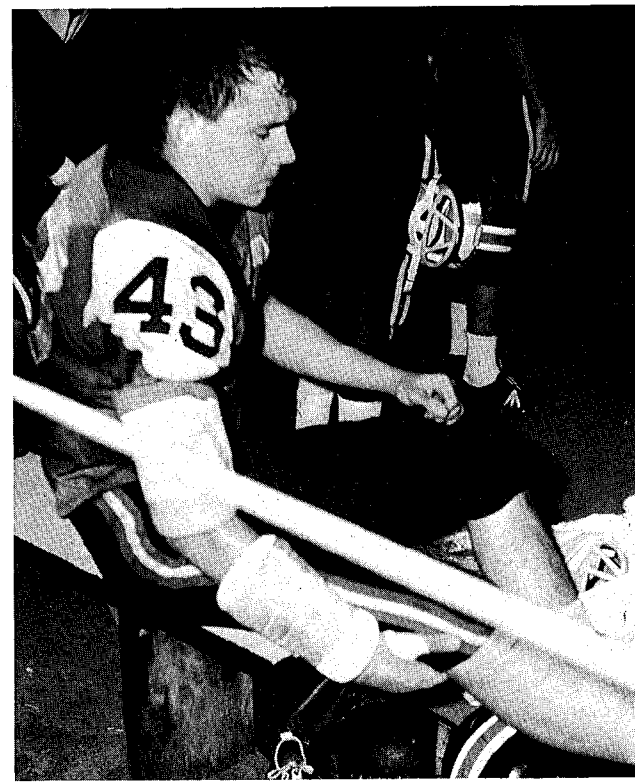

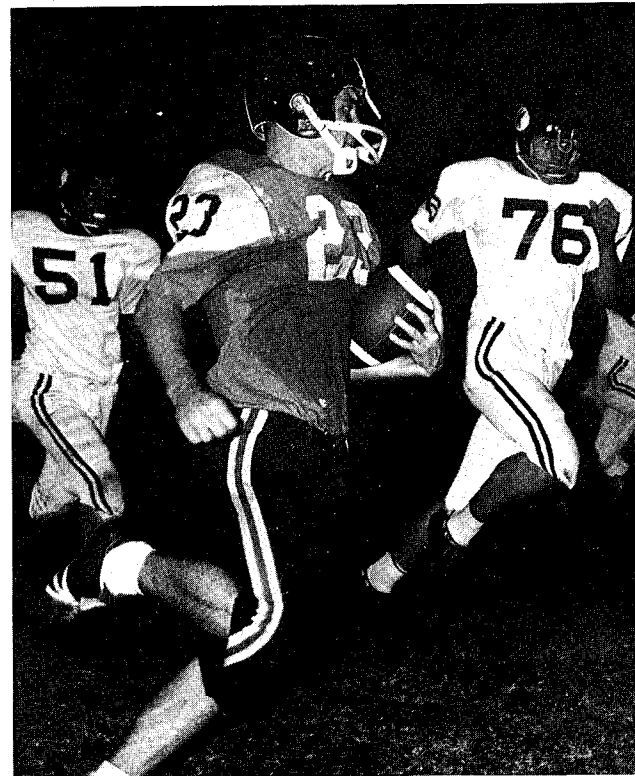

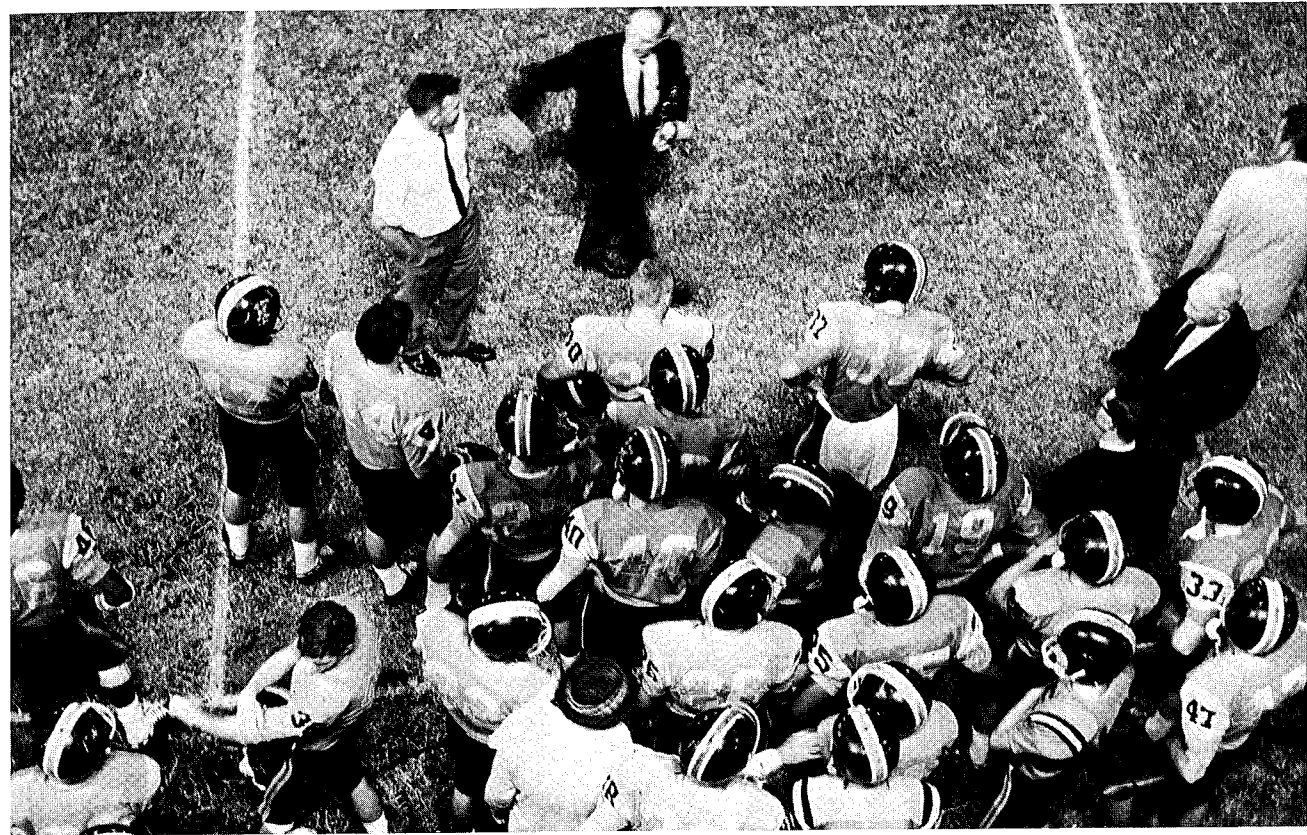

This hard working team produced another great year for the Lake Wales Highlanders.

Hardcourt Action . . .

for the Highlanders this year resulted in the excellent record of 15 victories and 9 losses. However, these losses included some of the most exciting moments. Having lead the entire game against Haines City, the Hornets finally caught the Highlanders in the last two minutes to win by two points. In a game against Plant City, the Panthers would not play the Highlanders fast type of game. They froze the ball for seven minutes in the third quarter and went on to win. This year's team set several new records for Coach Dale Fair. Among these were: passing the century mark twice with scores of 108 and 111, and finishing second place in the conference. This year's team was led by the Southwest Florida Conference Scoring Champion Bruce Weeks, who also broke the school record by scoring 51 points in one game.

Injuries and Illness . . .

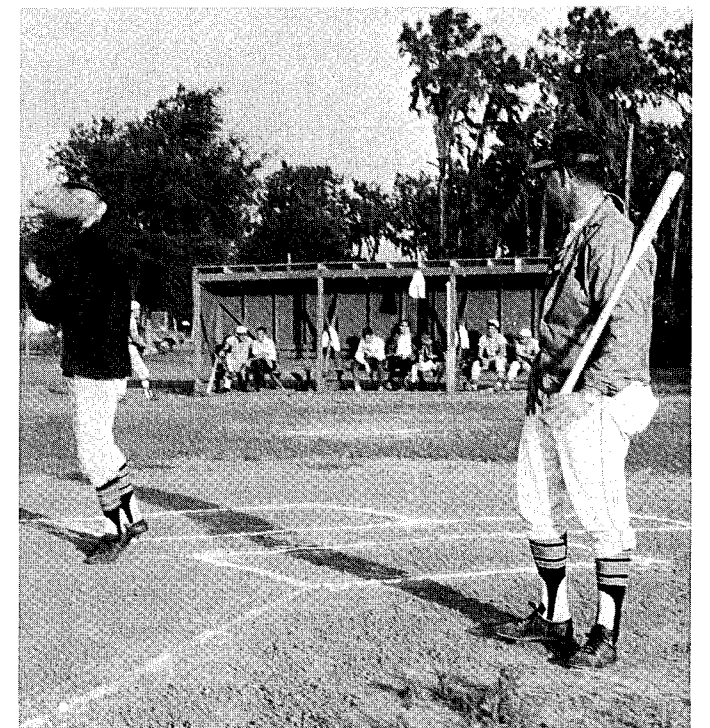

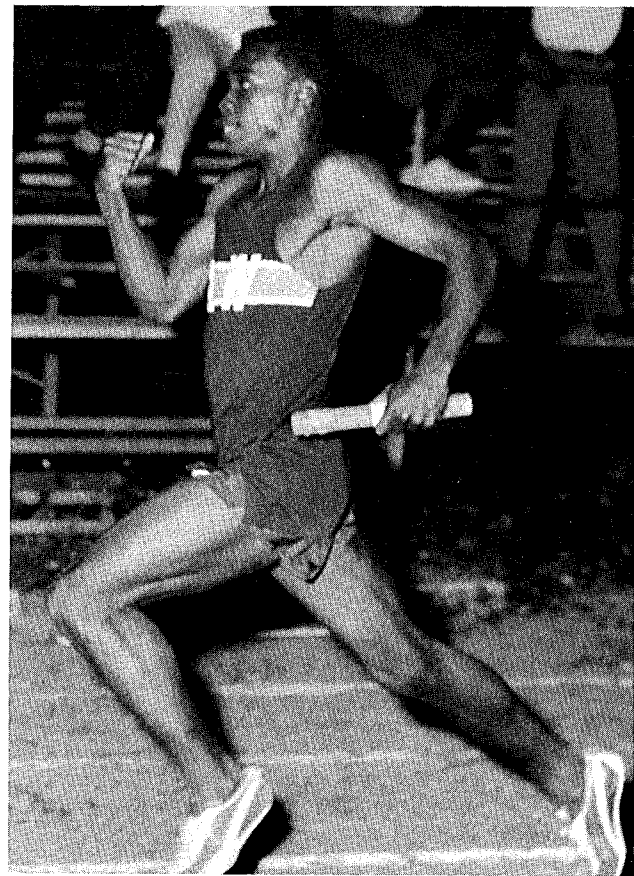

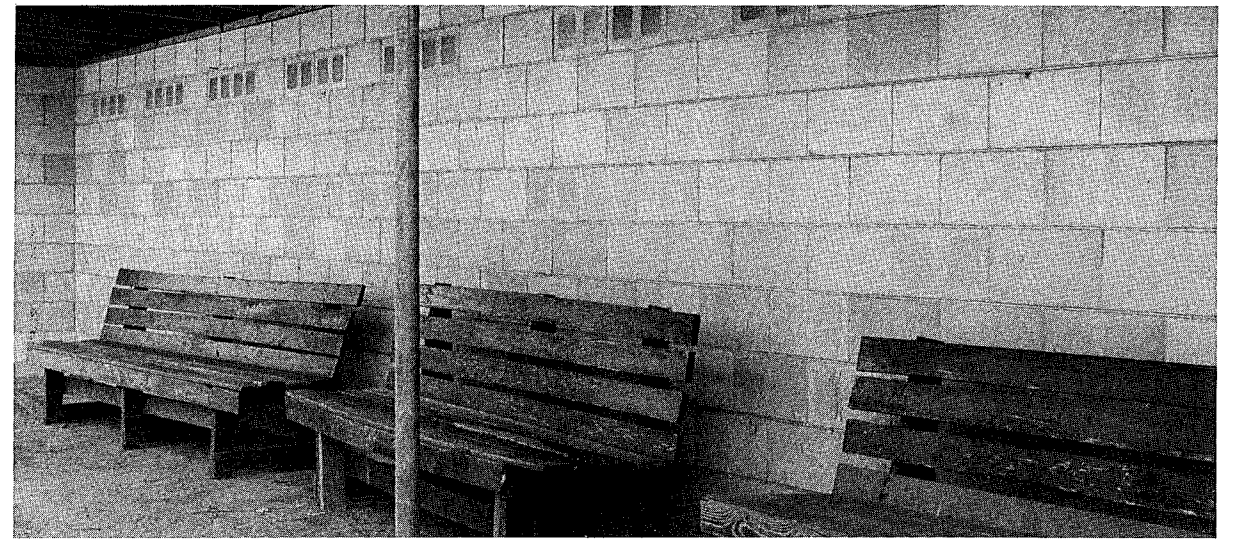

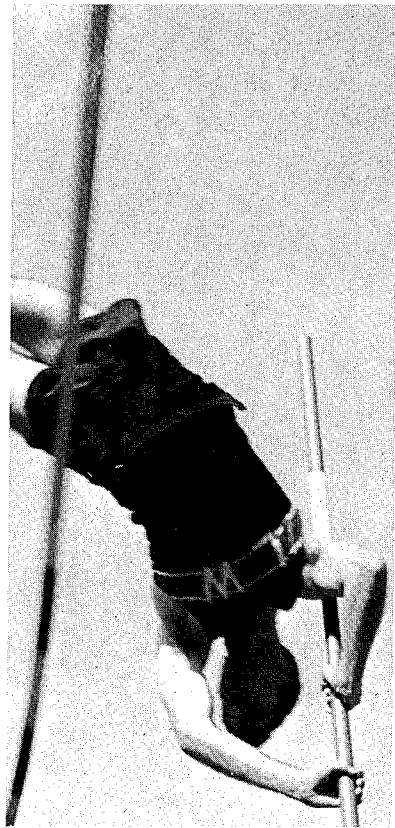

plagued this year's cindermen. Although they didn't win any meets, they finished third in the conference behind powerful Auburndale and Bartow. Three records were shattered and one tied during the season. Daniel McDuffie, Jackie Gardner, Andy Draper, and Joe Ramsey set a new time of 1:30.5 in the 880 relay; Randy Gailey set a new record of 14.9 in the high hurdles; Joe Ramsey tied the 100 yard dash record held by Daniel McDuffie. Skip Stevens raised his own record in the pole vault to 12'6".

Undefeated . . .

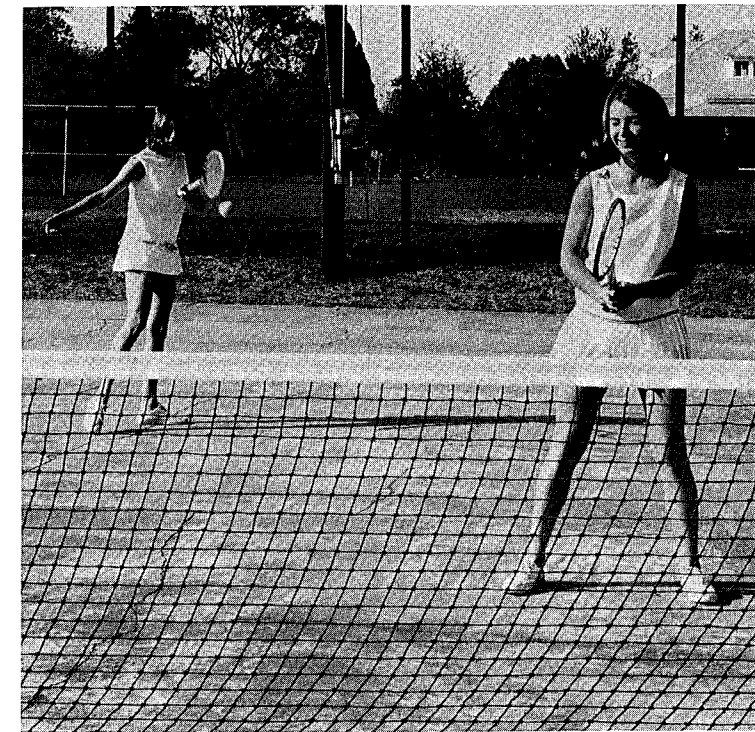

this year's girls' tennis team coached by the very able Miss Galloway, completed the regular season with the top record in the school's athletic program. The team, composed of five seniors, one sophomore, and two freshmen, shut out eight of their thirteen opponents, finished first in the conference, qualified for the state tournament held at Florida Southern College, and won the Polk County Championship. Thus, the gals wound up another phenomenally successful year for Coach Galloway.

Make you the world a bit better . . .
Because you served.

Vital . . .

to any school system is the Student Council. This active organization coordinated the Homecoming festivities, arranged the Hi-Time trip to Tampa, and sponsored the sending of Viet Nam Christmas packages to more than twenty Lake Wales' GI's. In addition, they sponsored a football dance and Monday devotions, attended an FASC convention in Sarasota and not only rang chimes but also played music in the cafeteria. Remember that horrible FM radio at first? New for 1967 was the sale of candles, the installation of a suggestion box, and morning meetings.

Row 1: Adams (Treas.), Mott (V.-Pres.), Burr (Pres.), Griffith (Sec.). Row 2: Mrs. Sites (Spons.), McCann, Burns, Vogel, Futch, Arthur, Weathersbee, Baker, Bowers, Miss Tillman (Spons.). Row 3: Zilahy, Wirt, Scaggs, Mann, Scheets, K. Updike, Wolfson, McNabb. Row 4: Manke, Floyd, Zimmerman, Darty, Alligood, Allen, M. Updike, Morrison. Row 5: Ellis, Bailey, Fischbach, Weeks, Saxon, Robinson, Brice.

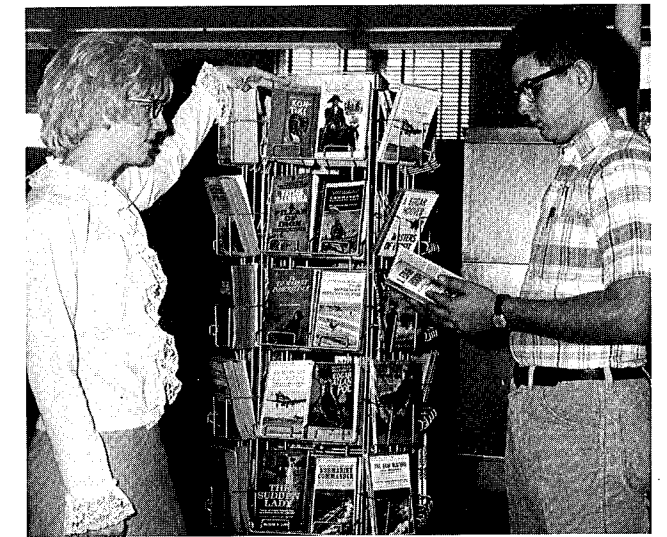

Scholarship, service . . .

leadership, and character are the requirements for membership in the National Honor Society. NHS raised money by selling Homecoming tams and basketball concessions and participating in a work day. In addition to inducting new members every semester, projects included sponsoring Thanksgiving and Holy Week programs, sending Christmas gifts to the rest homes, donating the largest amount of any club to Operation Bookstrap, and hosting both a tea for the faculty and prospective members, and a party for the NHS seniors.

Efficient . . .

is the Library Council, whose main responsibility is manning the distribution desk in the library. This year they sold paperbacks, prepared posters and displays, and assumed the task of selling supplies.

Row 1: Long (V.-Pres.), Pike (Pres.), Chelette (Sec.), Tucker, Odom, Kersey. Row 2: Cribb, Love, Cochran, Donaldson. Row 3: Woodard, MacDonald, Bradley, Barrow, Allen, Kimbrel, Cooper, Alligood. Row 4:

Simpson, Howell, Leckey, Edwards, Childs, Leckey, Jones, McCoy, Backus, Lamb. Sponsors: Mrs. Kipe, Miss Tillman.

for LWHS and the community were the girls of the Beacon Club. Bringing flowers for the office and the teachers' lounge, providing girls for hall duty, erasing marks in library books, cleaning window sills, sending get-well cards to faculty and students, and participating as teacher-helpers were many of the "hidden" services performed by the club. Larger projects included selling $800 worth of football season tickets, decorating the halls at Christmas, sending Christmas packages to five families, helping at various PTA functions, distributing and collecting graduation robes, and ushering at the Commencement exercises. However, it was not "all work and no play"; winning honorable mention on the float, cheering for the Key-Interact game, and coordinating the service club party made the year not just busy, but also enjoyable.

Row 1: Zilahy (Chap.), Morrison (V.-Pres.), Wolfson (Pres.), Mrs. Proctor (Spons.), Alligood (Sec.), M. Updike (Treas.). Row 2: Mann, Bowers, Burns, Baker, Weathersbee, Senters, Vogel, Swanson, Ellis. Row 3: Allen, Griffith, Zimmerman, Martin, McVay, Tindell, Cooper, K. Updike. Row 4: Lake, Carter, Lilly, Bingham, Saxon, Childs, Estes. Row 5: Ellis, Weeks, Bailey, Young, Grant, Robinson, Moon.

Active in serving . . .

the school and community was the Key Club, whose most impressive contribution was painting the cafeteria. Other school services included selling "beat" tags and ads for the football programs, operating the "lost and found" and locker clean-up, lettering basketball rosters, and cleaning school windows, lab tables, blackboards, and the field house. In service to the community, they ushered at Community Concert and Audubon programs, participated in the Key-Interact benefit basketball game, worked for the different PTA festivals, stacked books at the public library, and helped at the Junior High football games. In addition, Key Club sponsored a football dance, held a Christmas party, attended a church service together, adopted a new sweetheart, Mary Allen, and played Kiwanis in a softball game.

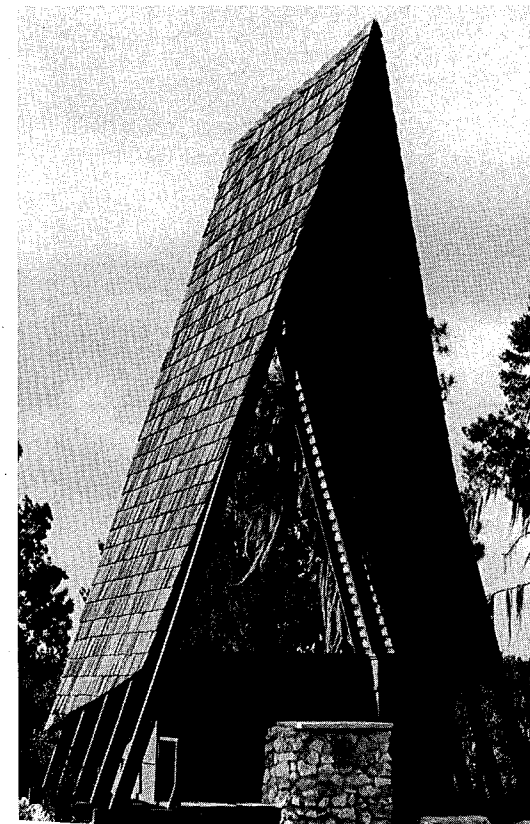

A rewarding year . . .

was the result for a hard-working Interact Club, whose accomplishments were extensive. Sending 385 pounds of food to the flood victims in Florence, Italy, and adopting a Mexican orphan were international projects. Community-minded endeavors included helping the Rotarians build the Camp Flaming Arrow Chapel, painting the press box at Legion Field, donating their share of the profits of the Key-Interact basketball game to Operation Bookstrap, and selling tickets for both the Audubon movies and the junior high basketball games. Projects especially beneficial to LWHS were painting the bookroom and the Interact room, providing mirrors for the boys' restroom, cleaning the men's lounge, appointing members for hall duty, and selling tickets for the various athletic games. In addition, they sold LWHS tee-shirts and sponsored a dance at which Sweetheart Mary Updike was crowned.

Peebles, Pike, Cain, Peterson, Wolfson (Head Majorette), Jordan, Senters, Baldauf, Cizek.

Superior . . .

in all aspects of instrumentation and precision, the Highlander Band has scored straight superior ratings for the past twenty-four years. Under the direction of Mr. Bishop, the 1967 "Citizen of the Year" for Lake Wales, the band was constantly on the go. Half-time shows, pep rallies, football games, basketball games, tourist concerts, the Gasparilla parade, district and state contests in Lakeland and Pompano Beach, and the Annual Spring Concert featuring guest conductor Col. Harold Bachman, flutist Bill Brice, and the senior awards — all were activities on the Highlander Band's Calendar.

are the voices of the Girls' Chorus and the Mixed Chorus. These groups achieved superior ratings at district contest in Tampa and earned excellent scores at the state contest in Daytona Beach. Especially memorable this year were the early morning departures, Twirp Week — "western style," and the Twirp Dance reigned over by King Mike Pike. As always, the return to the Riviera climaxed the year.

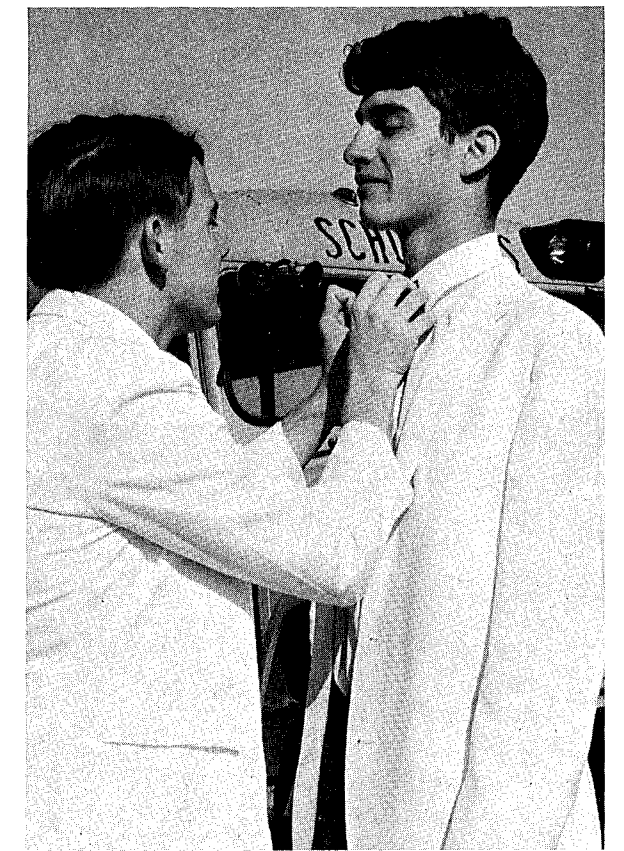

GIRLS' CHORUS: Row 1: Miss McCunis, Black, Walker, Laur, Hearn, Holmberg, Ward, Kieffer, Mrs. Horne, Mrs. Sims. Always busy . . .

are the Future Homemakers of America. This year, under President Kay Cooper, who also served as State Treasurer, the FHA undertook numerous activities. In addition to the annual projects of selling basketball concessions, cookbooks, and tupperware, participating in a fashion show sponsored by Margaret's, and hosting the Mother-Daughter Banquet and the Sweetheart Dance, they helped at the Pancake Festival at Southgate Shopping Center, arranged the Simplicity Fashion Show, began writing foreign pen pals, and adopted a new sweetheart — Denny Fisher.

Shovels and hoes . . .

lead the way to the Ag building, where the Future Farmers of America learn the tricks and techniques of farming. Using their new nursery tractor purchased last summer and forty new grove heaters, these boys have been responsible for budding 5500 citrus trees, pruning grapefruit and valencia groves, and setting a scion grove. In addition they have cleared land by Spook Hill and have planned to purchase and install an irrigation system at the Junior High.

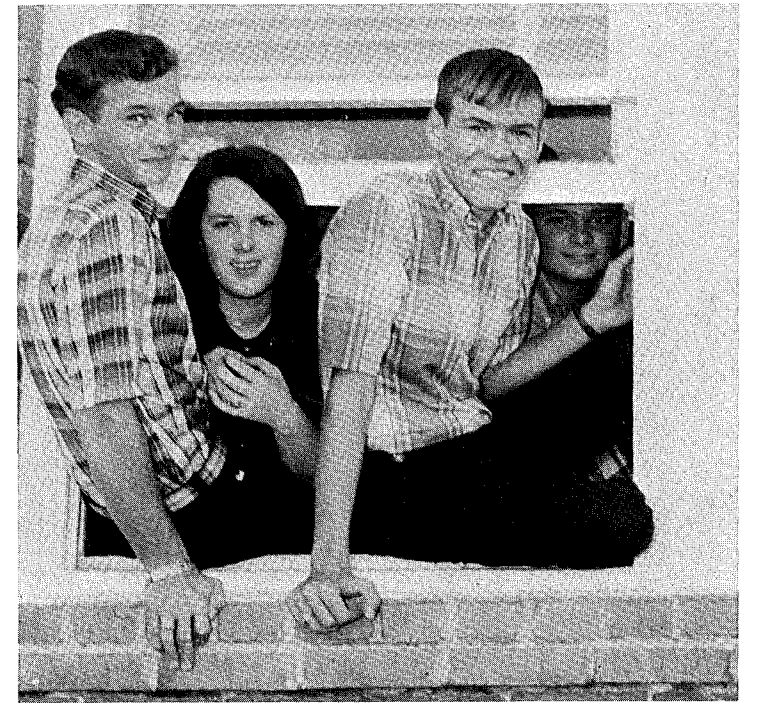

Outspoken . . .

was the Problems of Democracy class. To achieve their goal of understanding democratic processes, POD studied the working operations of the Student Council and presented their findings in an open assembly. Besides political events and their significance, they also discussed economic problems involving taxes, traffic, and air pollution, and took a field trip to learn of the working operations at River Ranch Acres.

Buenos dias . . .

is a term familiar to all members of the Spanish Club. Initiating new members by making them do skits on the stage, trying to break the pinata at the yearly Christmas party, and learning about Mexico and the Latin American countries through films and lectures given at the bimonthly meetings were integral parts of their year. Other activities included selling basketball concessions, sponsoring a basketball dance, and ending the year with the annual beach party at Crooked Lake.

Te Maxime Amo . . .

is a term used not only by members of the Latin Club but also by romantics the world over. Of course, Latin Club's main event in '67 was the annual slave auction, highlighted by the return of auctioneer, Mr. Wilson. The slave day which followed was filled with fun, embarrassment, and reluctant labors. The year ended with two important events: the banquet presided over by Neptune (Elmer Stephens) and Venus (Florene Hubbard) and the trip to the Latin Forum in Clearwater.

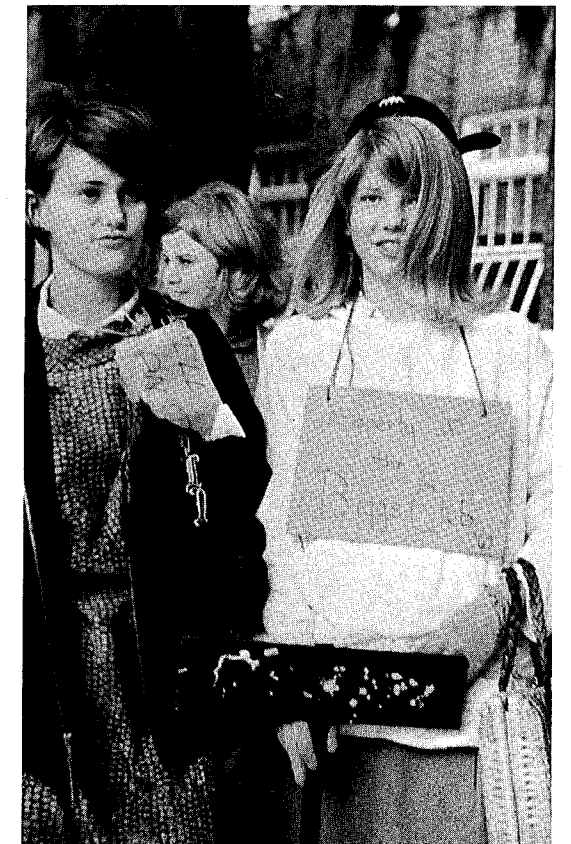

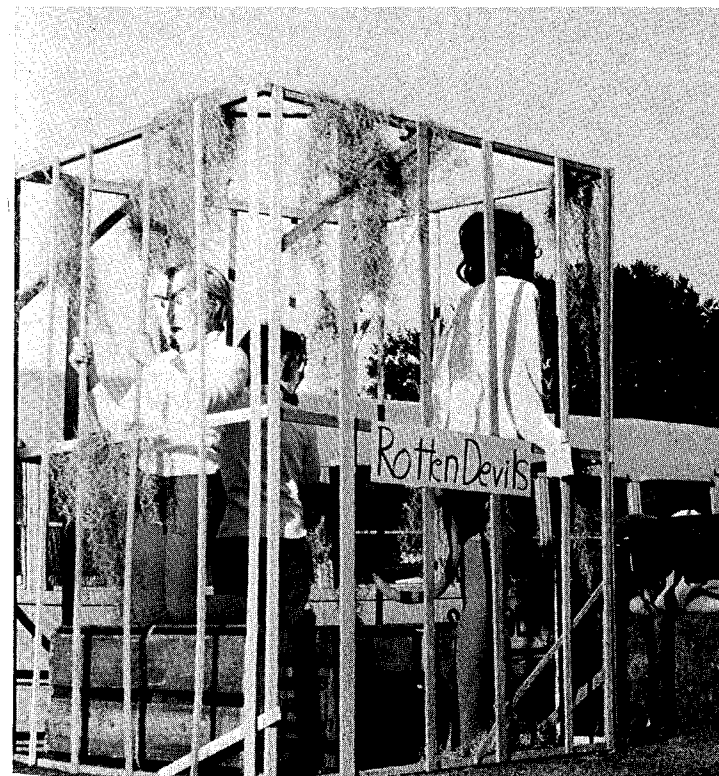

LATIN II: Row 1: Futch, Mann (Sec.), O'Neal (Pres.), Ellis (V.-Pres.), Smith (Treas.), Weathersbee. Row 2: Burns, Pollard, McNabb, Emmert, Johnson, Woodard, Hall. Smith, Brice, Lowe, Griffith, Kelly, Scott, Bryan, Zilahy. Row 5: Scarborough, Darty, Hunt, Meyer, Adkinson, Norem, Parlier, Wolfson, Turner, Parsons, Sutton, Chandley.

for the welfare of others was characteristic of the members of the Junior Red Cross. Preparing monthly tray favors and crossword puzzles for the hospital, assisting the community with the annual Red Cross drive, and coordinating the monthly area meetings for the elementary, junior, and senior high students were their main projects. Other activities included sponsoring a dance and selecting delegates for the summer training camps.

Row 1: Penniman (Sec.), Pollard (Co-Chair.), Miss Galloway (Spons.), McVay (Co-Chair.). Row 2: Wolfson, Hall, Farabee, Simpson, V. Collier, Williams, M. Education for living . . .

is the motto of the Diversified Cooperative Training program. Through the DCT program young people have the opportunity to attend classes in the morning and to work in the community in the afternoon. Since work is a major part of life, DCT's purpose is to provide students with those skills which will make it possible for them to carry on a more productive life. DCT offers students the chance to discover and develop their interests, latent aptitudes, and abilities, thereby enabling them to become more valuable citizens with a satisfying feeling of confidence and vocational security.

Responsible . . .

for recording the activities of the '66-'67 school year was the Annual Staff. This staff of sixteen was kept busy planning individual and club pictures, taking and assorting candid shots at dances, athletic contests, club meetings, and special events, making numerous decisions concerning layout, cover, and print type, and writing and rewriting copy.

As Seniors . . .

we entered our last year at L.W.H.S. Participating in many activities, we gained experience every day. Through textbooks we learned a great deal, but also, and perhaps more importantly, we increased our understanding of our classmates and ourselves. Our friendships, accomplishments, and acquired knowledge will never be forgotten, but will aid us in living harmoniously and successfully for the rest of our lives.

To make this . . .

a collection of memories of the 1966-67 school year has been the sole aim of all who helped to compile this annual. We reached a new sales record of annuals and with the aid of our business staff—Anne Burns, Becky Perdue, and Linda Cain—we also were able to enlarge the Ad section.

Those who have helped make this book have given more than just time and hard work. They have given of themselves. Susie Mott did an excellent job on the faculty section. In the activity section, Kathy Vogel brought alive the memories of the activities of LWHS.

The club section is one of the hardest sections in the book. Nancy Wolfson spent much time here. Skip Stevens and Mike Ellis' work on the sport section was a job well done.

Mary Martin and Meredith Akers spent many hours working on the class section. Also to Diane Griffith we are grateful for her work on the many parts of the Senior section.

Being a photographer is the hardest job on the staff. There are many hours of picture-taking outside of school and sorting, filing, and sending off negatives. There is also the disappointment of blank negatives and a staff all over your back. We wish to thank our photographers—Ken Clayton, Lanny Price, and Meredith Akers—for their work.

Without the encouragement and guidance of our sponsor Mrs. Gloria Hunt, we could not have made this book what it is. Our thanks to her and all our co-workers for their many hours of devotion and sacrifice.

In your possession you now hold the result of a year of hard work, disappointments, and worry. We hope that for you it will bring back many memories of the year 1966-67.

May God bless you and keep you in all you do.

Your editors,
Susan Adams
Edith Darty.
