About Sterling, CT

A historically significant town along the Rhode Island border in Windham County, Sterling was once a stagecoach route between New London and Providence frequented by General Rochambeau and George Washington. Its Historic District is lined with homes dating back to the 1700s. Now home to 3,578 residents (2020 census), Sterling is a rural community of 27 square miles dotted with scenic green pastures and dairy farms.

Residents enjoy a close-knit community while benefitting from its proximity to Providence and Hartford.

The District shall promote nondiscrimination and an environment free of harassment based on an individual's race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, national origin, disability, marital status or age or because of the race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, marital status or age of any other persons with whom the individual associates or status as a Veteran. The District provides equal access to the Boy Scouts and other designated youth groups.

Sterling Community School

Educates 327 students PK — Grade 8 in its beautiful 2005 school; Sends 192 students to Plainfield and other high schools for a total of 519 students

Our Mission

To foster a safe and engaging learning community of critical thinkers, effective communicators and collaborators, creative problem solvers and imaginative innovators that will persevere to become self-motivated learners who are responsible, compassionate, contributing citizens in our ever-changing technological society.

Points of Pride:

- * Every child is known
- * We differentiate our instructional programs to help all students access a rigorous education with the enrichment and support for accelerated learners, English language learners, students with disabilities, and students below grade level.
