Interview of Mr. Torrance Wilson Hemingway Career and Technology Center

Q: What should parents expect when their children attend your school this year?

A: They should expect the faculty and staff to push the students to be the very best they can be.

Q: What does a typical school day look like for you as a principal?

A: A typical day for me as a principal includes setting the pace for the day, taking phone calls from community members and stakeholders, student conferences, and teacher conferences.

Q: How has the nationwide teacher shortage impacted your school, do you have a fully staffed school?

A: I currently have a full staff and firmly believe that employees respond to the way you treat them.

Q: What's new at your school for this upcoming school year?

A: We do not have anything necessarily new this year. We are focusing on improving current programing for maximum student success.

Q: As an administrator what are your strengths?

A: My strengths are skills that include communication, social skills, problem solving, organization, and management which help to drive a school from good to great. My weakness is my intense desire to see everyone around me succeed.

Q: How would you describe your relationship with your students?

A: My strengths are skills that include communication, social skills, problem solving, organization, and management which help to drive a school from good to great. My weakness is my intense desire to see everyone around me succeed.

Q: If random students were interviewed from your school what do you think they will say about you as their principal?

A: A random student would say that Mr. Wilson cares about my future.

Q: What's one thing that you want parents to know about you as the Principal?

A: As a principal I desire the very best for all students children and I am willing to go the extra mile to make that happen.
