SUMMARY

Dr. Zito presented the Superintendent's proposed budget for the 2026-2027 fiscal year, identifying salaries, benefits, transportation, supplies, and tuition as the primary drivers of the budget increase. During the presentation, Dr. Zito addressed previously submitted questions from Board members. Alongside Dr. Nozik, a detailed review of the budget document was conducted, highlighting specific recommended expenditures and proposed reductions. Dr. Zito also discussed unique budgetary pressures, including the growing populations of special education students and multi-lingual learners, as well as the high rate of student transiency within Rocky Hill. The session concluded with Dr. Zito and Dr. Nozik responding to additional inquiries from the Board.
